

TITLE 40 - TRADE AND COMMERCE

CHAPTER 1 - TRADEMARKS AND SERVICE MARKS

40-1-101. Definitions.

(a) The term "trademark" as used in this act means any word, name, symbol, or device or any combination thereof adopted and used by a person to identify and distinguish the goods of such person, including a unique product, from those manufactured or sold by others, and to indicate the source of the goods, even if that source is unknown.

(b) The term "service mark" as used in this act means any word, name, symbol or device or any combination thereof used by a person, to identify and distinguish the services of one (1) person, including a unique service, from the services of others and to indicate the source of the services, even if that source is unknown. Titles, character names used by a person and other distinctive features of radio or television programs may be registered as service marks notwithstanding that they, or the programs, may advertise the goods of the sponsor.

(c) The term "mark" as used in this act includes any trademark or service mark entitled to registration under this act whether registered or not.

(d) The term "person" and any other word or term used to designate the applicant or other party entitled to a benefit or privilege or rendered liable under the provisions of this act includes a juristic person as well as a natural person. The term "juristic person" includes a firm, partnership, corporation, association, union or other organization or business entity capable of suing and being sued in a court of law.

(e) The term "applicant" as used in this act embraces the person filing an application for registration of a mark under this act, and the legal representatives, successors or assigns of such person.

(f) The term "registrant" as used in this act embraces the person to whom the registration of a mark under this act is issued and the legal representatives, successors or assigns of such person.

(g) The term "use" in this act means the bona fide use of a mark in the ordinary course of trade and not made merely to reserve a right in a mark. For the purposes of this act, a mark shall be deemed to be in use in this state:

(i) On goods when it is placed in any manner on the goods or other containers on the displays associated therewith or on the tags or labels affixed thereto, or if the nature of the goods makes such placement impracticable, then on documents associated with the goods or their sale, and the goods are sold or transported in commerce in this state; and

(ii) On services when it is used or displayed in the sale or advertising of services and the services are rendered in this state.

(h) A mark shall be deemed to be "abandoned" under this act when either of the following occurs:

(i) When its use has been discontinued with the intent not to resume such use. Intent not to resume may be inferred from circumstances. Nonuse for two (2) consecutive years shall constitute prima facie evidence of abandonment;

(ii) When any course of conduct of the owner, including acts of omission as well as commission, causes the mark to lose its significance as a mark.

(j) The term "dilution" as used in this act means the lessening of the capacity of a registrant's mark to identify and distinguish goods or services, regardless of the presence or absence of:

(i) Competition between the parties; or

(ii) Likelihood of confusion, mistake or deception.

(k) The term "secretary" as used in this act means the secretary of state or the designee of the secretary charged with the administration of this act.

(m) "This act" means W.S. 40-1-101 through 40-1-116.

40-1-102. Marks which cannot be registered.

(a) A mark by which the goods or services of any applicant for registration may be distinguished from the goods or services of others shall not be registered if it:

(i) Consists of or comprises immoral, deceptive or scandalous matter; or

(ii) Consists of or comprises matter which may disparage or falsely suggest a connection with persons, living or dead, institutions, beliefs, or national symbols, or bring them into contempt, or disrepute; or

(iii) Consists of or comprises the flag or coat of arms or other insignia of the United States, or of any state or municipality, or of any foreign nation, or any simulation thereof; or

(iv) Consists of or comprises the name, signature or portrait identifying a particular living individual, except by the individual's written consent; or

(v) Consists of a mark which, (A) when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant, is merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them, or (B) when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant is primarily geographically descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them, or (C) is primarily merely a surname; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the registration of a mark used in this state by the applicant which has become distinctive of the applicant's goods or services. The secretary may accept as evidence that the mark has become distinctive, as used on or in connection with the applicant's goods or services, proof of continuous use thereof as a mark by the applicant in this state or elsewhere for the five (5) years before the date on which the claim of distinctiveness is made; or

(vi) Consists of or comprises a mark which is the same as, or deceptively similar to, a mark registered in this state, a trade name or the name of a juristic person, or a mark or trade name previously used in this state by another and not abandoned, as to be likely, when applied to the goods or services of the applicant, to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive.

40-1-103. Application for registration; filing fee.

(a) Subject to the limitations set forth in this act, any person who uses a mark in this state may file in the office of the secretary, in a manner complying with the requirements of the secretary, an application for registration of that mark setting forth, but not limited to, the following information:

(i) The name and business address of the person applying for such registration; and, if a corporation, the state of incorporation, or if a partnership, the state in which the partnership is organized and the names of the general partners, as specified by the secretary, or similar information for other juristic persons, as specified by the secretary;

(ii) The goods or services on or in connection with which the mark is used and the mode or manner in which the mark is used on or in connection with such goods or services and the class in which such goods or services fall;

(iii) The date when the mark was first used anywhere and the date when it was first used in this state by the applicant or a predecessor in interest;

(iv) A statement that the applicant is the owner of the mark, that the mark is in use and that to the knowledge of the person verifying the application, no other person has registered, either federally or in this state, or has the right to use such mark either in the identical form thereof or in such near resemblance as to be likely, when applied to the goods or services of such other person, to cause confusion or to cause mistake or to deceive; and

(v) If required by the secretary, a statement as to whether an application to register the mark, or portions or a composite, has been filed by the applicant or a predecessor in interest in the United States patent and trademark office; and, if so, the applicant shall provide full particulars including the filing date and serial number of each application, the status and, if any application was finally refused registration or has otherwise not resulted in a registration, the reasons therefor.

(b) The application shall be signed and verified by oath, affirmation or declaration subject to perjury laws by the applicant or by a member of the firm or an officer of the corporation or association applying.

(c) The application shall be accompanied by a specimen or facsimile of such mark in triplicate. The secretary may also require that a drawing of the mark, complying with requirements as the secretary may specify, accompany the application.

(d) The application for registration shall be accompanied by a filing fee, set in accordance with W.S. 40-1-116, but not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300.00) and payable to the secretary.

40-1-104. Examination of application; amendment of application.

(a) Upon the filing of an application for registration and payment of the application fee, the secretary may cause the application to be examined for conformity with this act.

(b) The applicant shall provide any additional pertinent information requested by the secretary, including a description of a design mark and may make or authorize the secretary to make such amendments to the application as may be reasonably requested by the secretary or deemed by the applicant to be advisable to respond to any rejection or objection.

(c) The secretary may require the applicant to disclaim an unregistrable component of a mark otherwise registrable and an applicant may voluntarily disclaim a component of a mark sought to be registered. No disclaimer shall prejudice or affect the applicant's or registrant's rights then existing or thereafter arising in the disclaimed matter, or the applicant's or registrant's rights of registration on another application if the disclaimed matter be or shall have become distinctive of the applicant's or registrant's goods or services.

(d) Amendments may be made by the secretary upon the application submitted by the applicant upon the applicant's agreement or a fresh application may be required to be submitted.

(e) If the applicant is found not to be entitled to registration, the secretary shall advise the applicant of the reasons. The applicant shall have a reasonable period of time specified by the secretary in which to reply or to amend the application, in which event the application shall then be reexamined. This procedure may be repeated until (A) the secretary finally refuses registration of the mark or (B) the applicant fails to reply or amend within the specified period, whereupon the application shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

40-1-105. Term of registration; renewals.

(a) Registration of a mark is effective for a term of five (5) years from the date of registration and, upon application filed within six (6) months prior to the expiration of such term, in a manner complying with the requirements of the secretary, the registration may be renewed for a like term from the end of the expiring term. A renewal fee set in accordance with W.S. 40-1-116, but not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) and payable to the secretary, shall accompany the application for renewal of the registration.

(b) Renewal periods.-A mark registration may be renewed for successive periods of five (5) years in like manner. All applications for renewal under this act, whether of registrations made under this act or of registrations effected under any prior act, shall include a verified statement that the mark has been and is still in use and include a specimen showing actual use of the mark on or in connection with the goods or services.

(c) Repealed By Laws 1997, ch. 112, § 3.

(d) Existing registration.-Any registration in force on the date on which this act shall become effective shall continue in full force and effect for the unexpired term and may be renewed by filing an application for renewal with the secretary, complying with the requirements of the secretary, and paying the aforementioned renewal fee within six (6) months prior to the expiration of the registration.

(e) Repealed By Laws 1997, ch. 112, § 3.

40-1-106. Assignment of marks and registration; change of name.

(a) Any mark and its registration under this act shall be assignable with the goodwill of the business in which the mark is used, or with that part of the goodwill of the business connected with the use of and symbolized by the mark. Assignment shall be by instruments in writing duly executed and may be recorded with the secretary upon the payment of a fee set in accordance with W.S. 40-1-116, but not to exceed seventy-five dollars ($75.00) and payable to the secretary. Upon recording of the assignment, the secretary shall issue in the name of the assignee a new certificate for the remainder of the term of the registration or of the last renewal thereof. An assignment of any registration under this act shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser for valuable consideration without notice, unless it is recorded with the secretary within three (3) months after the date thereof or prior to such subsequent purchase.

(b) Any registrant or applicant effecting a change of the name of the person to whom the mark was issued or for whom an application was filed may record a certificate of change of name of the registrant or applicant with the secretary upon the payment of the recording fee. The secretary may issue in the name of the assignee a certificate of registration of an assigned application. The secretary may issue in the name of the assignee, a new certificate or registration for the remainder of the term of the registration or last renewal thereof.

(c) A photocopy or photograph of any instrument referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall be accepted for recording if it is certified by the applicant, or their successors, to be a true and correct copy of the original.

40-1-107. Public record of marks.

The secretary shall keep for public examination a record of all marks registered or renewed under this act.

40-1-108. Cancellation of registration.

(a) The secretary shall cancel from the register in whole or in part:

(i) Repealed By Laws 1997, ch. 112, § 3.

(ii) Any registration concerning which the secretary shall receive a voluntary request for cancellation thereof from the registrant or the assignee of record and shall receive payment of a fee set in accordance with W.S. 40-1-116, but not to exceed thirty dollars ($30.00);

(iii) All registrations granted under this act and not renewed in accordance with the provisions hereof;

(iv) Any registration concerning which a court of competent jurisdiction shall find:

- (A) That the registered mark has been abandoned;
- (B) That the registrant is not the owner of the mark;
- (C) That the registration was granted improperly;
- (D) That the registration was obtained fraudulently;
- (E) That the registered mark is so similar, as to be likely to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive, to a mark registered by another person in the United States patent and trademark office, prior to the date of the filing of the application for registration by the registrant hereunder, and not abandoned; provided, however, that should the registrant prove that the registrant is the owner of a concurrent registration of his mark in the United States patent and trademark office covering an area including this state, the registration hereunder shall not be cancelled;
- (F) That the mark is or has become the generic name for the goods or services, or a portion thereof, for which it has been registered.

(v) When a court of competent jurisdiction shall order cancellation of a registration on any ground.

40-1-109. Classification of marks.

- (a) Repealed By Laws 1997, ch. 112, § 3.
- (b) Repealed By Laws 1997, ch. 112, § 3.
- (c) The secretary shall by regulation establish a classification of goods and services for marks for the convenience of administration of this act, but not to limit or extend the applicant's or registrant's rights.

40-1-110. False or fraudulent representations or declarations; liability for damages sustained.

Any person who shall for himself, or on behalf of any other person, procure the filing or registration of any mark in the office of the secretary under the provisions of this act, by knowingly making any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, orally or in writing, or by any other fraudulent means, shall be liable to pay all damages sustained in consequence of such filing or registration, to be recovered by or on behalf of the party injured thereby in any court of competent jurisdiction.

40-1-111. Civil liability.

Subject to the provisions of W.S. 40-1-113 any person who shall (a) use, without the consent of the registrant, any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of a mark registered under this act in connection with the sale, distribution, offering for sale, or advertising of any goods or services on or in connection with which such use is likely to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive as to the source of origin of such goods or services, or (b) reproduce, counterfeit, copy or colorably imitate any such mark and apply such reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation to labels, signs, prints, packages, wrappers, receptacles, or advertisements intended to be used upon or in conjunction with the sale or other distribution in this state of such goods or services, shall be liable to a civil action by the owner of such registered mark for any or all of the remedies provided in W.S. 40-1-112, except that under subsection (b) hereof the registrant shall not be entitled to recover profits or damages unless the acts have been committed with knowledge that such mark is intended to be used to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive.

40-1-112. Remedies.

(a) Any owner of a mark registered under this act may proceed by suit to enjoin the manufacture, use, display or sale of any counterfeits or imitations thereof and any court of competent jurisdiction may grant injunctions to restrain such manufacture, use, display, or sale as may be by the said court deemed just and reasonable, and may require the defendants to pay to such owner all profits derived from and/or all damages suffered by reason of such wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale; and such court may also order that any such counterfeits or imitations in the possession or under the control of any defendant in such case, be delivered to an officer of the court, or to the complainant, to be destroyed. The court, in its discretion, may enter judgment for an amount not to exceed three (3) times such profits and damages and reasonable attorneys' fees of the prevailing party in such cases where the court finds the other party committed such wrongful acts with knowledge or in bad faith or otherwise as according to the circumstances of the case.

(b) The enumeration of any right or remedy herein shall not affect a registrant's right to prosecute under any penal law of this state.

40-1-113. Marks acquired at common law.

Nothing in this act shall adversely affect the rights or the enforcement of rights in marks acquired in good faith at any time at common law.

(a) The owner of a mark which is famous in this state shall be entitled, subject to the principles of equity, to an injunction against another's use of a mark, commencing after the owner's mark becomes famous, which causes dilution of the distinctive quality of the owner's mark, and to obtain such other relief as is provided in this section. In determining whether a mark is famous, a court may consider factors such as, but not limited to:

(i) The degree of inherent or acquired distinctiveness of the mark in this state;

(ii) The duration and extent of use of the mark in connection with the goods and services;

(iii) The duration and extent of advertising and publicity of the mark in this state;

(iv) The geographical extent of the trading area in which the mark is used;

(vi) The degree of recognition of the owner's mark in its and in the other's trading areas and channels of trade in this state; and

(vii) The nature and extent of use of the same or similar mark by third parties.

(b) The owner shall be entitled only to injunctive relief in this state in an action brought under this section, unless the subsequent user willfully intended to trade on the owner's reputation or to cause dilution of the owner's mark. If such willful intent is proven, the owner shall also be entitled to the remedies set forth in this act, subject to the discretion of the court and the principles of equity.

40-1-116. Powers of secretary of state; filing and other fees.

(a) The secretary has the power reasonably necessary to perform the duties required of him by this act including the promulgation of rules and regulations necessary to carry out the purposes of this act.

(b) The secretary shall set and collect filing, service and copying fees to recover the costs of providing those services and administering this act. Fees shall not exceed the costs of providing these services and administering this act.

(a) As used in this act:

(i) "Multilevel distribution companies" means any person, firm, corporation or other business entity which sells, distributes or supplies for a valuable consideration, goods or services through independent agents, contractors or distributors, at different levels wherein such participants may recruit other participants, and wherein commissions, cross-commissions, bonuses, refunds, discounts, dividends or other considerations in the program are, or may be, paid as a result of the sale of such goods or services or the recruitment, actions or performances of additional participants;

(ii) "Multilevel distribution marketing plan" means any agreement for a definite or indefinite period, either expressed or implied, in which a person agrees, for a valuable consideration, to distribute goods or services of a multilevel distribution company to members of the public or to persons who occupy different levels in the multilevel distribution company's distribution system;

(iii) "Distributor" means any independent contracted person, agent, employer or participant who has agreed to perform, at one (1) or more levels in a multilevel distribution marketing plan, the functions of distributing the goods or services of the multilevel distribution company or the recruitment of subordinate distributors or both functions;

(iv) "Resalable condition" means products that will pass without objection in the trade, or are still fit for the ordinary purposes for which the products are used;

(v) "Referral sale" means any inducement offered to a person, for the purpose of selling a product or service, which is the opportunity to receive compensation without exercising a bona fide and commensurate responsibility for the sale of the product or service to the ultimate customer; or any offer to a person of an opportunity to receive compensation related to the recruitment of third persons who will be entitled to substantially similar recruiting opportunities when the offer is used as an inducement for the payment of an entrance fee, given toward a purchase or other consideration, except for the actual cost of necessary sales materials by the persons to whom the offer is made;

(vi) "Endless chain" means any scheme or plan for the disposal or distribution of property or services whereby a participant pays a valuable consideration for the chance to receive compensation for introducing one (1) or more additional persons into participation in the scheme or plan or for the chance to receive compensation when the person introduced by the participant introduces a new participant;

(vii) "Documentary material" means the original or a copy of any book, record, report, memorandum, paper, communication, tabulation, map, chart, photograph, mechanical transcription, other tangible document or recording, reproductions of information stored magnetically, file layout, code conversion tables, computer programs to convert file to readable printout, wherever situate.

40-3-103. Endless chains and referral sales prohibited.

No person may contrive, prepare, set up, propose or operate an endless chain or referral sale.

40-3-104. Prohibitions and requirements.

Every multilevel distribution company shall provide in its contract of participation that the contract may be cancelled for any reason at any time by a participant upon notification in writing to the company of his election to cancel. If the participant has purchased products while the contract of participation was in effect, all unencumbered products in a resalable condition then in the possession of the participant shall be repurchased by the multilevel distribution company. The repurchase shall be at a price of not less than ninety percent (90%) of the original net cost to the participant returning such goods, taking into account any sales made by or through such participant prior to notification to the company of the election to cancel.

