Made for meaning. Made for joy. Made for you.

Since 1943, we've created Bibles, Faith formation, and sacrament products that will touch the hearts of those you serve.

We began in the De La Salle Catholic high school basement with one printing press and a passion to help young people. Since then, our aim has been to create engaging materials for you and your students.

You deserve a partner to accompany you as you walk with the young people you serve. May you find inspiration in these pages, and a renewed heart in your ministry.

And so, as Lasallians we say, Live Jesus in our hearts forever!

The Catholic Children's Prayer Book

Second Edition

Building the habit of prayer

Prayers are a wonderful way for children to stay close to God. In this newest edition of our bestselling The Catholic Children's Prayer Book, children will love how this beautifully illustrated keepsake guides them in learning the order and prayers of the Mass.

Along with everyday prayers, prayers of the Rosary, prayers for the liturgical seasons, family prayers, this will help them learn how and build the habit of prayer.

$8.95, #4419

18 The Order and Prayers of the Mass

The priest asks God the Father to remember the Church throughout the world and to help us all grow in love and unity. He finishes by holding up the Body and Blood of Christ and singing or praying:

Priest: Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

4. Communion Rite

The Communion Rite is the name for the part of the Liturgy of the Eucharist that begins with the Lord's Prayer. During the Communion Rite, those who are prepared can receive Holy Communion, the Body and Blood of Christ. The word communion means "unity" or "oneness."

Lord's Prayer (Our Father)

We pray to God the Father with the prayer that Jesus taught us.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

A Confirmation Reflection

I don't recall where I first heard this quote, but it has stuck with me ever since. It is a quote that simply states, "What we do inside of the Church makes no difference unless it affects what we do outside of the Church."

I have repeated it and referred to the

What we do inside of the Church makes no difference unless it affects what we do outside of the Church.

wisdom contained within it many times throughout my career in Catholic religious education.

It is profound because it is another way to get at the foundational question, What is faith all about?

It is an important question to answer at all the various stages of our faith journey, but I find it particularly pertinent around the Sacrament of Confirmation for both the candidates and those preparing them for the sacrament.

The truth is that our becoming fully initiated members of the Catholic Church isn't just for the good of the Church—although it is most certainly that. It is also for the good of the world!

Our faith is meant to be lived, rather than sheltered with only a certain group or compartmentalized to one day a week.

The final words spoken at Mass were, at one time, "ite missa est," which is Latin for "Go, you are sent!" The Eucharist is a strengthening for the real work of the Church, which is living faith in our everyday lives out in the world. Our participation as members of the Church and disciples of Jesus compels us to reach out beyond the Church.

The good news is that this message and focus resonates with young people. They are immensely interested in being part of positive change and working to make a difference in their local communities and in the world.

Confirmation preparation is a perfect time to emphasize that our faith anchors us in the Church while also moving us outward beyond the Church in service and love for others.

Let's release any remnants we may have of creating our Confirmation programs in a way that only proves to be burdensome to young people, their families, and sponsors. No more "We've got them one last time, so let's make sure to pack everything in and demand even more."

It should not be a time of weighing people down; it should be a time of freeing people to recognize who God is calling them to be. Confirmation preparation should be dynamic, engaging, and inspiring! Our call as people of faith to move outward and make a difference. So let's get to work!

God Gave Us the Bible to Help Us

2 Timothy 3:16-17 (For the full story, read 2 Timothy 3:14-17.)

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, correcting error, correcting faults, and giving instruction so that the person who serves God may be fully equipped to do every kind of good deed.

Catholic Connection

Scripture and Tradition

Knowing and applying Sacred Scripture is essential to our life as Christians. But interpreting the Bible requires great care. That is why our faith is based on both the Bible and the Sacred Tradition handed down by the apostles.

Sacred Scripture is the inspired word of God—the Holy Spirit guided the authors who wrote the Old and New Testaments. When we interpret Scripture, we must keep in mind what the human authors intended. Sacred Tradition is rooted in the teachings of the apostles, refined and passed on through the teaching authority of the Church. It includes both doctrine and morals. Together Scripture and Tradition

He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry.<sup>2</sup> The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'<sup>3</sup> Then he took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a single instant.<sup>4</sup> The devil said to him, "I shall give to you all this power and their glory; for it has been handed over to me, and I may give it to whomsoever I wish."<sup>5</sup> All this will be yours, if you worship me.<sup>6</sup> Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written: 'You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve.'<sup>7</sup>

Tell It!

Using the pictures above, retell this reading in your own words.

Live It!

At Sunday Mass, pay close attention to the reading from the Bible. God is speaking to you through those readings! What message is he giving to you? After Mass, talk about the readings with your family. Have each family member share one thing she he learned from the readings.

Understand It!

As we read in this Scripture passage, God uses the Bible to speak with love. The Bible is God's book. He is its author. Through the Bible, God teaches us how to have a good life and how to live as he wants us to. If we follow the Bible's teachings, we will know real happiness and we will live forever with God in Heaven.

You can see why the Bible is such an important book. We study the Bible and use it for prayer. We listen to readings from it at every Mass. The more you read the Bible, the closer you will be to God. The more you read it, the more you will know how God wants you to live. God for the gift of his Word in the Bible.

form one sacred deposit: the word of God as handed down in the Holy Scriptures, the one Bible, and the living Tradition, together forming a single sacred deposit of the word of God entrusted to the Church, preserving and making ever clearer its mystery of truth. It is to be guarded by the apostolic and pastoral succession of the bishops, assisted by the college of bishops, with Peter's successor as its head. The Magisterium, or teaching authority of the Church, serves the word of God (Scripture and Tradition). Guided by the Holy Spirit, the bishops, in communion with the Pope, are entrusted with teaching what has been handed on through Scripture and Tradition.

The Bible, Tradition, and the Magisterium help us discern God's revelation in the world. All three guide us in our effort to know Christ and our role as Christians.

depart this life and be with Christ, [for] that is far better. 24 Yet that I remain [in] the flesh is more necessary for your benefit. 25 And this I know with confidence, that I shall remain and continue in the service of all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 so that your boasting in Christ Jesus may abound on account of me when I come to you again.

III. Instructions for the Community

Steadfastness in Faith

27 Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear news of you, that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind struggling together for the faith of the gospel, 28 not intimidated in any way by your opponents. This is proof to them of destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. 29 For to you has been granted, for the sake of Christ, not only to believe in him but also to suffer for him. 30 Yours is the same struggle<sup>a</sup> as you saw in me and now hear about me.<sup>a</sup>

Plea for Unity and Humility

1 If there is any encouragement in Christ, any solace in love, any participation in the Spirit, any compassion and mercy, 2 complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing. 3 Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves. 4 Each looking out not for his own interests, but [also] everyone for those of others. 5 Have among yourselves the same attitude that is also yours in Christ Jesus.<sup>a</sup>

6 Who, though he was in the form of God,<sup>d</sup> did not regard equality with God something to be grasped.<sup>a</sup>

Study It! Stop Whining!

Paul tells the Christians of Philippi to do everything without complaining or arguing (Philippians 2:14). Does this advice sound familiar? No doubt you have heard the words. Do what you're told and stop complaining! Have you ever noticed how quickly an attitude of grumbling and complaining can spread? Soon everyone is whining about something. So why not decide to just be upbeat? today when you hear someone complaining about something, or when you catch yourself doing it, try to think of something positive to say. You can help spread the Good News!

Philippians 2:12-18
