AN ELYSIAN SWEVEN

Redefining the Present and Defining the Future

INTRODUCTION TO IPSC- MSMUN 2022-23

This year we welcome you to “An Elysian Sweven: Re-defining the present and Defining the future ” which will be held from 25 th November- 27 th November 2022. The theme of our MUN this year is going to be focusing on the futuristic issues along with the present problems which are going to stir up things in the world very soon. We will be hosting eight committees which will be focusing on concrete issues letting delegates explore the world of actual decision making along with crisis solving. Delegates through MS-IPSCMUN platform will grab an opportunity like no other!

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

NAMASKAR!

The theme "An Elysian Sweven" which deciphers to be "a heavenly dream" is itself a symbolization of the never-ending ability to dream, for reality too can be dream-like, and the line between heaven and the 'real-world' exists only in our heads.

I have always encouraged my students to step out of their bubbles, and create their own realities, to never limit themselves. I believe that in a world of binaries, where everything is often either perceived to be black or white, delegates you must not limit or shape your perceptions to accord with those who have never put in the efforts to broaden their horizons. I would appreciate if you all keep in mind the fact that you must A Speak up for your own truth even if your voice shakes!