40-3-105. Restrictions on marketing programs.

(a) No multilevel distribution company, nor any participant, shall require participants in its marketing program to purchase products or services or pay any other consideration in order to participate in the marketing program unless the multilevel distribution company agrees in writing:

(i) To repurchase all or part of any products which are unencumbered and in a resalable condition at a price of not less than ninety percent (90%) of the original net cost to the participant, taking into account any sales made by or through such participant prior to notification to the company of election to cancel;

(ii) To repay not less than ninety percent (90%) of the original net cost of any services purchased by the participants; or

(iii) To refund not less than ninety percent (90%) of any other consideration paid by the participant in order to participate in the marketing program.

40-3-106. Additional restrictions in marketing programs.

(a) No multilevel distribution company or participant in its marketing program shall:

(i) Operate or, directly or indirectly, participate in the operation of any multilevel marketing program wherein the financial gains to the participants are primarily dependent upon the continued, successive recruitment of other participants and where sales to nonparticipants are not required as a condition precedent to realization of the financial gains;

(ii) Offer to pay, pay or authorize the payment of any finder's fee, bonus, refund, override, commission, cross-commission, dividend or other consideration to any participant in a multilevel marketing program solely for the solicitation or recruitment of other participants therein;

(iv) Offer to pay, pay or authorize the payment of any finder's fee, bonus, refund, override, commission, cross-commission, dividend or other consideration to any participant:

(A) If payment thereof is or would be dependent on the element of chance dominating over the skill or judgment of the participant;

(B) If no amount of judgment or skill exercised by the participant has any appreciable effect upon any finder's fee, bonus, refund, override, commission, cross-commission, dividend or other consideration which the participant may receive; or

(C) If the participant is without that degree of control over the operation of the plan as to enable him substantially to affect the amount of finder's fee, bonus, refund, override, commission, cross-commission, dividend or other consideration which he may receive or be entitled to receive.

40-3-107. Representations of prospective income restricted.

Multilevel distribution companies shall not represent directly or by implication that participants in a multilevel marketing program will earn or receive any stated gross or net amount, or represent in any manner the past earnings of participants. A written or verbal description of the manner in which the marketing plan operates shall not, standing alone, constitute a representation of earnings, past or future. Multilevel distribution companies shall not represent directly or by implication, that it is relatively easy to secure or retain additional distributors or sales personnel or that all or substantially all participants will succeed.

40-3-108. Licensed activities excluded.

Nothing in W.S. 40-3-101 through 40-3-125 shall apply to acts or practices permitted under the laws of this state or under rules, regulations or decisions interpreting the laws, or to any person who has procured a license as provided by W.S. 39-17-106(a) or (b).

(b) If the person's records are located outside this state, the person at his option shall either make them available to the attorney general at a convenient location within this state or pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the attorney general or his representative to examine them at the place where they are maintained. The attorney general may designate representatives, including comparable officials of the state in which the records are located, to inspect them on his behalf.

(c) Upon failure without lawful excuse to obey a subpoena or to give testimony and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the attorney general may apply to the district court for an order compelling compliance.

Upon a proper showing, a permanent or preliminary injunction or restraining order shall be granted. The court shall not require the attorney general to post a bond. The court may make such additional orders or judgments as may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any monies or property, real or personal, which the court finds to have been acquired by means of any act or practice committed in violation of this act. Such additional relief may include the appointment of a receiver whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant threatens or is about to remove, conceal or dispose of his property to the damage of persons to whom restoration would be made under this act.

40-3-119. Receiver's power to acquire and dispose of property.

Any receiver appointed pursuant to W.S. 40-3-118 has the power to sue for, collect, receive and take into his possession all the goods and chattels, rights and credits, monies and effects, land and tenements, books, records, documents, papers, choses in action, bills, notes and property of every description derived in violation of this act by any multilevel distribution company or any distributor in any multilevel distribution marketing plan sponsored by such company, including property which has been commingled with company or distributor property, if it cannot be identified in kind because of such commingling, and to sell, convey and assign the same and hold and dispose of the proceeds thereof under the direction of the court.

Nothing in this act limits the power of the state to punish any person for any conduct which constitutes a crime under any other statute.

40-3-123. Limitation of actions.

No action shall be maintained to enforce any liability created under this act unless brought before the expiration of three (3) years after the act or transaction constituting the violation or the expiration of one (1) year after the discovery by the plaintiff of the fact constituting the violation.

As part of any investigation under this section, the attorney general may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, documents or other matters, propound interrogatories to be answered in writing under oath and collect evidence. Any interrogatory or subpoena served under this subsection shall inform the party served of the right to file a petition as provided by subsection (b) of this section.

on the grounds that the testimony or matter may incriminate the individual be ordered by the court to provide the testimony or matter. Except for a prosecution for perjury, an individual who complies with a court order to provide testimony or matter after asserting a privilege against self-incrimination to which the individual is entitled by law shall not have the testimony or matter provided, or evidence derived therefrom, or received against the individual used in any criminal investigation or proceeding.

(f) Any person, firm, corporation or other entity, whether foreign or domestic, upon whom an interrogatory or subpoena is served pursuant to this section shall comply with the terms of the interrogatory or subpoena unless otherwise provided by this section or by order of the district court.

(g) Any person who fails to appear with the intent to avoid, evade or prevent compliance, in whole or in part, with any investigation under this act or who removes from any place, conceals, withholds, mutilates, alters, destroys or by any other means falsifies any matter or documentary material in the possession, custody or control of any person subject to the request or subpoena, or who knowingly conceals any relevant information with the intent to avoid, evade or prevent compliance shall be liable for a civil penalty as provided in this subsection. (iv) Obtain an order requiring divestiture of any assets:

(A) Acquired in violation of W.S. 40-4-101 and after the court determines that divestiture is necessary to avoid the creation or continuation of a monopoly or to avoid any likely substantial lessening of competition that results from a transaction found to be in violation of W.S. 40-4-101; or

(B) To restore competition to any line of Wyoming commerce that has been eliminated by a violation of W.S. 40-4-101.

For any action to be initiated under this subsection, the attorney general shall give notice to all persons on whose behalf the action would be initiated by publication or other means specified by the court. Any person on whose behalf a civil action would be brought may elect to have their claims excluded from the civil action by filing a notice of election with the court within the time specified in the notice by the attorney general. Any person who is represented by the attorney general in a civil action under this subsection who fails to submit a timely notice of election and for which a final judgment has been issued shall be precluded from asserting any claim or initiating any civil action that could have been brought based on the facts alleged or proven in the attorney general's action under this subsection.

(c) The attorney general shall recover the costs of any investigation, expert costs and reasonable attorney fees and costs if successful in any civil action initiated under this section.

(d) In lieu of initiating or continuing an investigation or civil action, the attorney general may accept and enter into a consent agreement with respect to any action or practice alleged to violate this act. Any consent agreement may include a stipulation for the payment of civil penalties as authorized in this act, reimbursement of the attorney general's reasonable expenses, costs and attorney fees, the payment of restitution and actual damages for Wyoming residents with an interest in the consent agreement or an agreement to abide by any injunctive provisions or prohibitions.

(e) Any civil action brought under this section may be brought in the district court of the county in which any party resides or has a principal place of business or in the district court of Laramie county.

(f) In addition to any action authorized by state law, the attorney general may proceed under any provision of federal antitrust law to enforce the provisions of this act.

(xiii) Establish labeling requirements, requirements for the presentation of cost-per-unit information, establish standards of weight, measure, count and fill for any packaged commodity and establish requirements for open dating information;

(vi) "Merchandise" includes any service or any property, tangible or intangible, real, personal or mixed, or any other object, ware, good, commodity, or article of value wherever situated;

(vii) "Enforcing authority" means the attorney general of Wyoming;

(viii) "Cure" as applied to an unlawful deceptive trade practice as defined in W.S. 40-12-105 means either:

(A) To offer in writing to adjust or modify the consumer transaction to which the unlawful deceptive trade practice relates to conform to the reasonable expectations of the consumer generated by such unlawful deceptive trade practice and to perform such offer if accepted by the consumer; or

(B) To offer in writing to rescind such consumer transaction and to perform such offer if accepted by the consumer.

(ix) "Uncured unlawful deceptive trade practice" means an unlawful deceptive trade practice as defined in W.S. 40-12-105:

(A) With respect to which a consumer who has been damaged by the unlawful deceptive trade practice has given notice to the alleged violator pursuant to W.S. 40-12-109; and

(B) Either:

(I) No offer to cure has been made to such consumer within fifteen (15) days after such notice; or

(x) "This act" means W.S. 40-12-101 through 40-12-114.

40-12-103. Unsolicited merchandise.

Unless otherwise agreed, when unsolicited merchandise is delivered to a person, he has a right to refuse such merchandise and is not obligated to return such merchandise to the sender. Such unsolicited merchandise is deemed an unconditional gift to the recipient, who may use it in any manner without any obligation to the sender. This section does not apply if there is evidence that the merchandise has been misdelivered, or if the delivered merchandise is offered as a good faith substitution for merchandise previously solicited by the recipient.

40-12-104. Home solicitation sales.

(a) For purposes of this section, "home solicitation sale" means the sale or lease of merchandise, other than farm equipment, for cash when the cash sales price, whether under a single sale or multiple sales, exceeds twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and in which the seller or a person acting for him engages in a personal solicitation of the sale at the residence of the buyer and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is there given to the seller or a person acting for him. A personal solicitation of a sale at the residence of the buyer includes contact with the buyer in person or by telephone. "Home solicitation sale" does not include:

(i) A sale made pursuant to a preexisting revolving charge account;

(ii) A sale made subsequent to a personal contact or a telephone contact at the residence of the buyer but pursuant to negotiations between the parties at a business establishment at a fixed location where goods or services are offered or exhibited for sale;

(iii) A sale made pursuant to a telephone solicitation when the seller offers a full refund and right of cancellation for at least ten (10) days after receipt of the merchandise and the right of refund and cancellation is communicated during the initial telephone solicitation and is conspicuously displayed with the merchandise; or

(iv) A sale in which a consumer acquires use of property under a rental-purchase agreement as defined in W.S. 40-19-102(a)(xi), with an initial period of one (1) week or less, by placing a telephone call to a merchant and by requesting that specific property be delivered to the consumer's residence or such other place as the consumer directs and such rental-purchase agreement is consummated at the consumer's residence.

(b) Except as hereinafter provided, in addition to any right otherwise to revoke an offer, the buyer has the right to cancel a home solicitation sale until midnight of the third business day after the day on which the buyer signs an agreement or offer to purchase which complies with this part. Cancellation occurs when the buyer gives written notice of cancellation to the seller at the address stated in the agreement or offer to purchase. Notice of cancellation, if given by mail, is given when it is deposited in a mailbox properly addressed and postage prepaid. Notice of cancellation given by the buyer need not take a particular form and is sufficient if it indicates by any form of written expression the intention of the buyer not to be bound by the home solicitation sale.

(c) The buyer may not cancel a home solicitation sale if the buyer requests the seller to provide goods or services without delay because of an emergency and:

(i) The seller in good faith makes a substantial beginning of performance of the contract before the buyer gives notice of cancellation; and

(ii) In the case of goods, the goods cannot be returned to the seller in substantially as good condition as when received by the buyer.

(d) The period within which cancellation may occur pursuant to this section shall not commence until the buyer is furnished a copy of the completed, approved and accepted contract, is given the name and address to which the notice of cancellation should be sent and is provided with a written statement of his right of cancellation. The statement of the buyer's right of cancellation shall comply with W.S. 40-14-253(b).

(e) Except as hereinafter provided, within ten (10) days after a home solicitation sale has been cancelled:

(i) The seller must tender to the buyer any payments made by the buyer and any note or other evidence of indebtedness;

(ii) If the down payment includes goods traded in, the goods must be tendered in substantially as good condition as when received by the seller, and if the seller fails to tender the goods as provided by this subsection, the buyer may elect to recover an amount equal to the trade-in allowance stated in the agreement;

(iii) The seller may retain as a cancellation fee five percent (5%) of the cash price but not exceeding the amount of the cash down payment. If the seller fails to comply with an obligation imposed by this section, or if the buyer voids the sale on any ground independent of his right to cancel or revokes his offer to purchase, the seller is not entitled to retain a cancellation fee;

(iv) Until the seller has complied with the obligations imposed by this subsection, the buyer may retain possession of goods delivered to him by the seller and has a lien on the goods in his possession or control for any recovery to which he is entitled.

(f) Except as provided under subsection (e) of this section, within a reasonable time after a home solicitation sale has been cancelled or an offer to purchase revoked, the buyer upon demand must tender to the seller any goods delivered by the seller pursuant to the sale but he is not obligated to tender at any place other than his residence. If the seller fails to demand possession of the goods within thirty (30) days after cancellation or revocation, the goods become the property of the buyer without obligation to pay for them.

(g) The buyer has a duty to take reasonable care of the goods in his possession before cancellation or revocation and for thirty (30) days thereafter, during which time the goods are otherwise at the seller's risk.

(h) If the seller has performed any services pursuant to a home solicitation sale prior to its cancellation, the seller is entitled to no compensation except the cancellation fee provided in this section.

40-12-105. Unlawful practices.

(a) A person engages in a deceptive trade practice unlawful under this act when, in the course of his business and in connection with a consumer transaction, he knowingly:

(i) Represents that merchandise has a source, origin, sponsorship, approval, accessories or uses it does not have;

(ii) Represents that he has a sponsorship, approval or affiliation he does not have;

(iii) Represents that merchandise is of a particular standard, grade, style or model, if it is not;

(iv) Represents that merchandise is available to the consumer for a reason that does not exist;

(v) Represents that merchandise has been supplied in accordance with a previous representation, if it has not; except that this subsection does not apply to merchandise supplied to the recipient by mistake or merchandise of equal or greater value supplied as a reasonably equivalent substitute for unavailable merchandise previously ordered by the recipient;

(vi) Represents that replacement or repair is needed, if it is not;

(vii) Makes false or misleading statements of fact concerning the price of merchandise or the reason for, existence of, or amounts of a price reduction;

(viii) Represents that a consumer transaction involves a warranty, a disclaimer of warranties, particular warranty terms, or other rights, remedies or obligations if the representation is false;

(ix) Represents that the consumer will receive a rebate, discount or other benefit as an inducement for entering into a consumer transaction in return for giving the supplier the names of prospective consumers or otherwise helping the supplier to enter into other consumer transactions, if receipt of the benefit is contingent upon an event occurring after the consumer enters into the transaction;

(x) Advertises merchandise with intent not to sell it as advertised;

(xi) Advertises merchandise with intent not to supply reasonably expectable public demand, unless the advertisement discloses the limitation;

(xii) Represents that merchandise is original or new if he knows that it is deteriorated, damaged, altered, reconditioned, reclaimed, used or secondhand. For purposes of this subsection, the terms "original" or "new" include merchandise previously sold but returned within a reasonable time by the consumer for full credit if such merchandise is not damaged or deteriorated;

(xiii) Advertises under the guise of obtaining sales personnel when in fact the purpose of the advertisement is to sell merchandise to the sales personnel applicants;

(xiv) Employs "bait and switch" advertising which consists of an offer to sell merchandise which the seller does not intend to sell, which advertising is accompanied by one (1) or more of the following practices:

(A) Refusal to show the merchandise advertised;

(B) False disparagement in any respect of the advertised merchandise or the terms of sale;

(C) Requiring undisclosed tie-in sales or other undisclosed conditions to be met prior to selling the advertised merchandise;

(D) Knowingly showing or demonstrating defective merchandise which is unusable or practicable for the purpose set forth in the advertisement;

(E) Accepting a deposit for the merchandise and subsequently charging the buyer for a higher priced item without his consent; or

(F) Willful failure to either make deliveries of the merchandise or to make a refund therefor.

(xv) Engages in unfair or deceptive acts or practices;

(xvi) Violates W.S. 40-12-601;

(xvii) Willfully fails to comply with the duties imposed by W.S. 34-29-106.

40-12-106. Restraining unlawful practices.

Whenever the enforcing authority has reasonable cause to believe that any person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in any practice which is unlawful under W.S. 40-12-104 or 40-12-105, and that proceedings would be in the public interest, he may bring an action in the name of this state against such person to restrain by temporary restraining order or preliminary or permanent injunction the use of such practice. The action may be brought in the district court of the county in which the person resides or has his principal place of business or in the district court of Laramie county, Wyoming. The district court may issue temporary restraining orders, including ex parte temporary restraining orders, or preliminary or permanent injunctions, in accordance with the principles of equity, to restrain and prevent violations of this act. The court may make such additional orders or judgments as are necessary to compensate identifiable persons for actual damages or restoration of money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means or any act or practice restrained.

40-12-107. Assurances of voluntary compliance.

The enforcing authority may accept written assurance of voluntary compliance with respect to any practice believed to be violative of W.S. 40-12-105 from any person who is engaged or is about to engage in such practice. Such assurance is not considered an admission of violation for any purpose. Proof of failure to comply with the assurance of voluntary compliance is prima facie evidence of a violation of this act. Matters closed by virtue of the acceptance of an assurance of voluntary compliance may at any time be reopened by the enforcing authority for further proceedings in the public interest, pursuant to W.S. 40-12-106.

40-12-108. Private remedies.

(a) A person relying upon an uncured unlawful deceptive trade practice may bring an action under this act for the damages he has actually suffered as a consumer as a result of such unlawful deceptive trade practice.

