Little Miami Family Engagement Plan

Family engagement is a collaborative, two-way, relationship between Little Miami educators, families, providers, and partners to support and improve the learning, development, and health of every student.

Little Miami Family Engagement Principles

- Family Relationships:
  - Offer getting-to-know-you meetings at a beginning of year conference
  - Communicate regularly with families
  - Create welcoming spaces in our schools
  - Develop parent advisory committees such as PTOs

- Family Opportunities:
  - Volunteer opportunities
  - Linking families to community resources
  - Parent/Teacher conferences
  - Family nights
  - Curriculum shows
  - Progress monitoring meetings

- Positive Learning Environments:
  - Create safe, supportive, welcoming learning environments for all students
  - Create an academic challenging learning environment for all students
  - Provide opportunity for parent collaboration through MTSS, RIMP

- Partnerships:
  - School-home partnership for increased support and achievement
  - Regular “two-way” communication
