

LU9911 Marlene and Andrew's 18thC Detached House

Reviving a period property had been their dream so when they first viewed this house they knew it was just what they wanted. It took a lot of planning and work as they were both working full-time and bringing up their two sons!