(b) Any person who is entitled to bring an action under subsection (a) of this section on his own behalf against an alleged violator of this act for damages for an unlawful deceptive trade practice may bring a class action against such person on behalf of any class of persons of which he is a member and which has been damaged by such unlawful deceptive trade practice, subject to and pursuant to the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure governing class actions, except as herein expressly provided. If the court determines that actual damages have been suffered by reason of the unlawful deceptive trade practice, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the plaintiffs in a class action under this subsection, provided that such fees shall be determined by the amount of time reasonably expended by the attorney for the plaintiffs and not by the amount of the judgment. Any monies or property recovered in a class action under this subsection which cannot, with due diligence, be restored to consumers within one (1) year after judgment becomes final shall be returned to the party depositing the same.

40-12-109. Limitation of actions.

No action may be brought under this act, except under W.S. 40-12-106, unless the consumer bringing the action gives within the following time limits notice in writing to the alleged violator of the act, (a) within one (1) year after the initial discovery of the unlawful deceptive trade practice, (b) within two (2) years following such consumer transaction, whichever occurs first, and unless the unlawful deceptive trade practice becomes an uncured unlawful deceptive trade practice as defined in this act. The notice required under this section shall state fully the nature of the alleged unlawful deceptive trade practice and the actual damage suffered therefrom. No action may be brought under this act, except under W.S. 40-12-106, unless said action is initiated within one (1) year after the furnishing of notice as required under this section.

40-12-110. Exemptions.

(a) Nothing in this act shall apply to:

(i) Acts or practices required or permitted by state or federal law, rule or regulation or judicial or administrative decision;

(ii) Acts or practices by the publisher, owner, agent or employee of a newspaper, periodical, radio or television station or any other person without knowledge of the deceptive character of the advertisement in the publication or dissemination of an advertisement supplied by another.

40-12-111. Violations involving older persons or persons with disabilities; civil penalty.

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Person with disabilities" means any person who has a mental or educational impairment which substantially limits one (1) or more major life activities;

(ii) "Major life activities" means functions associated with the normal activities of independent daily living such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working;

(iii) "Mental or educational impairment" means:

(B) Any educational deficiency which substantially affects a person's ability to read and comprehend the terms of any contractual agreement entered into.

(iv) "Older person" means a person who is over sixty (60) years of age.

(b) Any person who willfully uses, or has willfully used, a method, act or practice in violation of this act which victimizes or attempts to victimize an older person or a person with disabilities, and commits such violation when the person knew or should have known that the conduct was unfair or deceptive, shall make restitution or reimbursement to the older person or person with disabilities including reasonable attorney fees and costs, and, in addition, is liable for a civil penalty of up to fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) for each violation recoverable by the office of the attorney general.

40-12-112. Investigative powers of enforcing authority.

(a) If, by inquiry by the enforcing authority or as a result of complaints, the enforcing authority has probable cause to believe that a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, an act or practice that violates this act, investigators designated by the Wyoming attorney general may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses or matter, and collect evidence. Within five (5) days, excluding weekends and legal holidays, after the service of a subpoena or at any time before the return date specified therein, whichever is longer, the party served may file in the district court in the county in which the party resides or in which the party transacts business, or in the district court for the first judicial district of Wyoming, and serve upon the enforcing authority a petition for an order modifying or setting aside the subpoena. The petitioner may raise any objection or privilege which would be available under this act or upon service of a subpoena in a civil action. The subpoena shall inform the party served of the party's rights under this subsection.

(b) If matter that the enforcing authority seeks to obtain by subpoena is located outside the state, the person subpoenaed may make it available to the enforcing authority to examine the matter at the place where it is located. The enforcing authority may designate representatives, including officials of the state in which the matter is located, to inspect the matter on its behalf, and the enforcing authority may respond to similar requests from officials of other states.

(c) Upon failure of a person without lawful excuse to obey a subpoena and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected, the enforcing authority may apply to the district court for an order compelling compliance.

(d) The enforcing authority may request that an individual who refuses to comply with a subpoena on the ground that testimony or matter may incriminate the individual, be ordered by the court to provide the testimony or matter. Except in a prosecution for perjury, an individual who complies with a court order to provide testimony or matter after asserting a privilege against self-incrimination to which the individual is entitled by law shall not have the testimony or matter so provided, or evidence derived therefrom, received against the individual in any criminal investigation or proceeding.

(e) Any person upon whom a subpoena is served pursuant to this section shall comply with the terms thereof unless otherwise provided by order of the court. Any person who fails to appear with the intent to avoid, evade or prevent compliance in whole or in part with any investigation under this act or who removes from any place, conceals, withholds, mutilates, alters or destroys, or by any other means falsifies any documentary material in the possession, custody or control of any person subject to the subpoena, or knowingly conceals any relevant information with the intent to avoid, evade or prevent compliance is liable for a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

(f) Whenever criminal or civil intelligence, investigative information or any other information held by any state or federal agency is available to the enforcing authority on a confidential or a similarly restricted basis, the enforcing authority, in the course of the investigation of any violation of this act, may obtain and use the information. CHAPTER 14 - WYOMING UNIFORM CONSUMER CREDIT CODE

ARTICLE 1 - GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

Part 1.

Short Title, Construction, General Provisions

40-14-101. Short title.

This act shall be known and may be cited as "Wyoming Uniform Consumer Credit Code."

40-14-102. Purposes; rules of construction.

(a) This act shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.

(b) The underlying purposes and policies of this act are:

(i) To simplify, clarify and modernize the law governing retail installment sales, consumer credit, small loans and usury;

(ii) To provide rate ceilings to assure an adequate supply of credit to consumers;

(iii) To further consumer understanding of the terms of credit transactions and to foster competition among suppliers of consumer credit so that consumers may obtain credit at reasonable cost;

(iv) To protect consumer buyers, lessees, and borrowers against unfair practices by some suppliers of consumer credit, having due regard for the interests of legitimate and scrupulous creditors;

(v) To permit and encourage the development of fair and economically sound consumer credit practices;

(vi) To conform the regulation of consumer credit transactions to the policies of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act; and

(vii) To make uniform the law, including administrative rules, among the various jurisdictions.

(c) A reference to a requirement imposed by this act includes reference to a related rule of the administrator adopted pursuant to this act.

40-14-103. Supplementary general principles of law applicable.

Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this act, the Uniform Commercial Code and the principles of law and equity, including the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other validating or invalidating cause, supplement its provisions.

40-14-104. Construction against implicit repeal.

This act being a general act intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, no part of it shall be deemed to be impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if such construction can reasonably be avoided.

40-14-105. Severability.

If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

40-14-106. Waiver; agreement to forego rights; settlement of claims; legal rate of interest; applicability.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this act, a buyer, lessee, or debtor may not waive or agree to forego rights or benefits under this act.

(b) A claim by a buyer, lessee, or debtor against a creditor for an excess charge, other violation of this act, or civil penalty, or a claim against a buyer, lessee, or debtor for default or breach of a duty imposed by this act, if disputed in good faith, may be settled by agreement.

(c) A claim, whether or not disputed, against a buyer, lessee, or debtor may be settled for less value than the amount claimed.

(d) A settlement in which the buyer, lessee, or debtor waives or agrees to forego rights or benefits under this act is invalid if the court as a matter of law finds the settlement to have been unconscionable at the time it was made. The competence of the buyer, lessee, or debtor, any deception or coercion practiced upon him, the nature and extent of the legal advice received by him, and the value of the consideration are relevant to the issue of unconscionability.

(e) If there is no agreement or provision of law for a different rate, the interest of money shall be at the rate of seven percent (7%) per annum.

(f) The Financial Technology Sandbox Act shall apply to this act.

40-14-107. Effect on powers of organizations.

(a) This act prescribes maximum charges for all creditors, except lessors and those excluded (W.S. 40-14-121), extending consumer credit including consumer credit sales (W.S. 40-14-204) and consumer loans (W.S. 40-14-304), and displaces existing limitations on the powers of those creditors based on maximum charges.

(b) With respect to sellers of goods or services, small loan companies, licensed lenders, consumer and sales finance companies, industrial banks and loan companies and commercial banks and trust companies, this act displaces existing limitations on their powers based solely on amount or duration of credit.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (a) of this section, this act does not displace limitations on powers of credit unions, savings banks, savings and loan associations, or other thrift institutions whether organized for the profit of shareholders or as mutual organizations.

(d) Except as provided in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, this act does not displace:

(i) Limitations on powers of supervised financial organizations defined by W.S. 40-14-140(a)(xix) with respect to the amount of a loan to a single borrower, the ratio of a loan to the value of collateral, the duration of a loan secured by an interest in land or other similar restrictions designed to protect deposits; or

If no communication or indication of intention is given by the buyer before the first sale, this act applies if the seller's communication notifying the buyer of the privilege of using the account is mailed or personally delivered in this state.

If no communication or indication of intention is given by the debtor before the first loan, this act applies if the lender's communication notifying the debtor of the privilege of using the arrangement is mailed or personally delivered in this state.

(d) The part on limitations on creditors' remedies (part 1) of the article on remedies and penalties (article 5) applies to actions or other proceedings brought in this state to enforce rights arising from consumer credit sales, consumer leases, or consumer loans, or extortionate extensions of credit, wherever made.

(f) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, a sale, lease, loan or modification thereof, made in another state to a person who was not a resident of this state when the sale, lease, loan, or modification was made is valid and enforceable in this state according to its terms to the extent that it is valid and enforceable under the laws of the state applicable to the transaction.

(g) For the purposes of this act, the residence of a buyer, lessee, or debtor is the address given by him as his residence in any writing signed by him in connection with a credit transaction. Until he notifies the creditor of a new or different address, the given address is presumed to be unchanged.

(h) Notwithstanding other provisions of this section:

(i) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, this act does not apply if the buyer, lessee, or debtor is not a resident of this state at the time of a credit transaction and the parties then agree that the law of his residence applies; and

(ii) This act applies if the buyer, lessee, or debtor is a resident of this state at the time of a credit transaction and the parties then agree that the law of this state applies.

(j) Except as provided in subsection (h) of this section, the following agreements by a buyer, lessee, or debtor are invalid with respect to consumer credit sales, consumer leases, consumer loans, or modifications thereof, to which this act applies:

(i) That the law of another state shall apply;

(ii) That the buyer, lessee, or debtor consents to the jurisdiction of another state; and 40-14-207. Definition of "seller".

Except as otherwise provided, "seller" includes an assignee of the seller's right to payment but use of the term does not in itself impose on an assignee any obligation of the seller with respect to events occurring before the assignment.

40-14-208. Definition of "revolving charge account".

(a) "Revolving charge account" means an arrangement between a seller and a buyer pursuant to which:

(i) The seller may permit the buyer to purchase goods or services on credit either from the seller or pursuant to a seller credit card;

(ii) The unpaid balances of amounts financed arising from purchases and the credit service and other appropriate charges are debited to an account; charges computed on the account for delaying payment and permits the buyer to continue to purchase on credit.

40-14-209. Definition of "credit service charge".

(a) "Credit service charge" means the sum of:

(i) All charges payable directly or indirectly by the buyer and imposed directly or indirectly by the seller as a condition of or an incident to the extension of credit, including any of the following types of charges which are applicable: time price differential, service, carrying or other charge however denominated, premium or other charge for any guarantee or insurance protecting the seller against the buyer's default or other credit loss; and

(ii) Charges incurred for investigating the collateral or credit-worthiness of the buyer or for commissions or brokerage for obtaining the credit, irrespective of the person to whom the charges are paid or payable, unless the seller had no notice of the charges when the credit was granted.

(i) Charges as a result of default;

(ii) Additional charges pursuant to W.S. 40-14-213;

(iii) Delinquency charges specified by W.S. 40-14-214;

(vi) Reasonable credit application fees whether or not credit is extended.

40-14-210. Definition of "cash price".

"Cash price" means the price at which the creditor offers, in the ordinary course of business, to sell for cash the property or services which are the subject of a consumer credit transaction. 40-14-211. Definition of "amount financed".

(iii) If not included in the cash price:

(A) Any applicable sales, use, excise, or documentary stamp taxes;

(B) Amounts actually paid or to be paid by the seller for registration, certificate of title, or license fees; and

(C) Additional charges permitted by W.S.

Part 2.
Maximum Charges

40-14-212. Credit service charge for consumer credit sales other than revolving charge accounts.

(a) With respect to a consumer credit sale, other than a sale pursuant to a revolving charge account, a seller may contract for and receive a credit service charge not exceeding that permitted by this section.

(b) The credit service charge, calculated according to the actuarial method, may not exceed:

(i) Where the amount financed does not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00), the equivalent of the greater of either of the following:

(A) The total of: Thirty-six percent (36%) per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the amount financed which is one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or less and twenty-one percent (21%) per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the amount financed which is more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00); or

(B) Twenty-one percent (21%) per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the amount financed.

(C) Repealed by Laws 1981, ch. 147, § 1.

(ii) Where the amount financed exceeds seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00), any credit service charge specified in the buyer's sale agreement.

(c) This section does not limit or restrict the manner of contracting for the credit service charge, whether by way of add-on, discount, or otherwise, so long as the rate of the credit service charge does not exceed that permitted by this section. If the sale is precomputed:

(i) The credit service charge may be calculated on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due; and

(ii) The effect of prepayment is governed by the provisions on rebate upon prepayment (W.S. 40-14-221).

(d) For the purposes of this section, the term of a sale agreement commences with the date the credit is granted or, if goods are delivered or services performed ten (10) days or more after that date, with the date of commencement of delivery or performance. Differences in the lengths of months are disregarded and a day may be counted as one-thirtieth of a month. Subject to classifications and differentiations the seller may reasonably establish, a part of a month in excess of fifteen (15) days may be treated as a full month if periods of fifteen (15) days or less are disregarded and that procedure is not consistently used to obtain a greater yield than would otherwise be permitted.

(e) Subject to classifications and differentiations the seller may reasonably establish, he may make the same credit service charge on all amounts financed within a specified range. A credit service charge so made does not violate subsection (b) of this section if:

(i) When applied to the median amount within each range, it does not exceed the maximum permitted by subsection (b) of this section; and

(ii) When applied to the lowest amount within each range, it does not produce a rate of credit service charge exceeding the rate calculated according to paragraph (a)(i) of this section by more than eight percent (8%) of the rate calculated according to paragraph (a)(i) of this section.

(f) Notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section, the seller may contract for and receive a minimum credit service charge of not more than thirty dollars ($30.00).

40-14-213. Additional charges.

(a) In addition to the credit service charge permitted by this part, a seller may contract for and receive the following additional charges in connection with a consumer credit sale:

(i) Official fees and taxes;

(ii) Charges for insurance as described in subsection (b) of this section; and

(iii) Charges excluded from the credit service charge by the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act or by rule adopted by the administrator.

(b) An additional charge may be made for insurance written in connection with the sale, other than insurance protecting the seller against the buyer's default or other credit loss:

(i) With respect to insurance against loss of or damage to property, or against liability, if the seller furnishes a clear and specific statement in writing to the buyer, setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the seller, and stating that the buyer may choose the person through whom the insurance is to be obtained;

(ii) With respect to consumer credit insurance providing life, accident, or health coverage, if the insurance coverage is not a factor in the approval by the seller of the extension of credit and this fact is clearly disclosed in writing to the buyer, and if, in order to obtain the insurance in connection with the extension of credit, the buyer gives specific affirmative written indication of his desire to do so after written disclosure to him of the cost thereof;

(iii) Repealed By Laws 2013, Ch. 124, § 3.

(c) Reasonable closing costs (W.S. 40-14-140(a)(v)) are additional charges.

40-14-214. Delinquency charges.

(a) With respect to a consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation, the parties may contract for a delinquency charge on any installment not paid in full within ten (10) days after its scheduled due date in an amount not exceeding the greater of:

(i) Five percent (5%) of the unpaid amount of the installment; or

(ii) Ten dollars ($10.00).

(b) A delinquency charge under subsection (a) of this section may be collected only once on an installment however long it remains in default. No delinquency charge may be collected if the installment has been deferred and a deferral charge (W.S. 40-14-215) has been paid or incurred until ten (10) days after the deferred due date. A delinquency charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter.

(c) No delinquency charge may be collected on an installment which is paid in full within ten (10) days after its scheduled installment due date even though an earlier maturing installment or a delinquency charge on an earlier installment may not have been paid in full. For purposes of this subsection payments are applied first to current installments and then to delinquent installments.

40-14-215. Deferral charges.

(a) With respect to a consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation, the parties before or after default may agree in writing to a deferral of all or part of one (1) or more unpaid installments, and the seller may make and collect a charge which the buyer expressly agrees to pay as consideration for the deferral. A deferral charge may be collected at the time it is assessed or at any time thereafter.

(b) The seller, in addition to the deferral charge, may make appropriate additional charges (W.S. 40-14-213), and the amount of these charges which is not paid in cash may be added to the amount deferred for the purpose of calculating the deferral charge.

(c) Except in connection with a revolving charge account, the parties may agree in writing at the time of a consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation that if an installment is not paid within ten (10) days after its due date, the seller may unilaterally grant a deferral and make charges as provided in this section. No deferral charge may be made for a period after the date that the seller elects to accelerate the maturity of the agreement.

(d) A delinquency charge made by the seller on an installment may not be retained if a deferral charge is made pursuant to this section with respect to the period of delinquency.

40-14-216. Credit service charge on refinancing.

