

2008–2009 McBaine Honors Moot Court Competition

McBaine 2009 Preference Sheet

Name _____ Date _____

E-mail Address _____

- I would prefer to represent the Petitioner
- I have no preference
- I would prefer to represent the Respondent

Because we need evenly balanced sides, we cannot promise that you will represent the side that you prefer.

Please Note: You will not be allowed to drop this class after Friday, January 16, 2009. We enforce this strict “no-drop” policy, because we must assign opponents and recruit judges based on a set, consistent number of students.

*****HONOR CODE VIOLATION NOTICE*****:

The McBaine competition is governed by the law school's Honor Code. Online, one can find copies of the briefs written by amici and parties to the litigation as well as briefs in other cases that raise similar issues. You agree not to read any of these briefs. You further agree that you have read and will abide by the rules of the competition. Finally, you agree not to engage in any behavior that would confer upon anyone any unfair advantage in the competition. If you have ANY questions as to this rule, contact Bill Fernholz.

(Signature + Date)

Batch One – If you would like to receive your side assignment at the end of Fall Examinations, you must return your Side Preference Sheet to Bill Fernholz’s office, 375 Boalt Hall, no later than 12:00 p.m., Dec. 17, 2008. If you have no side preference, but would like to be assigned a side, mark “No Preference.” Side assignments will be released Dec. 17, 2008 at 5 p.m. via e-mail to all competitors.

Batch Two – If you would prefer to wait before expressing your side preference, you have until 12:00 p.m., Jan. 16, 2009. Again, submit your Side Preference Sheet to Bill Fernholz’s office, 375 Boalt Hall. You may still elect “No Preference.” Side assignments will be released Jan. 16, 2009 at 5 p.m. via e-mail to all competitors.
