

NC State University Libraries Organizational Structure

1. NC LIVE is a statewide online library service with a governing board that consists of Presidents of the UNC System, the NC Community College System, the Public Library Directors Association, the North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities, and the Secretary of Cultural Resources. The NC State University Libraries acts as fiscal agent and operational home for NC LIVE.