(a) With respect to a consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation, the seller may by agreement with the buyer refinance the unpaid balance and may contract for and receive a credit service charge based on the amount financed resulting from the refinancing at a rate not exceeding that permitted by the provisions on credit service charge for consumer credit sales (W.S. 40-14-212). For the purpose of determining the credit service charge permitted, the amount financed resulting from the refinancing comprises the following:

(i) If the transaction was not precomputed, the total of the unpaid balance and accrued charges on the date of refinancing, or, if the transaction was precomputed, the amount which the buyer would have been required to pay upon prepayment pursuant to the provisions on rebate upon prepayment (W.S. 40-14-221) on the date of refinancing except that for the purpose of computing this amount no minimum credit service charge (W.S. 40-14-212(f)) shall be allowed; and

(ii) Appropriate additional charges (W.S. 40-14-213), payment of which is deferred.

40-14-217. Credit service charge on consolidation.

(a) If a buyer owes an unpaid balance to a seller with respect to a consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation, and becomes obligated on another consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation with the same seller, the parties may agree to a consolidation resulting in a single schedule of payments pursuant to either of the following subsections:

(i) The parties may agree to refinance the unpaid balance with respect to the previous sale pursuant to the provisions on refinancing (W.S. 40-14-216) and to consolidate the amount financed resulting from the refinancing by adding it to the amount financed with respect to the subsequent sale. The seller may contract for and receive a credit service charge based on the aggregate amount financed resulting from the consolidation at a rate not exceeding that permitted by the provisions on credit service charge for consumer credit sales (W.S. 40-14-212);

(ii) The parties may agree to consolidate by adding together the unpaid balances with respect to the two (2) sales.

40-14-218. Credit service charge for revolving charge accounts.

(a) With respect to a consumer credit sale made pursuant to a revolving charge account, the parties to the sale may contract for the payment by the buyer of a credit service charge not exceeding that permitted in this section.

(b) A charge may be made in each billing cycle which is a percentage of an amount no greater than:

(i) The average daily balance of the account;

(ii) The unpaid balance of the account on the same day of the billing cycle; or

(iii) The median amount within a specified range within which the average daily balance of the account or the unpaid balance of the account on the same day of the billing cycle is included. A charge may be made pursuant to this paragraph only if the seller, subject to classifications and differentiations he may reasonably establish, makes the same charge on all balances within the specified range and if the percentage when applied to the median amount within the range does not produce a charge exceeding the charge resulting from applying that percentage to the lowest amount within the range by more than eight percent (8%) of the charge on the median amount.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (ii) of this subsection:

(i) If the billing cycle is monthly, the charge may not exceed one and three-fourths percent (1.75%) of the amount pursuant to subsection (b) of this section; or

(ii) If the billing cycle is not monthly, the maximum charge is that percentage which bears the same relation to the applicable monthly percentage as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to thirty (30). For the purposes of this section, a variation of not more than four (4) days from month to month is "the same day of the billing cycle".

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (c) of this section, if there is an unpaid balance on the date as of which the credit service charge is applied, the seller may contract for and receive a charge in accordance with this subsection. For accounts with a billing cycle of thirty (30) days or more, the seller may receive a charge not exceeding three dollars ($3.00). For accounts with a billing cycle of less than thirty (30) days, the seller may receive a charge not to exceed the pro rata part of three dollars ($3.00) that bears the same relation to three dollars ($3.00) as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to thirty (30).

40-14-219. Advances to perform covenants of buyer.

(a) If the agreement with respect to a consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation contains covenants by the buyer to perform certain duties pertaining to insuring or preserving collateral and the seller pursuant to the agreement pays for performance of the duties on behalf of the buyer, the seller may add the amounts paid to the debt. Within a reasonable time after advancing any sums, he shall state to the buyer in writing the amount of the sums advanced, any charges with respect to this amount, and any revised payment schedule and, if the duties of the buyer performed by the seller pertain to insurance, a brief description of the insurance paid for by the seller including the type and amount of coverages. No further information need be given.

(b) A credit service charge may be made for sums advanced pursuant to subsection (a) of this section at a rate not exceeding the rate stated to the buyer pursuant to the laws relating to disclosure with respect to the sale, refinancing, or consolidation, except that with respect to a revolving charge account the amount of the advance may be added to the unpaid balance of the amount and the seller may make a credit service charge not exceeding that permitted by the provisions on credit service charge for revolving charge accounts (W.S. 40-14-218).

40-14-220. Right to prepay.

Subject to the provisions on rebate upon prepayment (W.S. 40-14-221), the buyer may prepay in full the unpaid balance of a consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation at any time without penalty.

40-14-221. Rebate upon prepayment.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, upon prepayment in full of the unpaid balance of a precomputed consumer credit sale, refinancing or consolidation, the unearned credit service charge shall be refunded based upon the Rule of 78's if the transaction under its original terms did not exceed sixty-one (61) monthly installments and upon the actuarial method, if the transaction by its original terms exceeded sixty-one (61) monthly installments. An amount not less than the unearned portion of the credit service charge calculated according to this section shall be rebated to the debtor. With respect to irregular payment transactions, the administrator may prescribe by rule the refund formula. If the rebate otherwise required is less than one dollar ($1.00), no rebate need be made.

(b) Upon prepayment in full of a consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation, other than one (1) pursuant to a revolving charge account, if the credit service charge then earned is less than any permitted minimum credit service charge (W.S. 40-14-212(f)) contracted for, whether or not the sale, refinancing, or consolidation is precomputed, the seller may collect or retain the minimum charge, as if earned, not exceeding the credit service charge contracted for.

(c) If a deferral (W.S. 40-14-215) has been agreed to, the unearned portion of the credit service charge shall be computed without regard to the deferral. The amount of deferral charge earned at the date of prepayment shall also be calculated. If the deferral charge earned is less than the deferral charge paid, the difference shall be added to the unearned portion of the credit service charge. If any part of a deferral charge has been earned but has not been paid, that part shall be subtracted from the unearned portion of the credit service charge or shall be added to the unpaid balance.

(d) This section does not preclude the collection or retention by the seller of delinquency charges (W.S. 40-14-214).

(e) If the maturity is accelerated for any reason and judgment is obtained, the buyer is entitled to the same rebate as if payment had been made on the date judgment is entered.

(f) Upon prepayment in full of a consumer credit sale by the proceeds of consumer credit insurance (W.S. 40-14-403), the buyer or his estate is entitled to the same rebate as though the buyer had prepaid the agreement on the date the proceeds of the insurance are paid to the seller, but no later than ten (10) business days after satisfactory proof of loss is furnished to the seller.

Part 3.

Disclosure and Advertising

40-14-222. Applicability; information required.

(a) For purposes of this part, consumer credit sale includes the sale of an interest in land without regard to the rate of the credit service charge if the sale is otherwise a consumer credit sale (W.S. 40-14-204).

(b) Repealed by Laws 1982, ch. 61, § 2.

(c) Repealed by Laws 1982, ch. 61, § 2.

(c) Repealed by Laws 1982, ch. 61, § 2.

(d) Repealed by Laws 1982, ch. 61, § 2.

(e) A statement of rate complies with this part if it does not vary from the accurately computed rate by more than the following tolerances:

(i) The annual percentage rate may be more or less than the actual rate by not more than one-eighth of one percent (.125%) or may be rounded to the nearest one-fourth of one percent (.25%) for consumer credit sales payable in substantially equal installments when a seller determines the total credit service charge on the basis of a single add-on, discount, periodic or other rate, and the rate is converted into an annual percentage rate under procedures prescribed by rule by the administrator;

(ii) The administrator may authorize by rule the use of rate tables or charts which may provide for the disclosure of annual percentage rates which vary from the rate determined in accordance with paragraph (i) of this subsection by not more than the tolerances the administrator may allow; the administrator may not allow a tolerance greater than eight percent (8%) of that rate except to simplify compliance where irregular payments are involved; and

(iii) In case a seller determines the annual percentage rate in a manner other than as described in paragraph (i) or (ii) of this subsection, the administrator may authorize by rule other reasonable tolerances.

40-14-226. Repealed by Laws 1982, ch. 61, § 2.

Part 4.

Limitations on Agreements and Practices

40-14-235. Scope; violations of federal Military Lending Act.

(a) This part applies to consumer credit sales and consumer leases.

(b) The administrator may seek an appropriate remedy, penalty, action or license revocation or suspension as provided in articles 5 and 6 of this chapter against a person licensed under this act for a violation of 10 U.S.C. § 987 or any rule promulgated that is authorized by that section.

40-14-236. Use of multiple agreements.

A seller may not use multiple agreements with intent to obtain a higher credit service charge than would otherwise be permitted by this article or to avoid disclosure of an annual percentage rate pursuant to the laws relating to disclosure and advertising. The excess amount of credit service charge provided for in agreements in violation of this section is an excess charge for the purposes of the provisions on the effect of violations on rights of parties (W.S. 40-14-521) and the provisions on civil actions by administrator (W.S. 40-14-613).

40-14-237. Certain negotiable instruments prohibited.

In a consumer credit sale or consumer lease the seller or lessor may not take a negotiable instrument other than a check as evidence of the obligation of the buyer or lessee. A holder is not in good faith if he takes a negotiable instrument with notice that it is issued in violation of this section. A holder in due course is not subject to the liabilities set forth in the provisions on the effect of violations on rights of parties (W.S. 40-14-521) and the provisions on civil actions by administrator (W.S. 40-14-613).

40-14-238. When assignee not subject to defenses.

(a) With respect to a consumer credit sale or consumer lease an agreement by the buyer or lessee not to assert against an assignee a claim or defense arising out of the sale or lease is enforceable only by an assignee not related to the seller or lessor who acquires the buyer's or lessee's contract in good faith and for value, who gives the buyer or lessee notice of the assignment as provided in this section and who, within forty-five (45) days after the mailing of the notice of assignment, receives no written notice of the facts giving rise to the buyer's or lessee's claim or defense. This agreement is enforceable only with respect to claims or defenses which have arisen before the end of the forty-five (45) day period after notice was mailed. The notice of assignment shall be in writing and addressed to the buyer or lessee at his address as stated in the contract, identify the contract, describe the goods or services, state the names of the seller or lessor and buyer or lessee, the name and address of the assignee, the amount payable by the buyer or lessee and the number, amounts and due dates of the installments, and contain a conspicuous notice to the buyer or lessee that he has forty-five (45) days within which to notify the assignee in writing of any complaints, claims or defenses he may have against the seller or lessor and that if written notification of the complaints, claims or defenses is not received by the assignee within the forty-five (45) day period, the assignee will have the right to enforce the contract free of any claims or defenses the buyer or lessee may have against the seller or lessor which have arisen before the end of the forty-five (45) day period after notice was mailed.

(b) An assignee does not acquire a buyer's or lessee's contract in good faith within the meaning of subsection (a) of this section if the assignee has knowledge or, from his course of dealing with the seller or lessor or his records, notice of substantial complaints by other buyers or lessees of the seller's or lessor's failure or refusal to perform his contracts with them and of the seller's or lessor's failure to remedy his defaults within a reasonable time after the assignee notifies him of the complaints.

(c) To the extent that under this section an assignee is subject to claims or defenses of the buyer or lessee against the seller or lessor, the assignee's liability under this section may not exceed the amount owing to the assignee at the time the claim or defense is asserted against the assignee and rights of the buyer or lessee under this section can only be asserted as a matter of defense to or setoff against a claim by the assignee.

40-14-239. Balloon payments.

With respect to a consumer credit sale, other than one pursuant to a revolving charge account, if any scheduled payment is more than twice as large as the average of earlier scheduled payments, the buyer has the right to refinance the amount of that payment at the time it is due if the seller is still offering that type of credit and the buyer is creditworthy. Credit terms shall be as favorable as those offered to the general public by the seller for the same type of sale at the time a request for refinancing is approved. These provisions do not apply to the extent that the payment schedule is adjusted to the seasonal or irregular income of the buyer.

40-14-240. Restriction on liability in consumer lease.

The obligation of a lessee upon expiration of a consumer lease may not exceed twice the average payment allocable to a monthly period under the lease. This limitation does not apply to charges for damages to the leased property or for other default.

40-14-241. Security in sales or leases.

(a) With respect to a consumer credit sale, a seller may take a security interest in the property sold. In addition, a seller may take a security interest in goods upon which services are performed or in which goods sold are installed or to which they are annexed, or in land to which the goods are affixed or which is maintained, repaired or improved as a result of the sale of the goods or services, if in the case of a security interest in land the debt secured is one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or more, or, in the case of a security interest in goods the debt secured is three hundred dollars ($300.00) or more. Except as provided with respect to cross-collateral (W.S.

40-14-242), a seller may not otherwise take a security interest in property of the buyer to secure the debt arising from a consumer credit sale.

(b) With respect to a consumer lease a lessor shall not take a security interest in property of the lessee to secure the debt arising from the lease. This subsection does not apply to a security deposit for a consumer lease.

(c) A security interest taken in violation of this section is void.

40-14-242. Cross-collateral.

(a) In addition to contracting for a security interest pursuant to the provisions on security in sales or leases (W.S. 40-14-241), a seller in a consumer credit sale may secure the debt arising from the sale by contracting for a security interest in other property if as a result of a prior sale the seller has an existing security interest in the other property. The seller may also contract for a security interest in the property sold in the subsequent sale as security for the previous debt.

(b) If the seller contracts for a security interest in other property pursuant to this section, the rate of credit service charge thereafter on the aggregate unpaid balances so secured may not exceed that permitted if the balances so secured were consolidated pursuant to the provisions on consolidation involving a refinancing (W.S. 40-14-217(a)(i)). The seller has a reasonable time after so contracting to make any adjustments required by this section. "Seller" in this section does not include an assignee not related to the original seller.

40-14-243. Debt secured by cross-collateral.

(a) If debts arising from two (2) or more consumer credit sales, other than sales pursuant to a revolving charge account, are secured by cross-collateral (W.S. 40-14-242) or consolidated into one (1) debt payable on a single schedule of payments, and the debt is secured by security interests taken with respect to one (1) or more of the sales, payments received by the seller after the taking of the cross-collateral or the consolidation are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount of the debt secured by the various security interests, to have been first applied to the payment of the debts arising from the sales first made. To the extent debts are paid according to this section, security interests in items of property terminate as the debts originally incurred with respect to each item are paid.

(b) Payments received by the seller upon a revolving charge account are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount of the debt secured by the various security interests, to have been applied first to the payment of credit service charges in the order of their entry to the account and then to the payment of debts in the order in which the entries to the account showing the debts were made.

(c) If the debts consolidated arose from two (2) or more sales made on the same day, payments received by the seller are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount of the debt secured by the various security interests, to have been applied first to the payment of the smallest debt.

40-14-244. No assignment of earnings.

(a) A seller or lessor may not take an assignment of earnings of the buyer or lessee for payment or as security for payment of a debt arising out of a consumer credit sale or a consumer lease. An assignment of earnings in violation of this section is unenforceable by the assignee of the earnings and revocable by the buyer or lessee. This section does not prohibit an employee from authorizing deductions from his earnings if the authorization is revocable.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing prohibition, a seller or lessor may take an assignment of commissions or accounts receivable payable to the buyer or lessee for services rendered for payment or as security for payment of a debt arising out of a consumer lease.

40-14-245. Referral sales.

With respect to a consumer credit sale or consumer lease the seller or lessor may not give or offer to give a rebate or discount or otherwise pay or offer to pay value to the buyer or lessee as an inducement for a sale or lease in consideration of his giving to the seller or lessor the names of prospective purchasers or lessees, or otherwise aiding the seller or lessor in making a sale or lease to another person, if the earning of the rebate, discount or other value is contingent upon the occurrence of an event subsequent to the time the buyer or lessee agrees to buy or lease. If a buyer or lessee is induced by a violation of this section to enter into a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, the agreement is unenforceable by the seller or lessor and the buyer or lessee, at his option, may rescind the agreement or retain the goods delivered and the benefit of any services performed, without any obligation to pay for them.

40-14-246. Notice of assignment.

The buyer or lessee is authorized to pay the original seller or lessor until the buyer or lessee receives notification of assignment of the rights to payment pursuant to a consumer credit sale or consumer lease and that payment is to be made to the assignee. A notification which does not reasonably identify the rights assigned is ineffective. If requested by the buyer or lessee, the assignee must seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made and unless he does so the buyer or lessee may pay the seller or lessor.

40-14-247. Attorney's fees.

With respect to a consumer credit sale or consumer lease the agreement may provide for the payment by the buyer or lessee of reasonable attorney's fees after default and referral to an attorney not a salaried employee of the seller, or of the lessor or his assignee. A provision in violation of this section is unenforceable.

40-14-248. Limitation on default charges.

Except for reasonable expenses incurred in realizing on a security interest, the agreement with respect to a consumer credit sale may not provide for any charges as a result of default by the buyer other than those authorized by this act. A provision in violation of this section is unenforceable.

40-14-249. Authorization to confess judgment prohibited.

A buyer or lessee may not authorize any person to confess judgment on a claim arising out of a consumer credit sale or consumer lease. An authorization in violation of this section is void.

40-14-250. Change in terms of revolving charge accounts.

(a) If a seller makes a change in the terms of a revolving charge account without complying with this section any additional cost or charge to the buyer resulting from the change is an excess charge and subject to the remedies available to debtors (W.S. 40-14-521) and to the administrator (W.S. 40-14-613).

