Conservatories

TRADITIONALLY CRAFTED & DESIGNED JUST FOR YOU

Thank you for considering Heartwood.

We started as a local joinery company which progressed into the manufacture of Conservatories, over time we have also developed into Orangeries and Garden room extensions.

At Heartwood we offer our customers a comprehensive architectural design service.

Having over 25 years experience we will work with you to create the perfect addition to enhance your home.

As you browse through our brochure you will recognise we can offer both contemporary and traditional designs and be left feeling confident that we will achieve your expectations.

Heartwood

IMAGINE

Here at heartwood we have been constructing conservatories and orangeries to the highest standard for many years where no two projects are the same.

With our eye for detail and in house design team we can offer you a totally bespoke service, creating a structure sympathetically designed to compliment your home.

Our Orangeries have proved to be truly inspirational for Kitchen Extensions, where new and old are seamlessly joined creating endless and innovative possibilities for your living space.

“We’re absolutely delighted with our new orangery, which really came into its own at Christmas, and which is an object of envy amongst our friends.”

THE DREAM

With over 25 years experience Heartwood will provide the designers, tradesmen and project managers to offer you the best service possible enabling your dream to become reality.

Our design team will work closely with you from beginning to end as we believe this is key to achieving your desired design. It is our aim that your conservatory or orangery will blend in seamlessly with your home.

RELAX

At Heartwood we appreciate that a project of this kind can seem daunting which is why after confirmation of your order our project manager will carry out a final survey agreeing the details with you to ensure they are to your complete satisfaction.

Once we arrive on site all building work will be undertaken with Heartwoods assurance of minimum disruption to you.

“The team really put themselves out to meet our deadlines and this was very much appreciated. Delighted with the results! ”

THE JOURNEY

Throughout the manufacturing process Heartwood will endeavour to ensure your experience will be worry free giving you peace of mind.

Our project manager will be on hand to guide you through various stages of the development all the time ensuring that there is minimum disruption to you.

“The complexities of working with a listed building were an important consideration for us, but already people have commented on how sympathetically and in keeping with the house the conservatory extension has been done. ”
