

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

MBU Graduate Programs

How much does the program cost?

You can find tuition and fee listings HERE under Finances. Payment for each session is due one week before class begins.

Are there any scholarships available?

Yes! You can apply for the Teaching & Leading Scholarship, available to those in full-time Christian ministry – including homeschooling parents.

What financial aid is available?

The Financial Aid Office can help you figure out what is available for you. For assistance, call 1-800-622-2947, and ask for extension 2318 or email financialaid@mbu.edu.

What is a guest student?

A guest student is one who has been approved to take credits without fully enrolling in the program.

When can I start?

We have new courses beginning every 8 weeks, even during summer. You may start anytime. Check out the dates for online courses.

What if I started a program somewhere else?

Send us your transcripts along with your application. We allow up to 6 credits to be transferred if they match the course descriptions for our courses.

Does this graduate program lead to accreditation, certification or licensing?

Some careers and employment positions require specialized training or additional certificates and licenses. If you are pursuing a certification or endorsement through a state or alternative accrediting agency (such as AACSB or ACASI), please contact that organization to verify that this program meets the specified requirements.

