DRIVE FRESH CRANBERRY SALES

Increase fresh cranberry sales 9-11%
this fall and attract the coveted
Millennial consumer to your store

Capitalize on the holidays, including Friendsgiving, to market fresh cranberries – giving shoppers a reason to buy

FRESH CRANBERRY FACTS

- ✓ Fresh cranberries are a versatile fruit that adds unique flavor, color and variety to dishes – sweet to savory
- ✓ Cranberries are one of three fruits commercially cultivated native only to North America making them a fruit local to all of us!
- ✓ Most cranberries are grown in Wisconsin, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Washington and Oregon
- ✓ Fresh cranberries are harvested in the fall and available in retail stores from September-January
- ✓ Cranberries grow on vines, not in water
- ✓ Fresh cranberries have four air chambers that allow them to float, that's why some cranberries are harvested by flooding
- ✓ Most fresh cranberries are picked using the dry-harvest method, not harvested in water
- ✓ Fresh cranberries should be displayed in the produce department in a cool, dry location

- ✓ In-store magazines, ad circulars and overhead radio
- ✓ Print and electronic coupons to drive cranberry purchases

Online

Amplify fresh cranberries by posting and sharing:

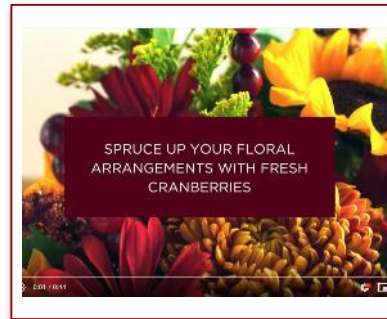

- ✓ Social media content using hashtags like #AllAmeriCRAN
- ✓ Cranberry features in blog posts and e-newsletters
- ✓ Digital- and print-ready promotional assets
- ✓ Social media shares of usage ideas to create cranberry buzz

FLORAL CROSS-PROMOTION

Fresh cranberries are a trendy addition to fall décor.

INCREASE SALES

A 2017 produce and floral department cross-promotion at a regional supermarket chain produced a 267% lift in movement of fresh cranberries compared to the average movement 7 weeks leading up to the promotion.

Feature “how-to” video highlighting ways to spruce up floral arrangements with fresh cranberries on your website, in e-newsletters and on social media channels

Distribute “how-to” handouts at point-of-sale in the produce and floral departments showing shoppers how to add fresh cranberries to floral arrangements they purchase in-store

FRIENDSGIVING: National Trend with Proven Results

In 2016, the Cranberry Friendsgiving Photo Contest connected retailers with Millennial shoppers and utilized a social media contest to drive cranberry sales. In total, the promotion generated 346,280,069 consumer impressions and nearly 1 million impressions through retail channels.

Consider promoting a similar contest through your own retail communication channels to amplify holiday sales.
