CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

SubC Imaging strives to ensure the protection of your personal information through responsible practices. We deploy all efforts to protect the private nature of your personal information. Since we collect information about you using our website, we feel that it is important that you understand how we collect and use this information. This page summarizes our personal information collection practices.

PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTION

All personal information collected by SubC Imaging is done so exclusively with your consent, by means of a form posted on our website, an email received from you or by telephone. No information is collected automatically.

USE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

The personal information collected is only used by SubC Imaging staff for the purposes defined at the time of the collection or a use that complies with these purposes. We do not share your information with any third parties.

As mentioned above, we use your personal information to appropriately process your requests and present you with the information you need to access. We also use all of the information you provide voluntarily in order to make your visits on our site possible. This information might, at a later time, allow us to add customized elements to our site or to plan its content more appropriately, based on user interests.

If you have granted us the permission to, we can use your personal information in order to send you newsletters, with the intent of offering you the best service possible.

At all times, the sender of an email prepared by SubC Imaging is easily identifiable and reachable, via email or phone.

SHARING OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will not, under any circumstances, share your personal information with other individuals or organizations without your permission, including public organizations, corporations or individuals, except when applicable by law. We do not sell, communicate or divulge your information to any mailing lists.

COOKIES

We use a component of your browser named a cookie to recognize your computer. Cookies are small data files that are saved on your hard drive when you visit websites. These files make browsing the sites easier.

We do not and cannot use cookies to retrieve your personal information from your computer. The information collected is instead used for statistical purposes, among others to compute the number of visitors and find out which pages are the most visited.

If you configure your browser to warn you before accepting cookies, a prompt will pop-up each time a site asks for permission to save a cookie on your computer. You can refuse cookies by configuring your browser to reject them.

STORAGE AND SAFETY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We store your file ourselves. In addition, we use and apply the appropriate security measures to preserve the confidentiality of your information.

SubC Imaging notably uses software to monitor traffic on its network in order to detect unauthorized attempts to download or change information, or otherwise damage the site. This software receives and records the IP address of the computer used by the person visiting our website, the date and time of the visit and the pages viewed. We do not attempt to make the connection between these addresses and the identities of the individuals who visit our site, unless an intrusion or disruption attempt is detected.

LEGAL PROTECTION

All personal information you supply is protected according to the federal government's Privacy Act. This means that you are entitled to know when the information is collected and to be informed of the purpose of such collection, but also to access said information. We are legally bound to save all personal information you provide for at least two years after their use so that you may reasonably access them. After that time, your personal information will be destroyed.