(b) A seller may change the terms of the revolving charge account whether or not the change is authorized by prior agreement. Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the seller shall give to the buyer written notice of any change at least three (3) times, with the first notice at least six (6) months before the effective date of the change.

(c) The notice specified in subsection (b) of this section is not required if notice of any proposed change in the terms of a revolving charge account is given to the customer at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of such change or thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the billing cycle within which such change will become effective, whichever is the earlier date, and if:

(i) The buyer after receiving notice of the change agrees in writing to the change;

(ii) The buyer elects to pay an amount designated on a billing statement as including a new charge for a benefit offered to the buyer when the benefit and charge constitute the change in terms and when the billing statement also states the amount payable if the new charge is excluded;

(iii) The change involves no significant cost to the buyer;

(iv) The buyer has previously consented in writing to the kind of change made and notice of the change is given to the buyer in two (2) billing cycles prior to the effective date of the change; or

(v) The change applies only to purchases made or obligations incurred after a date specified in a notice of the change given in two (2) billing cycles prior to the effective date of the change.

(d) The notice provided for in this section is given to the buyer when mailed to him at the address used by the seller for sending periodic billing statements.

Home Solicitation Sales

40-14-251. Definition.

(a) "Home solicitation sale" means a consumer credit sale of goods or services with a purchase price of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more written under single or multiple contracts, in which the seller or a person acting for him engages in a personal solicitation of the sale including face-to-face confrontation or telephone solicitation, at a place other than the place of business of the seller and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is there given to the seller or a person acting for him.

(b) "Home solicitation sale" shall not include:

(i) A sale consummated entirely by telephone or mail if initiated by the buyer;

(ii) A sale made pursuant to a preexisting revolving charge account; or

(iii) A sale made pursuant to prior negotiations between the parties at a business establishment with a fixed location where goods or services are offered or exhibited for sale.

40-14-252. Buyer's right to cancel.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (e) of this section, in addition to any right otherwise to revoke an offer, the buyer has the right to cancel a home solicitation sale until midnight of the third business day after the day on which the buyer signs an agreement or offer to purchase which complies with this part.

(b) Cancellation occurs when the buyer gives written notice of cancellation to the seller at the address stated in the agreement or offer to purchase.

(c) Notice of cancellation, if given by mail, is given when it is deposited in a mailbox properly addressed and postage prepaid.

(d) Notice of cancellation given by the buyer need not take a particular form and is sufficient if it indicates by any form of written expression the intention of the buyer not to be bound by the home solicitation sale.

(e) The buyer may not cancel a home solicitation sale if the buyer requests the seller to provide goods or services without delay because of an emergency, and:

(i) The seller in good faith makes a substantial beginning of performance of the contract before the buyer gives notice of cancellation; and

(ii) In the case of goods, the goods cannot be returned to the seller in substantially as good condition as when received by the buyer.

(f) If a home solicitation sale is also subject to any other provisions on a debtor's right to rescind certain transactions, the buyer may proceed either under those provisions or under this part.

40-14-253. Form of agreement or offer; statement of buyer's rights; form of notice of cancellation; compliance by seller.

(a) In a home solicitation sale, unless the buyer requests the seller to provide goods or services without delay in an emergency, the seller shall:

(i) Present to the buyer and obtain his signature to a written agreement or offer to purchase which:

(A) Is in the same language as that principally used in the oral sales presentation;

(B) Designates the date on which the buyer actually signs as the date of the transaction;

(C) Contains the name and address of the seller;
and

(D) In immediate proximity to the space reserved for the buyer's signature, contains a statement of the buyer's rights which substantially complies with subsection (b) of this section.

(ii) Provide a notice of cancellation form which substantially complies with subsection (c) of this section.

(b) The statement of the buyer's rights shall:

(i) Appear under the conspicuous caption "Buyer's right to cancel";

(ii) Be printed in boldface type of a minimum size of ten (10) points; and

(iii) Read as follows: "You, the buyer, may cancel this transaction at any time prior to 12:00 midnight of the third business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right."

(c) The notice of cancellation form shall:

(i) Be completed in duplicate;

(ii) Appear under the conspicuous caption "Notice of cancellation";

(iii) Be printed in boldface type of a minimum size of ten (10) points;

(iv) Be printed in the same language used in the written agreement or offer to purchase;

(v) Be attached to the written agreement or offer to purchase and be easily detachable; and

(vi) Read as follows:

"You may cancel this transaction without any penalty or obligation within three (3) business days from (enter date of transaction). If you cancel, any property traded in, any payments made by you under the contract or sale and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within ten (10) business days following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice. Any security interest arising out of the transaction will be cancelled.

If you cancel, you must make available to the seller at your residence, in substantially as good condition as when received, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale, or you may if you wish comply with the instructions of the seller regarding the return shipment of the goods at the seller's expense and risk.

If you do make the goods available to the seller and the seller does not pick them up within twenty (20) days of the date of your notice of cancellation, you may retain or dispose of the goods without any further obligation. If you fail to make the goods available to the seller, or if you agree to return the goods to the seller and fail to do so, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under the contract.

To cancel this transaction, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice or any other written notice, or send a telegram, to (name of seller), at (address of seller's place of business) not later than 12:00 midnight of (date).

I hereby cancel this transaction.

(Date) (Buyer's signature)"

(d) Until the seller has complied with this section, the buyer may cancel the home solicitation sale by notifying the seller of his intention to cancel.

40-14-254. Restoration of down payment; retention of goods by buyer.

(a) Within ten (10) days after a home solicitation sale has been cancelled or an offer to purchase revoked, the seller shall tender to the buyer any goods traded in, any payments made by the buyer and any note or other evidence of indebtedness.

(b) If the down payment includes goods traded in, the goods must be tendered in substantially as good condition as when received by the seller. If the seller fails to tender the goods as provided by this section, the buyer may elect to recover an amount equal to the trade-in allowance stated in the agreement.

(c) Repealed by Laws 1979, ch. 117, § 2.

(d) Until the seller has complied with the obligations imposed by this section the buyer may retain possession of goods delivered to him by the seller and has a lien on the goods in his possession or control for any recovery to which he is entitled.

40-14-255. Duty of buyer; no compensation for services prior to cancellation; noncompliance by buyer.

(a) Except retention of goods by the buyer pursuant to W.S. 40-14-254(d), within a reasonable time after a home solicitation sale has been cancelled or an offer to purchase revoked, the buyer upon demand shall tender to the seller any goods delivered by the seller pursuant to the sale. The buyer is not obligated to tender at any place other than his residence. If the seller fails to demand possession of goods within a reasonable time after cancellation or revocation, the goods become the property of the buyer without obligation to pay. For the purpose of this section, twenty (20) days is presumed to be a reasonable time.

(b) The buyer has a duty to take reasonable care of the goods in his possession before cancellation or revocation and for a reasonable time thereafter, during which time the goods are otherwise at the seller's risk.

(c) If the seller has performed any services pursuant to a home solicitation sale prior to its cancellation, the seller is entitled to no compensation.

(d) If the buyer fails to comply with this section or agrees to return any goods to the seller at the seller's expense and risk and fails to do so, the buyer remains liable for performance of all obligations under the written agreement or offer to purchase.

Part 6.

40-14-256. Sales subject to provisions by agreement of parties.

The parties to a sale other than a consumer credit sale may agree in a writing signed by the parties that the sale is subject to the provisions of this act applying to consumer credit sales. If the parties so agree the sale is a consumer credit sale for the purposes of this act.

40-14-257. Repealed by Laws 2021, ch. 14, § 3.

40-14-258. Repealed by Laws 2021, ch. 14, § 3.

40-14-259. Repealed by Laws 2021, ch. 14, § 3.

40-14-260. Repealed by Laws 2021, ch. 14, § 3.

Sales Financing

40-14-261. Definitions; prohibited assignments; applicable provisions.

(a) "Sales financing" means being primarily engaged in the business of taking by assignment or providing financing on behalf of sellers or lessors. Assignment under this subsection shall only include non-servicing rights against debtors arising from consumer credit sales or consumer leases which at the time of assignment the buyer or lessee is not in default.

(b) "Sales finance company" means a person or organization engaged in the business of sales financing.

(c) Unless a person is a supervised financial organization, is licensed under W.S. 40-14-302(b) or has first obtained a license from the administrator, no person shall engage in sales financing.

(d) Repealed By Laws 1996, ch. 86, § 3.

- (i) The debtor is a person other than an organization;
- (ii) The debt is incurred primarily for a personal, family or household purpose;
- (iii) Either the debt is payable in installments or a loan finance charge is made; and

(c) "Loan primarily secured by an interest in land" means a loan made for the purpose of purchasing or acquiring ownership of land and appurtenances, including structures affixed to the land, and which is secured by a first mortgage lien. A loan primarily secured by an interest in land is not a consumer loan, except that W.S. 40-14-320, 40-14-323, 40-14-354 and 40-14-520 through 40-14-524 shall apply to loans primarily secured by an interest in land.

(ii) The creation of debt by a credit to an account with the lender upon which the debtor is entitled to draw immediately;

(iii) The creation of debt pursuant to a lender credit card or similar arrangement; and

(iv) The forbearance of debt arising from a loan.

40-14-307. Additional definitions.

(a) Except as otherwise provided, "lender" includes an assignee of the lender's right to payment but use of the term does not in itself impose on an assignee any obligation of the lender with respect to events occurring before the assignment.

(b) A loan, refinancing, or consolidation is "precomputed" if the debt is expressed as a sum comprising the principal and the amount of the loan finance charge computed in advance.

(c) "Principal" of a loan means the total of:

(i) The net amount paid to, receivable by, or paid or payable for the account of the debtor;

(ii) The amount of any discount excluded from the loan finance charge (W.S. 40-14-309(b)); and

(iii) To the extent that payment is deferred:

(A) Amounts actually paid or to be paid by the lender for registration, certificate of title or license fees if not included in paragraph (i) of this subsection; and

(B) Additional charges permitted by this article (W.S. 40-14-311).

40-14-308. Definition of "revolving loan account".

(a) "Revolving loan account" means an arrangement between a lender and a debtor pursuant to which:

(i) The lender may permit the debtor to obtain loans from time to time;

(ii) The unpaid balances of principal and the loan finance and other appropriate charges are debited to an account;

(iii) A loan finance charge if made is not precomputed but is computed on the outstanding unpaid balances of the debtor's account from time to time; and

(iv) Either the debtor has the privilege of paying in full or in installments or the lender periodically imposes charges computed on the account for delaying payment and permits the debtor to continue to obtain loans.

40-14-309. Definition of "loan finance charge".

(a) "Loan finance charge" means the sum of:

(i) All charges payable directly or indirectly by the debtor and imposed directly or indirectly by the lender as a condition of or an incident to the extension of credit, including any of the following types of charges which are applicable: interest or any amount payable under a point, discount, or other system of charges, however denominated, premium or other charge for any guarantee or insurance protecting the lender against the debtor's default or other credit loss; and

(ii) Charges incurred for investigating the collateral or credit-worthiness of the debtor or for commissions or brokerage for obtaining the credit, irrespective of the person to whom the charges are paid or payable, unless the lender had no notice of the charges when the loan was made.

(b) The term does not include charges as a result of default, additional charges (W.S. 40-14-311), delinquency charges (W.S. 40-14-312), deferral charges (W.S. 40-14-313) or reasonable credit application fees whether or not credit is extended.

(c) If a lender makes a loan to a debtor by purchasing or satisfying obligations of the debtor pursuant to a lender credit card or similar arrangement, and the purchase or satisfaction is made at less than the face amount of the obligation, the discount is not part of the loan finance charge.

Part 2.
Maximum Charges

40-14-310. Consumer loan finance charges.

(a) With respect to a consumer loan and except as provided for pawnbrokers under W.S. 40-14-360(a) and post-dated check cashers under W.S. 40-14-363(a), a lender may contract for and receive a loan finance charge as provided by this section.

(b) This section does not limit or restrict the manner of contracting for the loan finance charge, whether by way of add-on, discount, or otherwise, so long as the rate of the loan finance charge does not exceed that permitted by this section. The loan finance charge may be contracted for and earned at the single annual percentage rate that would earn the same finance charge as the graduated rates when the debt is paid according to the agreed terms and the calculations are made according to the actuarial method. If the loan is precomputed:

(i) The loan finance charge may be calculated on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due; and

(ii) The effect of prepayment is governed by the provisions on rebate upon prepayment (W.S. 40-14-319).

(c) For the purposes of this section, the term of a loan commences with the date the loan is made. Differences in the lengths of months are disregarded and a day may be counted as one-thirtieth of a month. Subject to classifications and differentiations the lender may reasonably establish, a part of a month in excess of fifteen (15) days may be treated as a full month if periods of fifteen (15) days or less are disregarded and if that procedure is not consistently used to obtain a greater yield than would otherwise be permitted.

(d) Repealed by Laws 2021, ch. 14, § 3.

(e) Subject to classifications and differentiations the lender may reasonably establish, he may make the same loan finance charge on all amounts financed within a specified range. A loan finance charge so made does not violate subsection (g) of this section if:

(i) When applied to the median amount within each range, it does not exceed the maximum permitted by subsection (g) of this section; and

(ii) When applied to the lowest amount within each range, it does not produce a rate of loan finance charge exceeding the rate calculated according to paragraph (i) of this subsection by more than eight percent (8%) of the rate calculated according to paragraph (i) of this subsection.

(f) Except as provided for pawnbrokers in W.S. 40-14-360(f) and post-dated check cashers in W.S. 40-14-363, a lender may contract for and receive a minimum loan finance charge of not more than thirty dollars ($30.00).

(g) A loan finance charge, calculated according to the actuarial method, shall not exceed the equivalent of thirty-six percent (36%) per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the principal that is equal to or less than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) and shall not exceed the equivalent of twenty-one percent (21%) per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the principal that is greater than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

(h) If an unpaid balance exists on a consumer loan in a revolving account on the date on which the loan finance charge is applied, the lender may contract for and receive a charge in accordance with this subsection. For accounts with a billing cycle of thirty (30) days or more, the lender may receive a charge not to exceed three dollars ($3.00). For accounts with a billing cycle of less than thirty (30) days, the lender may receive a charge not to exceed the pro rata part of three dollars ($3.00) that bears the same relation to three dollars ($3.00) as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to thirty (30). No charge shall be made under this subsection for an account if the lender has made an annual charge for the same period as permitted by the provisions on additional charges (W.S. 40-14-311(a)(iii)).

40-14-311. Additional charges.

(a) In addition to the loan finance charge permitted by this article, a lender may contract for and receive the following additional charges in connection with a consumer loan:

(i) Official fees and taxes;

(ii) Charges for insurance as described in subsection (b) of this section;

(iii) Annual charges, payable in advance, for the privilege of using a lender credit card or similar arrangement which entitles the user to purchase goods or services from at least one hundred (100) persons not related to the issuer of the lender credit card or similar arrangement, under an arrangement pursuant to which the debts resulting from the purchases are payable to the issuer;

(iv) Charges excluded from the loan finance charge by the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act or by rule adopted by the administrator.

(b) An additional charge may be made for insurance written in connection with the loan, other than insurance protecting the lender against the debtor's default or other credit loss:

(i) With respect to insurance against loss of or damage to property, or against liability, if the lender furnishes a clear and specific statement in writing to the debtor, setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the lender, and stating that the debtor may choose the person through whom the insurance is to be obtained;

(ii) With respect to consumer credit insurance providing life, accident, or health coverage, if the insurance coverage is not a factor in the approval by the lender of the extension of credit, and this fact is clearly disclosed in writing to the debtor, and if, in order to obtain the insurance in connection with the extension of credit, the debtor gives specific affirmative written indication of his desire to do so after written disclosure to him of the cost thereof.

(iii) Repealed By Laws 2013, Ch. 124, § 3.

(c) Reasonable closing costs (W.S. 40-14-140(a)(v)) are additional charges.

40-14-312. Delinquency charges.

(a) With respect to a consumer loan, refinancing, or consolidation, the parties may contract for a delinquency charge on any installment not paid in full within ten (10) days after its scheduled due date in an amount not exceeding the greater of:

(i) Five percent (5%) of the unpaid amount of the installment; or

(ii) Ten dollars ($10.00).

(b) A delinquency charge under paragraph (a)(i) of this section may be collected only once on an installment however long it remains in default. No delinquency charge may be collected if the installment has been deferred and a deferral charge (W.S. 40-14-313) has been paid or incurred until ten (10) days after the deferred due date. A delinquency charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter.

(c) No delinquency charge may be collected on an installment which is paid in full within ten (10) days after its scheduled installment due date even though an earlier maturing installment or a delinquency charge on an earlier installment may not have been paid in full. For purposes of this subsection payments are applied first to current installments and then to delinquent installments.

(d) If two (2) installments or parts thereof of a precomputed loan are in default for ten (10) days or more, the lender may elect to convert the loan from a precomputed loan to one in which the loan finance charge is based on unpaid balances. In this event he shall make a rebate pursuant to the provisions on rebate upon prepayment (W.S. 40-14-319) as of the maturity date of the first delinquent installment, and thereafter may make a loan finance charge as authorized by the provisions on loan finance charge for consumer loans (W.S. 40-14-310). The amount of the rebate shall not be reduced by the amount of any permitted minimum charge (W.S. 40-14-319). If the lender proceeds under this subsection, any delinquency or deferral charges made with respect to installments due at or after the maturity date of the first delinquent installment shall be rebated, and no further delinquency or deferral charges shall be made.

40-14-313. Deferral charges.

