2023 Year in Review

2023 was another busy year, once again seeing over 300 dogs pass through GRRR. The majority of pups still come from personal relinquishments, with individuals and families facing a variety of circumstances that make it necessary to seek our help in finding new homes. We believe that most people are doing what's best for their Golden Retrievers, and we never judge their motivations. Our concern is for these wonderful dogs, and assuring a happy future for them.

We continued to seek out retired breeder dogs from commercial and private mills, building relationships that encourage them to contact us when they have dogs they cannot care for. These dogs desperately need our help in preparing for a loving forever home. Many are terrified of the world outside of what they have experienced in cages, with limited human contact.

GRRR developed a program called FAST—for Fearful and Shy Dog Team. We now have a team of volunteers, specially trained to assist these dogs, using patience and the utmost kindness to help them learn to trust and love. We even created a separate play yard (thanks to a generous donation from Robert B. Sturm) for them to grow their confidence at their own pace, in a quieter environment, without the “help” of their more boisterous, fearless counterparts.

We continued our successful fundraising efforts, including our two biggest programs, our Annual Gala and Colorado Gives Day. The live Gala, combined with a week-long online auction, netted GRRR nearly $178,000. June 22, 2024 will be this year's Gala date, so put it on your calendar. It will be at an exciting new Arvada location – Social Capitol. Details to follow.

GRRR's 2023 Colorado Gives Day total was nearly $150,000, including gifts that came directly to us. Many more donations resulted from various online and live campaigns, along with estate bequests. In 2024, GRRR will add a focus on our existing and potential estate donors, creating a Legacy Community to honor and communicate with them.

Progress on our Phoebe's Place addition and renovation has been slower than we originally thought. But we continue to move through the county planning and zoning process with architecture and engineering plans prepared for submission. Thanks again go to Mitchell Graye and Pam Hollister for their generous gift.

GRRR continued its Strategic Planning process to assure we are clearly focused on our mission and vision for the long term. This ongoing process involves the full Board and helps us stay on track year-round, assessing successes and failures, and adjusting as we go.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to the Golden Retrievers we all love!
