Get the experience you need!

Complementing your degree with workplace experience will set you up for success. CBU's Career Services team works with students to build and develop experiential skills outside of the classroom. You know, that real-world experience we all need.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING OPTIONS:

Co-operative Education

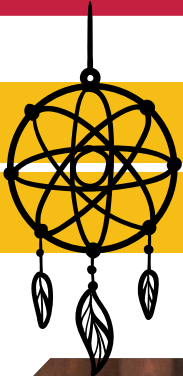

An excellent opportunity for students to combine academic study with work experience. You'll gain mentorship, self-knowledge, confidence and a competitive edge for future pursuits.

Co-curricular Record

An official university document recognizing student achievements and involvement outside of the classroom. Once developed, your CCR becomes a great complement to your resume.

Work Study

On-campus employment opportunities for students in good academic standing to work under the supervision of faculty or university staff.

Atlantic Canada's Leader in Indigenous Education

CBU is home to Unama'ki College, a dedicated Centre focused on preserving and sharing Mi'kmaw culture and knowledge with the entire community. Unama'ki College provides support for Indigenous students completing their university degree while encouraging all students to learn more about Mi'kmaw culture.

Off-Campus Housing

Looking for off-campus housing? Our website features a searchable database for students to help them find off-campus accommodations. This database is maintained by our Off-Campus Housing Coordinator, who works to connect students to landlords and vice versa.

CBU.ca/housing

Housing plays a vital role in your student experience.

Off-campus housing in the area is limited, and students should begin their search early.

Students should budget $1,000* per month for housing and associated costs (heat, lights, internet, etc.).

These prices are subject to change and do not reflect other living costs.*

HARD WORK GETS REWARDED

When we work together and invest in each other, great things happen. That’s why we provide more than $2.6 million in scholarships each year, supporting students from their first year through to graduation.

Along with scholarships, CBU also supports students through in-course bursaries and paid work-study programs. While scholarships are awarded to students who have excelled scholastically in high school and are entering post-secondary education for the first time, bursaries are for students who demonstrate financial need.

There are a range of other entrance scholarships from $500 per year to $5,000 per year that will also be offered after a review of applicants.

BURSARIES

Cape Breton University provides students with financial needs an opportunity to apply for financial aid through its bursary program. There are a number of bursaries that students may be eligible for, as well as general bursaries that all students can apply for. In order to be eligible for a bursary, students must:

- Be a registered CBU student
- Complete either an Entrance Bursary Form or In-Course Bursary Form
- Provide income tax assessments for both the student and, in some instances, parents or guardians

FINANCIAL AID

Our Financial Support Specialists are available to assist you with any financial affairs, including applications for various loan programs.

CBU also offers in-course bursaries to students who demonstrate financial need in the second semester.

WORK STUDY

CBU's Work Study Bursary Program is an on-campus opportunity to work under the supervision of a faculty or staff member, gain professional experience and boost your resume, all while earning an income.

Land Acknowledgement

Cape Breton University acknowledges it is located in Unama'ki, one of the seven districts of Mi'kma'ki, the ancestral and unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq people. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which Mi'kmaq, Wolastoqiyik, and Passamaquoddy People first signed with the British Crown in 1726. The treaties did not deal with the surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wolastoqiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.
