FROM THE FOGSI OFFICE

“The prudent heir takes careful inventory of his legacies and gives a faithful accounting to those whom he owes an obligation of trust.”

- John F Kennedy

Dr. Hrishikesh Pai
Secretary General

It is our pleasure and privilege to present to the vibrant membership of FOGSI the 55th Annual report. The previous report presented activities from the office over the past three years. This report focuses on the year gone by.

FOGSI has an unique governance structure built into its DNA where all the arms of FOGSI need to function in harmony. The office is a well oiled machine built upon the foundation provided by all the past secretary generals which runs efficiently and silently. The office has now 15 full time staff working in a coherent and structured fashion. We run a flat organisation and that makes us uniquely efficient. Systems established in the past are being strengthened.

We moved into our new premises on 18th January 2015. The shift was managed with unfailing good humour and efficiency by our staff who took it upon themselves the rigour of not only making a major shift but also making sure that the office continued to function smoothly. We are happy to report that despite all the problems of shifting, the office did not cease to function even for one day and the continuity of work was outstanding.

Besides the space in our new premises we have completely upgraded our IT Systems and now have a backup system for our work product comparable to any organisation globally. We also have capability to give remote access to selected folders for our partner organisations so we can work in sync. Our Auditorium has taken fine shape and has now successfully hosted several meetings with its State of Art infrastructure.

Our Back office which will serve as a base for storage and functions like counting of votes etc. is also ready and is an important step in the process of building capacity of our world class office.

We are at an advanced stage in the development of a cloud based membership management system which will revolutionise the way we work and communicate with our members. All the arms of FOGSI will be able to access the system, including the ICOG, the Journal, the Social security scheme members and others. If the system performs satisfactorily the database of each society will be opened up to the society and the benefit of the system will be passed on to each society. In the third phase of the project the data for each member will be opened to the member (only their individual data) so that they can log in and update their details themselves.

We have re looked at the election systems and whilst they have been adequately streamlined for the members the back office functions for the elections need some uniformity, which we will institutionalise. We are also trying to unify the timing of elections so that we can attend to more than one election simultaneously and perform the electoral procedures in even more organised fashion.

The FOGSI website has undergone a comprehensive redesign. The new design seeks to embrace the cutting edge of Web Graphic Design and I am very happy to report that besides the actual coding most of the design has been done by us. New Trends in Web Design like Isomorphic JavaScript, No Chrome and a Flat Design and a Modular or Grid Based design is used. Each module is intended to flex based on the screen size.

We have tried to reduce scrolls on the pages. The lack of scrolling means the content is extremely focused, and the hierarchy of content is clearly established. We have also introduced Responsive Web Design to re-paginate your content to suit the device being used to view it and use a fluid grid to allow your content to react to smaller (and larger) browser windows.

The Website is therefore Flat, Responsive and Small in keeping with the cutting edge of Website design. We have also tried to incorporate “delightful design” into the website. As an example when you hover over the menu above and below the dynamic scroll you will notice that the dot below the text gets magnified to show your place on the page easily. You will also notice the colours of the placeholder dots are saffron, white and green to represent our national flag. Your comments and feedback is welcome.

The office hosted meetings like the Cell meetings, the Conference Conduct Committee meeting, and meetings with varied organisations like FIGO and Avni for the PPIUCD Project, The Pratigya Campaign, PSI and APT, Royal College of Physicians of Ireland, Stakeholder meeting for Neonatal Blood Screening, The Second Meeting with Cipla for submission of the Dossier for Recognition of Medication abortion for second trimester abortion and an evaluation visit for the Global Comprehensive Abortion Care Initiative. We also held the ICOG Refresher Course for the MRCOG and MRCPi exams at the office and the MRCPi Part I Exams were also held in our auditorium.

The terrible tragedy of the Nepal Earthquake moved us all. As is its wont, FOGSI responded to the needs of the Nepal Society of Obstetrics and Gynaecology and contributed INR Five Lakhs to the rehabilitation efforts. The funds from FOGSI will be used to rehabilitate a Maternity Hospital and provide care for mothers and women from all over Nepal.

Ms Flory Henry has now retired from the office after 37 years of dedicated service. We wish her the very best for a long and happy life. Our office staff, with the help of Dr. Parikshit Tank and Dr. Ameya Purandare have worked hard to put this annual report together and Printrade Issues (I) Pvt. Ltd. have been very helpful in getting it out on time.

We hope the report finds a place on many members bookshelves and minds.

The 3 orations, 200 lectures, 21 panels, 3 debates, 21 mini lectures, 11 special sessions enlightened the attendees of the conference. The invited faculty included 60 international and 635 national faculties from various sub specialties of O & G, proving that this conference was a unity in diversity, yet an academic feast. The 819 free papers were well screened and conducted in the 10 small parallel halls simultaneously and chaired by faculty from all over the country. Program highlights

The FOGSI Managing Committee Meeting was conducted on 22nd January 2015. Various important issues were discussed. It was followed by the Managing Committee Dinner.

