Strategos Consulting LLC

STRATEGOS: (est. 2008) – a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) identifies and provides viable solutions (non-personnel support services, logistics, consulting, training, and engineering) to the US Government and its partners. STRATEGOS is a San Diego, California-based company founded in 2008 by retired U.S. Navy SEAL Jeff Williams. Strategos provides three distinct services designed to complement one another to provide the highest quality service and products.

Consulting was established 2008 to identify and ultimately provide usable technological solutions to the United States Government and its partners in the Global War on Terror. Focused on finding and mentoring niche technologies, and provides guidance, direction, and potentially capital to help new technologies reach a level of maturity necessary to respond to mission needs.

Services was created in 2009, a professional training/services department focused on providing education, training and non-personnel support services to United States military personnel, international security personnel and commercial industry focused on the technology industry and the maritime environment.

Strategos Technology Transference (STT) was created in 2011 to meet the needs of our clients requiring engineering and prototyping related services to allow military implementation of their technology.

What does that mean for transitioning Rangers?

The opportunity to remain relevant in the SOF community, the ability to continue to serve and the chance to be part of a Team that puts the Warfighter First!

What do we expect from you?

Bring the Ranger Creed! Be open to a dynamic environment outside of the 'institution' where you often find yourself, 'making it up' as you go. There are few SOPs but good IPOE and mission planning are just some of the tools you'll be able to use during the transition.