(a) With respect to a consumer loan, refinancing, or consolidation, the parties before or after default may agree in writing to a deferral of all or part of one (1) or more unpaid installments, and the lender may make and collect a charge which the debtor expressly agrees to pay as consideration for a deferral. A deferral charge may be collected at the time it is assessed or at any time thereafter.

(b) The lender, in addition to the deferral charge, may make appropriate additional charges (W.S. 40-14-311), and the amount of these charges which is not paid in cash may be added to the amount deferred for the purpose of calculating the deferral charge.

(c) Except in connection with a revolving loan account, the parties may agree in writing at the time of a consumer loan, refinancing, or consolidation that if an installment is not paid within ten (10) days after its due date, the lender may unilaterally grant a deferral and make charges as provided in this section. No deferral charge may be made for a period after the date that the lender elects to accelerate the maturity of the agreement.

(d) A delinquency charge made by the lender on an installment may not be retained if a deferral charge is made pursuant to this section with respect to the period of delinquency.

40-14-314. Loan finance charge on refinancing.

(a) With respect to a consumer loan, refinancing or consolidation, the lender may by agreement with the debtor refinance the unpaid balance and may contract for and receive a loan finance charge based on the principal resulting from the refinancing at a rate not exceeding that permitted by the provisions on loan finance charge for consumer loans (W.S. 40-14-310). For the purpose of determining the loan finance charge permitted, the principal resulting from the refinancing comprises the following:

(i) If the transaction was not precomputed, the total of the unpaid balance and the accrued charges on the date of the refinancing, or, if the transaction was precomputed, the amount which the debtor would have been required to pay upon prepayment pursuant to the provisions on rebate upon prepayment (W.S. 40-14-319) on the date of refinancing, except that for the purpose of computing this amount no minimum charge (W.S. 40-14-319) shall be allowed; and

(ii) Appropriate additional charges (W.S. 40-14-311), payment of which is deferred.

40-14-315. Loan finance charge on consolidation.

(a) If a debtor owes an unpaid balance to a lender with respect to a consumer loan, refinancing or consolidation, and becomes obligated on another consumer loan, refinancing or consolidation with the same lender, the parties may agree to a consolidation resulting in a single schedule of payments. If the previous consumer loan, refinancing, or consolidation was not precomputed, the parties may agree to add the unpaid amount of principal and accrued charges on the date of consolidation to the principal with respect to the subsequent loan. If the previous consumer loan, refinancing, or consolidation was precomputed, the parties may agree to refinance the unpaid balance pursuant to the provisions on refinancing (W.S. 40-14-314) and to consolidate the principal resulting from the refinancing by adding it to the principal with respect to the subsequent loan. In either case the lender may contract for and receive a loan finance charge based on the aggregate principal resulting from the consolidation at a rate not in excess of that permitted by the provisions on loan finance charge for consumer loans (W.S. 40-14-310).

(b) The parties may agree to consolidate the unpaid balance of a consumer loan with the unpaid balance of a consumer credit sale. The parties may agree to refinance the previous unpaid balance pursuant to the provisions on refinancing sales (W.S. 40-14-216) or the provisions on refinancing loans (W.S. 40-14-314), whichever is appropriate, and to consolidate the amount financed resulting from the refinancing or the principal resulting from the refinancing by adding it to the amount financed or principal with respect to the subsequent sale or loan. The aggregate amount resulting from the consolidation shall be deemed principal, and the creditor may contract for and receive a loan finance charge based on the principal at a rate not in excess of that permitted by the provisions on loan finance charge for consumer loans (W.S. 40-14-310).

40-14-316. Conversion to revolving loan account.

(a) The parties may agree to add to a revolving loan account the unpaid balance of a consumer loan, not made pursuant to a revolving loan account, or a refinancing, or consolidation thereof, or the unpaid balance of a consumer credit sale, refinancing or consolidation. For the purpose of this section:

(i) The unpaid balance of a consumer loan, refinancing, or consolidation is an amount equal to the principal determined according to the provisions on refinancing (W.S. 40-14-314); and

(ii) The unpaid balance of a consumer credit sale, refinancing, or consolidation is an amount equal to the amount financed determined according to the provisions on refinancing (W.S. 40-14-216).

40-14-317. Advances to perform covenants of debtor.

(a) If the agreement with respect to a consumer loan, refinancing, or consolidation contains covenants by the debtor to perform certain duties pertaining to insuring or preserving collateral and if the lender pursuant to the agreement pays for performance of the duties on behalf of the debtor, the lender may add the amounts paid to the debt. Within a reasonable time after advancing any sums, he shall state to the debtor in writing the amount of the sums advanced, any charges with respect to this amount, and any revised payment schedule and, if the duties of the debtor performed by the lender pertain to insurance, a brief description of the insurance paid for by the lender including the type and amount of coverages. No further information need be given.

(b) A loan finance charge may be made for sums advanced pursuant to subsection (a) of this section at a rate not exceeding the rate stated to the debtor pursuant to the laws relating to disclosure with respect to the loan, refinancing, or consolidation, except that with respect to a revolving loan account the amount of the advance may be added to the unpaid balance of the debt and the lender may make a loan finance charge not exceeding that permitted by the provisions on loan finance charge for consumer loans (W.S. 40-14-310).

40-14-318. Right to prepay.

Subject to the provisions on rebate upon prepayment (W.S. 40-14-319), the debtor may prepay in full the unpaid balance of a consumer loan, refinancing, or consolidation at any time without penalty.

40-14-319. Rebate upon prepayment.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, upon prepayment in full of the unpaid balance of a precomputed consumer loan, refinancing or consolidation, the unearned loan finance charge shall be refunded based on the Rule of 78's if the transaction under its original terms did not exceed sixty-one (61) monthly installments and upon the actuarial method, if the transaction by its original terms exceeded sixty-one (61) monthly installments. An amount not less than the unearned portion of the loan finance charge calculated according to this section shall be rebated to the debtor. With respect to irregular payment transactions, the administrator may prescribe by rule the refund formula. If the rebate otherwise required is less than one dollar ($1.00), no rebate need be made.

(b) Upon prepayment in full of a consumer loan, other than one pursuant to a revolving loan account, a refinancing or consolidation, whether or not precomputed, the lender may collect or retain a minimum loan finance charge within the limits stated in W.S. 40-14-310(f).

(c) If a deferral (W.S. 40-14-313) has been agreed to, the unearned portion of the loan finance charge shall be computed without regard to the deferral. The amount of deferral charge earned at the date of prepayment shall also be calculated. If the deferral charge earned is less than the deferral charge paid, the difference shall be added to the unearned portion of the loan finance charge. If any part of a deferral charge has been earned but has not been paid, that part shall be subtracted from the unearned portion of the loan finance charge or shall be added to the unpaid balance.

(d) This section does not preclude the collection or retention by the lender of delinquency charges (W.S. 40-14-312).

(e) If the maturity is accelerated for any reason and judgment is obtained, the debtor is entitled to the same rebate as if the payment had been made on the date judgment is entered.

(f) Upon prepayment in full of a consumer loan by the proceeds of consumer credit insurance (W.S. 40-14-403), the debtor or his estate is entitled to the same rebate as though the debtor had prepaid the agreement on the date the proceeds of the insurance are paid to the lender, but no later than ten (10) business days after satisfactory proof of loss is furnished to the lender.

Part 3.

(d) Repealed by Laws 1982, ch. 61, § 2.

(e) A statement of rate complies with this part if it does not vary from the accurately computed rate by more than the following tolerances:

(i) The annual percentage rate may be more or less than the actual rate by not more than one-eighth of one percent (.125%) or may be rounded to the nearest one-fourth of one percent (.25%) for consumer loans payable in substantially equal installments when a lender determines the total loan finance charge on the basis of a single add-on, discount, periodic or other rate, and the rate is converted into an annual percentage rate under procedures prescribed by rule by the administrator;

(ii) The administrator may authorize by rule the use of rate tables or charts which may provide for the disclosure of annual percentage rates which vary from the rate determined in accordance with paragraph (i) of this subsection by not more than the tolerances the administrator may allow; the administrator may not allow a tolerance greater than eight percent (8%) of that rate except to simplify compliance where irregular payments are involved; and

(iii) In case a lender determines the annual percentage rate in a manner other than as described in paragraph (i) or (ii) of this subsection, the administrator may authorize by rule other reasonable tolerances.

Part 4.

Limitations on Agreements and Practices

40-14-332. Scope.

This part applies to consumer loans.

40-14-333. Balloon payments.

With respect to a consumer loan, other than one pursuant to a revolving loan account, if any scheduled payment is more than twice as large as the average of earlier scheduled payments, the debtor has the right to refinance the amount of that payment at the time it is due if the creditor is still offering that type of credit and the debtor is credit worthy. Credit terms shall be as favorable as those offered to the general public by the creditor for the same type of credit at the time a request for refinancing is approved. These provisions do not apply to the extent that the payment schedule is adjusted to the seasonal or irregular income of the debtor.

40-14-334. No assignment of earnings.

(a) A lender may not take an assignment of earnings of the debtor for payment or as security for payment of a debt arising out of a consumer loan. An assignment of earnings in violation of this section is unenforceable by the assignee of the earnings and revocable by the debtor. This section does not prohibit an employee from authorizing deductions from his earnings if the authorization is revocable.

(b) Notwithstanding the prohibition of subsection (a) of this section, a lender may take an assignment of commissions or accounts receivable payable to the debtor for services rendered for payment or as security for payment of a debt arising out of a consumer loan.

(c) A sale of unpaid earnings made in consideration of the payment of money to or for the account of the seller of the earnings is deemed to be a loan to him secured by an assignment of earnings.

40-14-335. Attorney's fees.

A consumer loan agreement may provide for the payment by the debtor of reasonable attorney's fees after default and referral to an attorney not a salaried employee of the lender. A provision in violation of this section is unenforceable.

40-14-336. Limitation on default charges.

Except for reasonable expenses incurred in realizing on a security interest, the agreement with respect to a consumer loan may not provide for charges as a result of default by the debtor other than those authorized by this act. A provision in violation of this section is unenforceable.

40-14-337. Notice of assignment.

The debtor is authorized to pay the original lender until he receives notification of assignment of rights to payment pursuant to a consumer loan and that payment is to be made to the assignee. A notification which does not reasonably identify the rights assigned is ineffective. If requested by the debtor, the assignee must seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made and unless he does so the debtor may pay the original lender.

40-14-338. Authorization to confess judgment prohibited.

A debtor may not authorize any person to confess judgment on a claim arising out of a consumer loan. An authorization in violation of this section is void.

40-14-339. Change in terms of revolving loan accounts.

(a) If a lender makes a change in the terms of a revolving loan account without complying with this section any additional cost or charge to the debtor resulting from the change is an excess charge and subject to the remedies available to debtors (W.S. 40-14-521) and to the administrator (W.S. 40-14-613).

(b) A lender may change the terms of a revolving loan account whether or not the change is authorized by prior agreement. Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the lender shall give to the debtor written notice of any change at least three (3) times, with the first notice at least six (6) months before the effective date of the change.

(c) The notice specified in subsection (b) of this section is not required if notice of any proposed change in the terms of a revolving loan account is given to the customer at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of such change or thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the billing cycle within which such change will become effective, whichever is the earlier date, and if:

(i) The debtor after receiving notice of the change agrees in writing to the change;

(ii) The debtor elects to pay an amount designated on a billing statement as including a new charge for a benefit offered to the debtor when the benefit and charge constitute the change in terms and when the billing statement also states the amount payable if the new charge is excluded;

(iii) The change involves no significant cost to the debtor;

(iv) The debtor has previously consented in writing to the kind of change made and notice of the change is given to the debtor in two (2) billing cycles prior to the effective date of the change; or

(v) The change applies only to debts incurred after a date specified in a notice of the change given in two (2) billing cycles prior to the effective date of the change.

(d) The notice provided for in this section is given to the debtor when mailed to him at the address used by the lender for sending periodic billing statements.

40-14-340. Use of multiple agreements.

No lender shall permit any person or two (2) married persons to become obligated in any way under more than one (1) loan agreement with the lender or with a person related to the lender with intent to obtain a higher rate of loan finance charge than would otherwise be permitted or to avoid disclosure of an annual percentage rate pursuant to the laws relating to disclosure and advertising. The excess amount of loan finance charge provided for in agreements in violation of this section is an excess charge for the purposes of the provisions on the effect of violations on rights of parties (W.S. 40-14-521) and the provisions on civil actions by administrator (W.S. 40-14-613).

40-14-354. Loans subject to provisions by agreement of parties.

The parties to a loan other than a consumer loan may agree in a writing signed by the parties that the loan is subject to the provisions of this act applying to consumer loans. If the parties so agree, the loan is a consumer loan for the purposes of this act.

Part 7.

Pawnshop Operations

40-14-359. Definitions; application.

- (a) As used in W.S. 40-14-359 through 40-14-361:

(i) "Pawnbroker" means a person licensed pursuant to W.S. 40-14-634 to engage in the business of making pawn transactions;

(ii) "Pawn finance charge" means the sum of all charges, payable directly or indirectly by the customer and imposed directly or indirectly by the pawnbroker as an incident of the pawn transactions;

(iii) "Pawn transaction" means the act of lending money on the security of pledged tangible personal property, or the act of purchasing tangible personal property on the condition that it may be redeemed or repurchased by the seller for a fixed price within a fixed period of time.

(b) W.S. 40-14-359 through 40-14-361 shall not supersede the rights of cities, towns and counties to regulate and license pawnshops in any fashion consistent with this act. The rights of cities, towns and counties to regulate pawn finance charges and maturities are preempted.

40-14-360. Pawn finance charge; limits on amount financed and terms; minimum pawn finance charge.

(a) No pawnbroker may contract for, charge or receive any amount as a charge in connection with a pawn transaction other than a pawn finance charge. No pawn finance charge shall exceed twenty percent (20%) per month on the unpaid principal balance of the pawn transaction.

(b) The amount financed in any one (1) pawn transaction to any one (1) customer shall not exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000.00).

(c) The maturity date of a pawn transaction shall be one (1) calendar month. The period shall expire on the same date in the succeeding month if there is such a date, otherwise on the last day of the succeeding month. If the expiration date is not a business day, the period expires on the next business day.

(d) Pawn finance charges are fully earned on the day the loan is made.

(e) Pawn transactions may be renewed from month to month without additional disclosures provided:

(i) There is no change in the original terms; and

(ii) Pawn finance charges are not compounded.

(f) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, the lender may contract for and receive a minimum pawn finance charge of not more than five dollars ($5.00).

40-14-361. Limitation on agreement and practices.

(a) No pawnbroker shall make an agreement requiring the personal liability of a customer in connection with a pawn transaction. No customer may be required to redeem pledged goods or make any payment on a pawn transaction. The sole remedy of a pawnbroker for nonpayment of a loan by a customer or failure to redeem or repurchase tangible personal property by a customer in a pawn transaction is the right to title of the pledged tangible personal property.

(b) Pawnbrokers shall not make any charge for insurance in connection with a pawn transaction.

(c) Pawnbrokers shall post in a conspicuous place on their premises a schedule of business days and hours during which pawn transactions may be redeemed.

Part 8.

40-14-362. Definitions.

(a) As used in W.S. 40-14-362 through 40-14-367:

(i) "Post-dated check or similar arrangement" means the act of lending money in which a check or draft is dated on a date subsequent to the date it was written or dated on the date written but held for any period of days prior to deposit or presentment due to the check casher's agreement with or representations to a debtor, whether express or implied;

(ii) "Post-dated check casher" means a person engaged in the business of lending money by means of post-dated check transactions or similar arrangements.

40-14-363. License required; post-dated check finance charge; limits on amount financed and terms; minimum finance charge.

(a) No person shall engage in business as a post-dated check casher in this state unless licensed in accordance with W.S. 40-14-634. No post-dated check casher may contract for, charge or receive any amount as a charge in connection with a post-dated check or similar arrangement other than a post-dated check finance charge as stated in this subsection. No post-dated check finance charge shall exceed the greater of thirty dollars ($30.00) or twenty percent (20%) per month on the principal balance of the post-dated check or similar arrangement.

(b) The maximum term of any post-dated check or similar arrangement subject to this part shall be one (1) calendar month. Extended payment plans under W.S. 40-14-366 are not subject to this subsection.

(c) Post-dated check finance charges are fully earned on the day the post-dated check or similar arrangement is made.

40-14-364. Limitation on multiple agreements.

No post-dated check or similar arrangement shall be repaid, refinanced or otherwise consolidated by proceeds of another post-dated check or similar arrangement accepted by the same post-dated check casher.

40-14-365. Right to rescind.

(a) A post-dated check or similar arrangement with a post-dated check casher may be rescinded by the consumer on or before 5:00 p.m. Mountain Time of the following business day, provided that the consumer returns to the post-dated check casher in cash or certified funds the full original amount of funds advanced. A rescission under this section shall be at no cost to the consumer.

(b) Information regarding how to exercise the right to rescind shall be provided in writing to the consumer at the consummation of every post-dated check or similar arrangement.

Part 9.
Violations

40-14-366. Extended payment plan; terms and conditions.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this section, a consumer who is unable to repay a post-dated check or similar arrangement when due may elect once every twelve (12) months to repay the post-dated check or similar arrangement by means of an extended payment plan. The twelve (12) month period shall be measured from the date the consumer pays in full one extended payment plan with the post-dated check casher until the date that the consumer enters into another extended payment plan with the post-dated check casher.

