Portland, Ore. (May 22, 2023) – From May 15th through 21st, New Seasons Market hosted its annual Nourish Our Neighbors Match (previously known as Hunger Relief Match), benefitting 10 local nonprofits that provide food equity and access. The Portland-based grocer matched up to $42,000 in customer donations throughout the week, ultimately aiming to double each dollar collected. $37,304.48 was collected from customers across stores, bringing the total amount to $79,304.48 to be split evenly among New Seasons Market’s community partners.

“We are thrilled that this year was such a success, we couldn’t have achieved the $79,000 in donations for our community partners without the support of our generous customers.” Shared Jennifer Gregorich, Community Impact Manager. “This amount collected allows New Seasons Market to continue investing in our communities and supporting the work of local non-profit organizations focused on food access and equity. As always, our goal is to amplify the impact of our community partner’s work and make an immediate difference in the lives of our neighbors in need.”
