

Visit Micronesia

As Guam and Micronesia's hometown airline for over 50 years, United<sup>SM</sup> is your ticket to unlocking Micronesia — more than 2.9 million square miles across the Pacific known to the world for its incredible underwater attractions. With more than 2,100 islands in the region, and a variety of deep history and culture, adventure awaits in magnificent Micronesia. These islands boast some of the world's most famous wreck dives, where adventurers can experience incredible World War II history alongside vibrant marine life.

Guam

The largest island in Micronesia, Guam is home to more than 60 dive sites, with everything from planes and shipwrecks to incredible reef dives. Some of the most popular dive sites in Guam include the twin shipwrecks of the Takai Maru and the SMS Cormoran, Blue Hole, Coral Gardens, Barracuda Rock and Haps Reef.

Saipan

As the largest island in the Marianas, Saipan is truly a must-visit destination that offers unique cross-cultural experiences, beautiful white sand beaches with crystal clear water, incredible attractions and warm hospitality. Combine these with adventurous activities, luxury shopping, award-winning dive sites, professionally designed golf courses, restaurants and more, this tropical paradise is sure to be a great addition to your travel itinerary.

Chuuk

Chuuk, a part of the Federated States of Micronesia, is a large archipelago with mountainous islands surrounded by a string of islets on a barrier reef. Shinkoku Maru, Fujikawa Maru, San Francisco Maru and Shark Island are notable dive sites in and around the Chuuk lagoon.

Yap

Yap's rich cultural heritage includes the use of stone money, traditional Yapese outrigger canoes and storied World War II relics both on land (Japanese WWII aircraft at the old airport) and underwater. Favorite dive spots in Yap include Mi'il Channel, Lionfish Wall, Valley of the Rays and Yap Caverns.

Pohnpei

Pohnpei boasts nine marine protected areas where healthy coral reef ecosystems and dramatic drop offs are home to a wide array of marine life, including sharks, fish and rays. Popular dive sites around the Garden Island of Pohnpei include Palikir Pass, Mwand Wall and Pass, as well as Manta Channel, known as the best place to spot manta rays.

Kosrae

Considered the jewel of Micronesia, Kosrae is a beautiful island paradise rich in historical sites and ruins, lush rainforest valleys, ancient mangrove swamps, coral reefs and welcoming people. The natural and vibrant beauty of Kosrae's reefs, vegetation and mountains attracts divers and hikers from all over the world.

Palau

Visitors to Palau can enjoy the pristine beauty of this island nation. In addition to world famous dive sites including Blue Corner, Chandelier Cave, Blue Holes and World War II relics at Peleliu, Palau is also known for its one-of-a-kind Jellyfish Lake, the only place in the world you can swim or snorkel among millions of non-stinging species. Also, Palau's waters were declared to be a shark sanctuary in 2009 and a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2012.

The Marshall Islands

With more than 1,000 exotic species of fish and 250 beautiful corals, the Marshall Islands are undoubtedly a favorite diving destination that offer year-round visibility. The serene beauty of the islands offers visitors a relaxing escape and an unforgettable underwater adventure. The beautiful coral reefs, exotic species of fish and WWII wrecks make the Marshall Islands a divers' paradise.
