

LU5950 Bringing a sense of space & style to a small cottage near Matlock Derbyshire. Sarah Copley was influenced by her grandmother who had an antiques business and as a teenager bought and sold pieces found in markets & fairs. Her small cottage near the Peak District was originally the town malthouse and has come alive with her choice of decoration and careful choice of selected pieces of furniture only.