The national and FOGSI flag were hoisted on 23rd January 2015 in the morning at the venue. It was attended by the office bearers, senior FOGSI members, managing committee members and delegates.

The inauguration on 22nd January 2015 began on time and stuck to the agenda. Dr. Jacob Kumaresan - Executive Director WHO and the Cine Actor Padmabhushan Shri Kamalhaasan, honored it as chief guests. The important function of handing over the Presidency by Dr Suchitra Pandit to Dr Prakash Trivedi and the honoring of Dr Shirish Sheth along with the handing over of FOGSI prizes were done with precision.

The banquet at ITC Grand Chola was attended by 2000 delegates, which exemplified what's typical of South India's charm and dancing prowess. The grand gala night was held on the beach with Miss World Aishwarya Rai gracing the occasion and driving the audience into a near frenzy. The Trade Exhibition was well laid out with a limited number of stalls, yet there were 124 participants. The trade exhibition was well spread out making space for the first introduction of the Flash Mob by the OGSSI members, which was an unexpected hit. Chennai offered a variety of shopping areas and tours including Mamallapuram, Pondicherry and Kanchipuram availed by the delegates. Many of the delegates were blessed with the divine grace of Lord Balaji of Tirupathi.

A feature of the conference was the reasonable accommodation for all – even 5 star hotels were Rs11000 and below due to the efforts of the organizers. The overwhelming numbers were difficult to manage and resulted in the problems we faced with food on the first day and with the entry of accompanying persons on the second day. We must emphasize that we were only following the directives of the FOGSI.

The valedictory ceremony ended the conference on 25th January 2015, on a victorious and successful note. We wish to thank the FOGSI and the fraternity for the great chance offered to us. The accounts of the event were quickly computed and at the Ahmadabad Managing Committee meeting in early May a sum of Rs Three Crores was paid to FOGSI as their share of the conference.

I am really privileged to be President of our esteemed Federation, FOGSI of which I have been a member since 1984. Believe me, I have cherished every moment of the 30 years of this learning process as FOGSI has given me a platform for interaction with colleagues from all over India at an academic and personal level.

My theme : Empower women ... Empower India Pledge for excellence !!

Though women have progressed in a number of spheres yet much more needs to be done. Violence against women is on the rise and we hope to resolve some issues by creating awareness .

Maternal mortality is one of the basic health indicators of a society. To achieve the MDG 5 goal by 2015 , it is very vital that unmet needs of our women regarding nutrition , anemia , reproductive and menopausal health should be addressed .. Our vision 2020 is to have maternal mortality rate comparable to that of the developed countries. FOGSIANS should work along with health care policy makers to address women's health needs in a holistic way starting from conception to senescence as Women's health is wealth of the Nation. This is possible if every FOGSIAN pledges for excellence in whatever they do.

We can't help everyone, but everyone can help someone.

FOGSI PROJECT REPORT

1. EmOC FOGSI certification course report by Dr. Sadhana Desai

Since 2006 FOGSI/ICOG has been conducting the EmOC program in partnership with Government of India – Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, the respective State health & family welfare departments and Avni. The purpose of the program has been to train MBBS doctors in comprehensive obstetric management, whom the State health department may then post at FRUs, delivery points, 24X7 PHCs so as to attend the emergencies relating to pregnancies and child birth, thereby prevent the maternal and infant deaths and thus help in reducing the MMR and IMR in the medium and long terms.

In the year 2014 – 2015, 196 medical officers have been trained in EmOC and 31 additional district training master trainers have been created for the program. Cumulatively, through the EmOC program 5 nodal training centers, 34 tertiary training centers and 258 district hospital training center have been set up. A total of 1675 medical officers have been trained in EmOC so far.

Report on the FOGSI FIGO PPIUCD Initiative

Dr Hema divakar

National Co-ordinator

The International Federation of Gynecology and Obstetrics (FIGO), has initiated the Immediate Post Partum Intra Uterine Contraceptive Device (PPIUCD) project across four countries in the world and these include, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Kenya, and India.

In India FIGO along with The Federation of Obstetric and Gynaecological Societies of India (FOGSI) and AVNI are implementing the PPIUCD program within the framework of the Government of India guidelines and the initiative aims to work with Government of India – Ministry of Health and Family Welfare and other partners to support its new broad strategic direction for family planning to not only achieve population stabilization but also to reduce maternal mortality as well as infant and child mortality. As increase in institutional deliveries in India offers tremendous opportunities, focusing on strengthening postpartum contraception needs in women here, we believe, will be a step in the right direction.

FIGO and FOGSI together identified 06 centers across India where the program is being implemented in Phase I. The 06 centers include, CSS Medical College - Kolkata, JNM Medical College - Kalyani, JSS Medical College - Mysore, Government Medical College - Surat, TNMC - Mumbai, and Wadia Maternity hospital - Mumbai.