(b) To request an extended payment plan, the consumer, before 5:00 p.m. Mountain Time on the last business day before the due date of the outstanding post-dated check or similar arrangement, shall request the plan and sign an amendment to the original agreement which memorializes the plan's terms.

(c) The extended payment plan's terms shall allow the consumer to repay the outstanding post-dated check or similar arrangement including any fee due in at least four (4) substantially equal installments and over a time period of at least sixty (60) days. Each plan installment shall be due on or after a date on which the consumer receives regular income, or if the consumer has no regular income due dates shall be a minimum of two (2) weeks between installments. The consumer may prepay an extended payment plan in full at any time without penalty. As long as the consumer complies with the terms of the extended payment plan, the plan shall be at no additional cost to the consumer and the post-dated check casher shall not charge the consumer any interest or additional fees during the term of the extended payment plan. The post-dated check casher may, with each payment under the plan by a consumer, provide for the return of the consumer's prior held check and require a new check for the remaining balance under the plan.

(d) If the consumer fails to pay any extended payment plan installment when due, the consumer shall be in default of the payment plan and the post-dated check casher immediately may accelerate payment on the remaining balance and take action to collect all amounts due. Upon default, notwithstanding W.S. 40-14-363(a), the post-dated check casher may charge the consumer interest on the outstanding balance at an annual rate equal to six percent (6%) plus the prime rate as listed in the Wall Street Journal on January 1 of the year in which the consumer defaults.

40-14-367. Notification.

(a) A post-dated check casher shall provide the following written notice with each post-dated check or similar arrangement and obtain the signature of the consumer at least annually indicating receipt of the notice:

NOTICE

1. STATE LAW PROHIBITS A POST-DATED CHECK OR SIMILAR ARRANGEMENT FROM BEING REPAID, REFINANCED OR OTHERWISE CONSOLIDATED BY PROCEEDS OF ANOTHER POST-DATED CHECK OR SIMILAR ARRANGEMENT ACCEPTED BY THE SAME POST-DATED CHECK CASHER.

2. POST-DATED CHECK ADVANCES SHOULD BE USED FOR SHORT-TERM FINANCIAL NEEDS ONLY, NOT AS A LONG-TERM FINANCIAL SOLUTION. CUSTOMERS WITH CREDIT DIFFICULTIES SHOULD SEEK CREDIT COUNSELING.

40-14-368. Violations.

The administrator is authorized to enforce an appropriate remedy, penalty, action or license revocation or suspension, as provided in articles 5 and 6 of this chapter, against a person licensed under the act for a violation of 10 U.S.C. § 987, or any regulation promulgated thereunder.

ARTICLE 4 - INSURANCE

Part 1.
In General

40-14-401. Short title.

This article shall be known and may be cited as "Uniform Consumer Credit Code-Insurance."

40-14-402. Scope.

(a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (d) of this section, this article applies to insurance provided or to be provided in relation to a consumer credit sale (W.S. 40-14-204), a consumer lease (W.S. 40-14-206) or a consumer loan (W.S. 40-14-304).

(b) The provision on cancellation by a creditor (W.S. 40-14-453) applies to loans the primary purpose of which is the financing of insurance. No other provision of this article applies to insurance so financed.

(c) This article supplements and does not repeal W.S. 26-21-101 through 26-22-101. The provisions of this act concerning administrative controls, liabilities, and penalties do not apply to persons acting as insurers, and the similar provisions of W.S. 26-21-101 through 26-21-114 and 26-23-201 do not apply to creditors and debtors.

(d) W.S. 40-14-454 applies to insurance and other products that provide protection to a consumer and that terminate upon prepayment, default or other circumstances that end an agreement, including guaranteed asset protection waivers and debt cancellation contracts.

40-14-403. Definitions.

(a) In this act:

(i) "Consumer credit insurance" means insurance, other than insurance on property, by which the satisfaction of debt in whole or in part is a benefit provided, but does not include:

(A) Insurance provided in relation to a credit transaction in which a payment is scheduled more than ten (10) years after the extension of credit;

(B) Insurance issued as an isolated transaction on the part of the insurer not related to an agreement or plan for insuring debtors of the creditor; or

(C) Insurance indemnifying the creditor against loss due to the debtor's default.

(ii) "Credit Insurance Act" means W.S. 26-21-101 through 26-21-114 and 26-23-201.

40-14-404. Creditor's provision of and charge for insurance; excess amount of charge.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this article and subject to the provisions on additional charges (W.S. 40-14-213 and 40-14-311) and maximum charges (part 2 of article 2 and article 3), a creditor may agree to provide insurance, and may contract for and receive a charge for insurance separate from and in addition to other charges. A creditor need not make a separate charge for insurance provided or required by him. This act does not authorize the issuance of any insurance prohibited under any statute, or rule thereunder, governing the business of insurance.

(b) The excess amount of a charge for insurance provided for in agreements in violation of this article is an excess charge for the purposes of the provisions of the article on remedies and penalties (article 5) as to effect of violations on rights of parties (W.S. 40-14-521) and of the provisions of the article on administration (article 6) as to civil actions by the administrator (W.S. 40-14-613).

40-14-405. Conditions applying to insurance to be provided by creditor.

(a) If a creditor agrees with a debtor to provide insurance:

(i) The insurance shall be evidenced by an individual policy or certificate of insurance delivered to the debtor, or sent to him at his address as stated by him, within thirty (30) days after the term of the insurance commences under the agreement between the creditor and debtor; or

(ii) The creditor shall promptly notify the debtor of any failure or delay in providing the insurance.

40-14-406. Unconscionability.

(a) In applying the provisions of this act on unconscionability (W.S. 40-14-508 and 40-14-611) to a separate charge for insurance, consideration shall be given, among other factors, to:

(i) Potential benefits to the debtor including the satisfaction of his obligations;

(ii) The creditor's need for the protection provided by the insurance; and

(iii) The relation between the amount and terms of credit granted and the insurance benefits provided.

(b) If consumer credit insurance otherwise complies with this article and other applicable law, neither the amount nor the term of the insurance nor the amount of a charge therefor is in itself unconscionable.

40-14-407. Maximum charge by creditor for insurance.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, if a creditor contracts for or receives a separate charge for insurance, the amount charged to the debtor for the insurance may not exceed the premium to be charged by the insurer, as computed at the time the charge to the debtor is determined, conforming to any rate filings required by law and made by the insurer with the commissioner of insurance.

(b) A creditor who provides consumer credit insurance in relation to a revolving charge account (W.S. 40-14-208) or revolving loan account (W.S. 40-14-308) may calculate the charge to the debtor in each billing cycle by applying the current premium rate to:

(i) The average daily unpaid balance of the debt in the cycle;

(ii) The unpaid balance of the debt or a median amount within a specified range of unpaid balances of debt on approximately the same day of the cycle. The day of the cycle need not be the day used in calculating the credit service charge (W.S. 40-14-218) or loan finance charge (W.S. 40-14-310), but the specified range shall be the range used for that purpose; or

(iii) The unpaid balances of principal calculated according to the actuarial method.

40-14-408. Refund or credit required; amount.

(a) Upon prepayment in full of a consumer credit sale or consumer loan by the proceeds of consumer credit insurance, the debtor or his estate is entitled to a refund of any portion of a separate charge for insurance which by reason of prepayment is retained by the creditor or returned to him by the insurer unless the charge was computed from time to time on the basis of the balances of the debtor's account.

(b) This article does not require a creditor to grant a refund or credit to the debtor if all refunds and credits due to the debtor under this article amount to less than one dollar ($1.00), and except as provided in subsection (a) of this section does not require the creditor to account to the debtor for any portion of a separate charge for insurance because:

(i) The insurance is terminated by performance of the insurer's obligation;

(ii) The creditor pays or accounts for premiums to the insurer in amounts and at times determined by the agreement between them; or

(iii) The creditor receives directly or indirectly under any policy of insurance a gain or advantage not prohibited by law.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the creditor shall promptly make or cause to be made an appropriate refund or credit to the debtor with respect to any separate charge made to him for insurance if:

(i) The insurance is not provided or is provided for a shorter term than that for which the charge to the debtor for insurance was computed; or

(ii) The insurance terminates prior to the end of the term for which it was written because of prepayment in full or otherwise.

(d) A refund or credit required by subsection (c) of this section is appropriate as to amount if it is computed according to a method prescribed or approved by the commissioner of insurance or a formula filed by the insurer with the commissioner of insurance at least thirty (30) days before the debtor's right to a refund or credit becomes determinable, unless the method or formula is employed after the commissioner of insurance notifies the insurer that he disapproves it.

40-14-409. Existing insurance; choice of insurer.

If a creditor requires insurance, upon notice to the creditor the debtor shall have the option of providing the required insurance through an existing policy of insurance owned or controlled by the debtor, or through a policy to be obtained and paid for by the debtor, but the creditor may for reasonable cause decline the insurance provided by the debtor. The creditor shall promptly notify the debtor of his rights under this section.

40-14-410. Charge for insurance in connection with a deferral, refinancing, or consolidation; duplicate charges.

(a) A creditor may not contract for or receive a separate charge for insurance in connection with a deferral (W.S. 40-14-215 or 40-14-313), a refinancing (W.S. 40-14-216 or 40-14-314), or a consolidation (W.S. 40-14-217 or 40-14-315), unless:

(i) The debtor agrees at or before the time of the deferral, refinancing, or consolidation that the charge may be made;

(ii) The debtor is or is to be provided with insurance for an amount or a term, or insurance of a kind, in addition to that to which he would have been entitled had there been no deferral, refinancing, or consolidation;

(iii) The debtor receives a refund or credit on account of any unexpired term of existing insurance in the amount that would be required if the insurance were terminated (W.S. 40-14-408); and

(iv) The charge does not exceed the amount permitted by this article (W.S. 40-14-407).

(b) A creditor may not contract for or receive a separate charge for insurance which duplicates insurance with respect to which the creditor has previously contracted for or received a separate charge.

40-14-411. Cooperation between administrator and commissioner of insurance.

The administrator and the commissioner of insurance are authorized and directed to consult and assist one another in maintaining compliance with this article. They may jointly pursue investigations, prosecute suits, and take other official action, as may seem to them appropriate, if either of them is otherwise empowered to take the action. If the administrator is informed of a violation or suspected violation by an insurer of this article, or of the insurance laws, rules, and regulations of this state, he shall advise the commissioner of insurance of the circumstances.

40-14-412. Administrative action of commissioner of insurance.

The Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act applies to and governs all administrative action taken by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to this section.

Part 2.
Consumer Credit Insurance

40-14-430. Term of insurance.

(a) Consumer credit insurance provided by a creditor may be subject to the furnishing of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer. Whether or not such evidence is required, the term of the insurance shall commence no later than when the debtor becomes obligated to the creditor or when the debtor applies for the insurance, whichever is later, except as follows:

(i) If any required evidence of insurability is not furnished until more than thirty (30) days after the term would otherwise commence, the term may commence on the date when the insurer determines the evidence to be satisfactory; or

(ii) If the creditor provides insurance not previously provided covering debts previously created, the term may commence on the effective date of the policy.

(b) The originally scheduled term of the insurance shall extend at least until the due date of the last scheduled payment of the debt except as follows:

(i) If the insurance relates to a revolving charge account or revolving loan account, the term need extend only until the payment of the debt under the account and may be sooner terminated after at least thirty (30) days notice to the debtor; or

(ii) If the debtor is advised in writing that the insurance will be written for a specified shorter time, the term need extend only until the end of the specified time.

(c) The term of the insurance shall not extend more than fifteen (15) days after the originally scheduled due date of the last scheduled payment of the debt unless it is extended without additional cost to the debtor or as an incident to a deferral, refinancing, or consolidation.

40-14-431. Amount of insurance.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section:

(i) In the case of consumer credit insurance providing life coverage, the amount of insurance may not initially exceed the debt and, if the debt is payable in installments, may not at any time exceed the greater of the scheduled or actual amount of the debt; or

(ii) In the case of any other consumer credit insurance, the total amount of periodic benefits payable may not exceed the total of scheduled unpaid installments of the debt, and the amount of any periodic benefit may not exceed the original amount of debt divided by the number of periodic installments in which it is payable.

(b) If consumer credit insurance is provided in connection with a revolving charge account or revolving loan account, the amounts payable as insurance benefits may be reasonably commensurate with the amount of debt as it exists from time to time. If consumer credit insurance is provided in connection with a commitment to grant credit in the future, the amounts payable as insurance benefits may be reasonably commensurate with the total from time to time of the amount of debt and the amount of the commitment.

40-14-432. Filing and approval of rates and forms.

(a) A creditor may not use a form or a schedule of premium rates or charges, the filing of which is required by this section, if the commissioner of insurance has disapproved the form or schedule and has notified the insurer of his disapproval. A creditor may not use a form or schedule unless:

(i) The form or schedule has been on file with the commissioner of insurance for thirty (30) days, or has earlier been approved by him; and

(ii) The insurer has complied with this section with respect to the insurance.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, all policies, certificates of insurance, notices of proposed insurance, applications for insurance, endorsements and riders relating to consumer credit insurance delivered or issued for delivery in this state, and the schedules of premium rates or charges pertaining thereto, shall be filed by the insurer with the commissioner of insurance. Within thirty (30) days after the filing of any form or schedule, he shall disapprove it if the premium rates or charges are unreasonable in relation to the benefits provided under the form, or if the form contains provisions which are unjust, unfair, inequitable, or deceptive, or encourage misrepresentation of the coverage, or are contrary to any provision of the Insurance Code or of any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder.

(c) If a group policy has been delivered in another state, the forms to be filed by the insurer with the commissioner of insurance are the group certificates and notices of proposed insurance. He shall approve them if:

(i) They provide the information that would be required if the group policy were delivered in this state; and

(ii) The applicable premium rates or charges do not exceed those established by his rules or regulations.

Part 3.
Property and Liability Insurance

40-14-450. Property insurance.

(a) A creditor may not contract for or receive a separate charge for insurance against loss of or damage to property unless:

(i) The insurance covers a substantial risk of loss of or damage to property related to the credit transaction;

(ii) The amount, terms, and conditions of the insurance are reasonable in relation to the character and value of the property insured or to be insured; and

(iii) The term of the insurance is reasonable in relation to the terms of credit.

(b) The term of the insurance is reasonable if it is customary and does not extend substantially beyond a scheduled maturity.

(c) A creditor may not contract for or receive a separate charge for insurance against loss of or damage to property unless the amount financed or principal exclusive of changes for the insurance is three hundred dollars ($300.00) or more, and the value of the property is three hundred dollars ($300.00) or more.

40-14-451. Risk of loss or damage.

If a creditor contracts for or receives a separate charge for insurance against loss of or damage to property, the risk of loss or damage not willfully caused by the debtor is on the debtor only to the extent of any deficiency in the effective coverage of the insurance, even though the insurance covers only the interest of the creditor.

40-14-452. Liability insurance.

A creditor may not contract for or receive a separate charge for insurance against liability unless the insurance covers a substantial risk of liability arising out of the ownership or use of property related to the credit transaction.

40-14-453. Cancellation by creditor.

A creditor shall not request cancellation of a policy of property or liability insurance except after the debtor's default or in accordance with a written authorization by the debtor, and in either case the cancellation does not take effect until written notice is delivered to the debtor or mailed to him at his address as stated by him. The notice shall state that the policy may be cancelled on a date not less than ten (10) days after the notice is delivered, or, if the notice is mailed, not less than thirteen (13) days after it is mailed.

Part 4.

Refund of Certain Credit Insurance Products

40-14-454. Refund of certain credit insurance products upon prepayment; method.

(a) Not later than sixty (60) days after termination of a consumer credit sale or consumer loan, a creditor shall facilitate any refund or credit otherwise required by law for insurance or other loan products that provide protection to a consumer and cease when termination of the credit transaction occurs, including guaranteed asset protection waivers and debt cancellation contracts. The duty to facilitate a refund or credit under this subsection shall also apply to voluntary cancellation of insurance or other products by a consumer. As used in this subsection:

(i) "Creditor" means the person to whom payment is due at the time of termination;

(ii) "Termination" includes prepayment, default or other circumstances that end an agreement.

(b) Unless otherwise provided by law, any required refund or credit made under subsection (a) of this section shall be calculated on a pro rata basis or on an alternative basis that reflects the remaining risk if authorized and defined by rule of the administrator.

ARTICLE 5 - REMEDIES AND PENALTIES

Part 1.

Limitations on Creditors' Remedies

40-14-501. Short title.

This article shall be known and may be cited as "Uniform Consumer Credit Code-Remedies and Penalties."

40-14-502. Scope.

This part applies to actions or other proceedings to enforce rights arising from consumer credit sales, consumer leases, and consumer loans; and, in addition, to extortionate extensions of credit (W.S. 40-14-507).

40-14-503. Restrictions on deficiency judgments in consumer credit sales.

(a) This section applies to a consumer credit sale of goods or services.

(b) If the seller repossesses or voluntarily accepts surrender of goods which were the subject of the sale and in which he has a security interest and the cash price of the goods repossessed or surrendered was one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or less, the buyer is not personally liable to the seller for the unpaid balance of the debt arising from the sale of the goods, and the seller is not obligated to resell the collateral.

(c) If the seller repossesses or voluntarily accepts surrender of goods which were not the subject of the sale but in which he has a security interest to secure a debt arising from a sale of goods or services or a combined sale of goods and services and the cash price of the sale was one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or less, the buyer is not personally liable to the seller for the unpaid balance of the debt arising from the sale.

