

Offer Acceptance and Bank Transfer Payment Information

Please read your offer letter carefully as it contains important information that includes indicative annual tuition fees and the required deposit to finalise your offer acceptance.

To make your journey easier with La Trobe University, we have prepared this helpful information sheet to provide the University banking details and to guide you through the offer acceptance process.

Banking details - La Trobe University

Bank:	Westpac
	341 George Street,
	SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, 2000
BSB:	032000
Acct No:	133774
Name:	Latrobe University
Swift :	WPACAU2S

When you make the bank transfer, please kindly remember to include your La Trobe Student (8 digits) as the reference number.

Student ID is a unique identification across the University and can be found on your offer letter. Not quoting the Student ID will result in the delay in your funds being confirmed.

La Trobe University (LTU) and La Trobe College Australia (LTCA) are separate entities. Please ensure that your deposit is paid to the correct entity to avoid delay in your offer acceptance.

Step-by-step instructions with clear screenshots of the offer acceptance process have been provided below for:

- A) Direct applicants (please refer to page 3)
- B) Agency applications for agents only (please refer to page 6)

How much is the deposit for acceptance?

The deposit amount can be found in your offer letter. The deposit is comprised of two main components:

- Tuition fee for your first intake; and
- > Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the entire duration of your student visa.

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

An international student holding a student visa must have valid OSHC cover for the entire duration of their visa. OSHC must be paid in full and in advanced. Please refer to the Department of Home Affairs website for further information.

If you indicate that you want La Trobe University to arrange your OSHC on the offer acceptance form, we will arrange visa-length OSHC with our preferred provider Medibank.

Alternatively, please inform the Admissions team before making any payment if you wish to arrange your own OSHC. The Admissions team will revise your offer letter to reflect tuition fee deposit only. You will be required to provide OSHC certificate for the visa-length duration to finalise your acceptance.
