

Position: Researcher, Economics and Trade (Full time or Project-based)

Department: Research

Location: Mumbai, India

Start date: January 2025

Salary: As per industry standards

Gateway House: Indian Council on Global Relations is a not-for-profit, non-partisan, independent, membership-based, foreign policy think-tank established in 2009, to engage India's leading corporations and individuals in debate and scholarship on India's foreign policy and its role in global affairs.

Gateway House executes its mission through a comprehensive website (www.gatewayhouse.in), a productive research programme and a robust membership and meetings programme.

Expertise

- Economics and Finance: Includes the study currency markets and movements, international financial markets, global regulatory frameworks and monetary policies, geopolitics of capital flows, multilateral financial institutions, geostrategic risk
- Foreign trade policy: Includes the study of bilateral, regional (India-ASEAN), plurilateral (e.g. RCEP) and multilateral trading arrangements (e.g. WTO).
- Business and supply chains: Includes the study of multinational corporations, global value chains, foreign joint ventures, etc.

Responsibilities and Expectations

- Write long-form papers and reports, shorter commentaries, and blogs.
- Undertake independent research; plan, design and implement research projects.
- Gather information by doing field research; attend area seminars and lectures.
- Carry out quantitative, econometric and computational analysis (preferred).
- Provide support across departmental lines and for other Fellows, upon request.
- Apply appropriate research techniques to gather information, including surveys, case studies and interviews.
- Develop research-based seminars, roundtables, and meetings with relevant policy figures.
- Represent Gateway House at scholarly meetings and conferences; introduce the research and its relevance to Gateway House members and potential member outreach activities
- Represent Gateway House for print and TV media interviews and comments

Preferred Qualifications:

- Indian nationality preferred.
- Master's, with five years' relevant work experience in the field.
- Experience of working in government, multilateral institutions, financial institutions, multinational businesses or think tanks will hold additional value.
- Good research, quantitative, reporting and writing skills.
- Solid proof-reading and editing skills with a strong attention to detail.
- Enthusiastic and creative team player with ability to work both independently and collaboratively.

Please submit a CV, a covering letter indicating your interest in Gateway House and motivations for working with us, and two relevant writing samples, to jobs@gatewayhouse.in

PLEASE INCLUDE THE NAME OF THE POSITION IN THE SUBJECT OF YOUR EMAIL. Once we review these documents internally, we'll contact you for an interview (in person if you are in Mumbai), or over the telephone.