

LU6040 Victorian family house in Birmingham with a secret. Kate and Matt discovered a large, deep water well underneath the house when they started work! It cost all their contingency fund to fill in but they managed to get the renovation and decoration completed, although they and their two sons did have to camp-out upstairs for a while while the new kitchen was built.

