Candlestick Press is an independent publisher based in Nottingham in the UK. We've been publishing poetry pamphlets since 2008 not only for people who already love poetry, but also for those who will love it but perhaps don't know that yet. We now also publish short story and essay pamphlets to complement our poetry range.

Our 'Instead of a card' pamphlets make an ideal alternative to a mainstream greetings card and are a small gift in their own right. Printed in the UK on FSC accredited material with a biodegradable cellophane wrapper, the packs include brown eco-envelopes and bookmarks which are left blank for your message. They are excellent companions on journeys or for a bedtime read.

By supporting us, you help an independent press and our supported charities at the same time as treating yourselves, your friends and family to some wonderful poems and stories.

Our POS display box is available free of charge and displays 50 titles.