(d) For the purpose of determining the unpaid balance of consolidated debts or debts pursuant to revolving charge accounts, the allocation of payments to a debt shall be determined in the same manner as provided for determining the amount of debt secured by various security interests (W.S. 40-14-243).

(e) The buyer may be liable in damages to the seller if the buyer has wrongfully damaged the collateral or if, after default and demand, the buyer has wrongfully failed to make the collateral available to the seller.

(f) If the seller elects to bring an action against the buyer for a debt arising from a consumer credit sale of goods or services, when under this section he would not be entitled to a deficiency judgment if he repossessed the collateral, and obtains judgment:

(i) He may not repossess the collateral; and

(ii) The collateral is not subject to levy or sale on execution or similar proceedings pursuant to the judgment.

40-14-504. No garnishment before judgment.

Prior to entry of judgment in an action against the debtor for debt arising from a consumer credit sale, a consumer lease, or a consumer loan, the creditor may not attach unpaid earnings of the debtor by garnishment or like proceedings.

40-14-505. Limitation on garnishment.

(a) For the purposes of this part:

(i) "Disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld; and

(ii) "Garnishment" means any legal or equitable procedure through which the earnings of an individual are required to be withheld for payment of a debt.

(b) The maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of an individual for any workweek which is subjected to garnishment to enforce payment of a judgment arising from a consumer credit sale, consumer lease, or consumer loan may not exceed the lesser of:

(i) Twenty-five percent (25%) of his disposable earnings for that week; or

(ii) The amount by which his disposable earnings for that week exceed thirty (30) times the federal minimum hourly wage prescribed by section (6) (a) (1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, U.S.C. tit. 29, § 206(a) (1), in effect at the time the earnings are payable;

(iii) In the case of earnings for a pay period other than a week, the administrator shall prescribe by rule a multiple of the federal minimum hourly wage equivalent in effect to that set forth in paragraph (b) (ii) of this section.

(c) No court may make, execute, or enforce an order or process in violation of this section.

(d) An individual's disposable earnings shall remain exempt to the extent provided in subsection (b) of this section if the earnings were deposited in the individual's account with a financial institution within twenty (20) calendar days prior to service of a writ of garnishment against the individual's account with the financial institution, on the day of service of the writ or within ten (10) business days after service of the writ. This subsection does not create any obligation on the part of a financial institution to conduct an investigation of the individual's account or otherwise make any determination about a judgment creditor's rights to funds in the account other than the financial institution's obligation to file with the court and serve on the individual an answer to the writ of garnishment. A judgment creditor may request that the court issue writs of garnishment to an individual's employer and the individual's financial institution at the same time; provided, however, that should the judgment creditor successfully garnish earnings as shown on an individual's pay advice, then the remaining proceeds from such pay advice deposited into an account with a financial institution shall be entirely exempt from execution, notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section.

(e) As used in this section, "financial institution" means as defined in W.S. 13-1-401(a) (ii).

40-14-506. No discharge from employment for garnishment.

No employer shall discharge an employee for the reason that a creditor of the employee has subjected or attempted to subject unpaid earnings of the employee to garnishment or like proceedings directed to the employer for the purpose of paying a judgment arising from a consumer credit sale, consumer lease, or consumer loan.

40-14-507. Extortionate extensions of credit.

(a) If it is the understanding of the creditor and the debtor at the time an extension of credit is made that delay in making repayment or failure to make repayment could result in the use of violence or other criminal means to cause harm to the person, reputation, or property of any person, the repayment of the extension of credit is unenforceable through civil judicial processes against the debtor.

(b) If it is shown that an extension of credit was made at an annual rate exceeding forty-five percent (45%) calculated according to the actuarial method and that the creditor then had a reputation for the use or threat of use of violence or other criminal means to cause harm to the person, reputation, or property of any person to collect extensions of credit or to punish the nonrepayment thereof, there is prima facie evidence that the extension of credit was unenforceable under subsection (a) of this section.

40-14-508. Unconscionability.

(a) With respect to a consumer credit sale, consumer lease, or consumer loan, if the court as a matter of law finds the agreement or any clause of the agreement to have been unconscionable at the time it was made the court may refuse to enforce the agreement, or it may enforce the remainder of the agreement without the unconscionable clause, or it may so limit the application of any unconscionable clause as to avoid any unconscionable result.

(b) If it is claimed or appears to the court that the agreement or any clause thereof may be unconscionable the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to its setting, purpose, and effect to aid the court in making the determination.

(c) For the purpose of this section, a charge or practice expressly permitted by this act is not in itself unconscionable.

Part 2.
Debtors' Remedies

40-14-520. Interests in land.

(a) For purposes of the provisions of this part on civil liability for violation of disclosure provisions (W.S. 40-14-522) and on a debtor's right to rescind certain transactions as otherwise provided by law:

(i) Consumer credit sale includes a sale of an interest in land without regard to the rate of the credit service charge if the sale is otherwise a consumer credit sale (W.S. 40-14-204); and

(ii) Consumer loan includes a loan primarily secured by an interest in land, as defined in W.S. 40-14-304(c).

40-14-521. Effect of violations on rights of parties.

(a) If a creditor has violated the provisions of this act applying to certain negotiable instruments (W.S. 40-14-237), the debtor is not obligated to pay the credit service charge or loan finance charge, and has a right to recover from the person violating this act or from an assignee of that person's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments or enforcement of rights arising from the debt a penalty in an amount determined by the court not in excess of three (3) times the amount of the credit service charge or loan finance charge. No action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one (1) year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement with respect to which the violation occurred.

(b) If a creditor has violated the provisions of this act applying to licensure to make consumer loans (W.S. 40-14-302), the loan is void and the debtor is not obligated to pay either the principal or loan finance charge. If he has paid any part of the principal or of the loan finance charge, he has a right to recover the payment from the person violating this act or from an assignee of that person's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments or enforcement of rights arising from the debt. With respect to violations arising from other loans, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one

(1) year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement pursuant to which the charge was paid.

(c) A debtor is not obligated to pay a charge in excess of that allowed by this act, and if he has paid an excess charge he has a right to a refund. A refund may be made by reducing the debtor's obligation by the amount of the excess charge. If the debtor has paid an amount in excess of the lawful obligation under the agreement, the debtor may recover the excess amount from the person who made the excess charge or from an assignee of that person's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against debtors arising from the debt.

(d) If a debtor is entitled to a refund and a person liable to the debtor refuses to make a refund within a reasonable time after demand, the debtor may recover from that person a penalty in an amount determined by a court not exceeding the greater of either the amount of the credit service or loan finance charge or ten (10) times the amount of the excess charge. If the creditor has made an excess charge in deliberate violation of or in reckless disregard for this act, the penalty may be recovered even though the creditor has refunded the excess charge. No penalty pursuant to this subsection may be recovered if a court has ordered a similar penalty assessed against the same person in a civil action by the administrator (W.S. 40-14-613). With respect to excess charges arising from sales made pursuant to revolving charge accounts or from loans made pursuant to revolving loan accounts, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than two (2) years after the time the excess charge was made. With respect to excess charges arising from other consumer credit sales or consumer loans, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one (1) year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement pursuant to which the charge was made.

(e) Except as otherwise provided, no violation of this act impairs rights on a debt.

(f) If an employer discharges an employee in violation of the provisions prohibiting discharge (W.S. 40-14-506), the employee may within forty-five (45) days bring a civil action for recovery of wages lost as a result of the violation and for an order requiring the reinstatement of the employee. Damages recoverable shall not exceed lost wages for six (6) weeks.

(g) If the creditor establishes by a preponderance of evidence that a violation is unintentional or the result of a bona fide error, no liability is imposed under subsections (a), (b) and (d) of this section and the validity of the transaction is not affected.

(h) In any case in which it is found that a creditor has violated this act, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the debtor.

40-14-522. Civil liability for violation of disclosure provisions.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a creditor who, in violation of the laws relating to disclosure, other than the provisions on advertising (sections 2-313 and 3-312 [Repealed]), of the article on credit sales (article 2) and the article on loans (article 3), fails to disclose information to a person entitled to the information under this act is liable to that person in an amount equal to the sum of:

(i) Twice the amount of the credit service or loan finance charge in connection with the transaction, but the liability pursuant to this paragraph shall be not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00); and

(ii) In the case of a successful action to enforce the liability under paragraph (a)(i) of this section, the costs of the action together with reasonable attorney's fees as determined by the court.

(b) A creditor has no liability under this section if within fifteen (15) days after discovering an error, and prior to the institution of an action under this section or the receipt of written notice of the error, the creditor notifies the person concerned of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the appropriate account are necessary to assure that the person will not be required to pay a credit service charge or loan finance charge in excess of the amount or percentage rate actually disclosed.

(c) A creditor may not be held liable in any action brought under this section for a violation of this act if the creditor shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error.

(d) Any action, which may be brought under this section against the original creditor in any credit transaction which does not involve a security interest in land, may be maintained against any subsequent assignee of the original creditor where the violation from which the alleged liability arose is apparent on the face of the instrument assigned unless the assignment is involuntary.

(e) Any action which may be brought under this section against the original creditor in any credit transaction involving a security interest in land may be maintained against any subsequent assignee of the original creditor where the assignee, its subsidiaries, or affiliates were in a continuing business relationship with the original creditor either at the time the credit was extended or at the time of the assignment, unless the assignment was involuntary, or the assignee shows by a preponderance of evidence that it did not have reasonable grounds to believe that the original creditor was engaged in violations of W.S. 40-14-101 through 40-14-649 and that it maintained procedures reasonably adapted to apprise it of the existence of the violations.

(f) No action pursuant to this section may be brought more than one (1) year after the date of the occurrence of the violation.

(g) Repealed by Laws 1988, ch. 49, § 2.

40-14-523. Repealed By Laws 2013, Ch. 124, § 3.

40-14-524. Refunds and penalties as setoff to obligation.

Refunds or penalties to which the debtor is entitled pursuant to this part may be set off against the debtor's obligation, and may be raised as a defense to a suit on the obligation without regard to the time limitations prescribed by this part.

Part 3.
Criminal Penalties

40-14-540. Willful violations.

(a) A person who makes a consumer loan and who willfully makes charges in excess of those permitted by the provisions of the article on loans (article 3) is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction may be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), or to imprisonment not exceeding six (6) months, or both.

(b) A person, other than a supervised financial organization, who willfully engages in the business of making consumer loans without a license in violation of W.S. 40-14-302 is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction may be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), or to imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year, or both.

(c) A person who willfully engages in the business of making consumer credit sales, consumer leases, or consumer loans, or of taking assignments of rights against debtors arising therefrom and undertakes direct collection of payments or enforcement of these rights, without complying with the provisions of this act concerning notification (W.S. 40-14-631) or payment of fees (W.S. 40-14-632), is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction may be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

40-14-541. Disclosure violations.

(a) A person is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction may be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), or to imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year, or both, if he willfully and knowingly:

(i) Gives false or inaccurate information or fails to provide information which he is required to disclose under the provisions of this act on disclosure and advertising (part 3) of the article on credit sales (article 2) or of the article on loans (article 3), or of any related rule of the administrator adopted pursuant to this act;

(ii) Uses any rate table or chart, the use of which is authorized by rule of the administrator adopted pursuant to the provisions on calculation of rate to be disclosed (W.S. 40-14-225 and 40-14-323), in a manner which consistently understates the annual percentage rate determined according to those provisions; or

(iii) Otherwise fails to comply with any requirement of provisions of this act on disclosure and advertising (part 3) of the article on credit sales (article 2) or of the article on loans (article 3), or of any related rule of the administrator adopted pursuant to this act.

ARTICLE 6 - ADMINISTRATION

Part 1.

Powers and Functions of Administrator

40-14-601. Short title.

This article shall be known and may be cited as "Uniform Consumer Credit Code-Administration."

40-14-602. Applicability.

(a) This part applies to persons who in this state:

(i) Make or solicit consumer credit sales, consumer leases or consumer loans; or

(ii) Directly collect payments from or enforce rights against debtors arising from sales, leases, or loans specified in paragraph (i) of this subsection, wherever they are made.

40-14-603. Administrator.

"Administrator" means the state banking commissioner of the state of Wyoming.

40-14-604. Powers of administrator; harmony with federal regulations; reliance on rules; duty to report and cooperate.

(a) In addition to other powers granted by this act, the administrator within the limitations provided by law may:

(i) Receive and act on complaints, take action designed to obtain voluntary compliance with this act, or commence proceedings on his own initiative;

(ii) Counsel persons and groups on their rights and duties under this act;

(iii) Establish programs for the education of consumers with respect to credit practices and problems;

(iv) Make studies appropriate to effectuate the purposes and policies of this act and make the results available to the public;

(v) Adopt, amend, and repeal substantive rules when specifically authorized by this act, and adopt, amend, and repeal procedural rules to carry out the provisions of this act;

(vi) Appoint any necessary hearing examiners, clerks, and other employees and agents and fix their compensation, and request the attorney general to appoint attorneys necessary to represent the administrator in the enforcement of this act;

(vii) Require a licensee under this act or an applicant for a license issued under this act to submit to a background investigation including fingerprint checks for state, national and international criminal history record checks as necessary. While exercising his authority under this paragraph, the administrator may utilize background checks completed by the division of criminal investigation, other government agencies in this state or in other states, the federal bureau of investigation, the registry or another entity designated by the registry;

(viii) Determine the content of application forms and the means by which an applicant applies for, renews or amends a license under this act. The administrator may allow applicants to utilize the registry or an entity designated by the registry for the processing of applications and fees.

(b) The administrator may adopt rules not inconsistent with the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act to assure a meaningful disclosure of credit terms so that a prospective debtor will be able to compare more readily the various credit terms available to him and to avoid the uninformed use of credit. These rules may contain classifications, differentiations or other provisions, and may provide for adjustments and exceptions for any class of transactions subject to this act which in the judgment of the administrator are necessary or proper to effectuate the purposes or to prevent circumvention or evasion of, or to facilitate compliance with, the provisions of this act relating to disclosure of credit terms.

(c) To keep the administrator's rules in harmony with the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act and with the rules of administrators in other jurisdictions which enact the Uniform

Consumer Credit Code, the administrator, so far as is consistent with the purposes, policies and provisions of this act, may:

(i) Before adopting, amending, and repealing rules, advise and consult with administrators in other jurisdictions which enact the Uniform Consumer Credit Code; and

(ii) In adopting, amending, and repealing rules, take into consideration:

(A) The regulations so prescribed by the consumer financial protection bureau; and

(B) The rules of administrators in other jurisdictions which enact the Uniform Consumer Credit Code.

(d) Except for return of an excess charge, no liability is imposed under this act for an act done or omitted in conformity with a rule of the administrator notwithstanding that after the act or omission the rule may be amended or repealed or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

(e) The administrator shall, as required by W.S. 9-2-1014, report to the governor on the operation of his office, on the use of consumer credit in the state, and on the problems of persons of small means obtaining credit from persons regularly engaged in extending sales or loan credit. For the purpose of making the report, the administrator is authorized to conduct research and make appropriate studies. The report shall include a description of the examination and investigation procedures and policies of his office, a statement of policies followed in deciding whether to investigate or examine the offices of credit suppliers subject to this act, a statement of the number and percentages of offices which are periodically investigated or examined, a statement of the types of consumer credit problems of both creditors and debtors which have come to his attention through his examinations and investigations and the disposition of them under existing law and a general statement of the activities of his office and of others to promote the purposes of this act. The report shall not identify the creditors against whom action is taken by the administrator.

(f) Any person refusing or obstructing access to the administrator or representatives designated by the administrator to any accounts, books, records or papers, refusing to furnish any required information, or hindering a full examination or investigation of the accounts, books, records or papers, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00), imprisonment for a period of not more than six (6) months, or both.

(g) Any person who wrongfully fails or refuses to comply with an order of the administrator as may be provided for under this act is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) per day for each day the order is not complied with.

(h) Any person failing to submit reports to the administrator as may be required under this act is subject to a civil penalty of not more than ten dollars ($10.00) per day for each day the reports are delayed beyond the stated time the reports are required to be submitted.

(j) Reports required of persons by the administrator under this act and materials relating to examinations and investigations of persons subject to this act shall be subject to the provisions of W.S. 16-4-203(d)(v) and 9-1-512, as applicable.

40-14-605. Administrative powers with respect to supervised financial organizations.

(a) With respect to supervised financial organizations, the powers of examination and investigation (W.S. 40-14-606) and administrative enforcement (W.S. 40-14-608) shall be exercised by the official or agency to whose supervision the organization is subject. All other powers of the administrator under this act may be exercised by him with respect to a supervised financial organization.

(b) If the administrator receives a complaint or other information concerning noncompliance with this act by a supervised financial organization, he shall inform the official or agency having supervisory authority over the organization concerned. The administrator may request information about supervised financial organizations from the officials or agencies supervising them.

(c) The administrator and any official or agency of this state having supervisory authority over a supervised financial organization are authorized and directed to consult and assist one another in maintaining compliance with this act. They may jointly pursue investigations, prosecute suits, and take other official action, as they deem appropriate, if either of them otherwise is empowered to take the action.

40-14-606. Examination and investigatory powers.

(a) The administrator may conduct examinations of persons licensed under this act at intervals he deems necessary to determine whether violations of this act and other applicable laws, rules and regulations pertaining to consumer credit are occurring and the frequency and seriousness of such violations.

(b) In addition to the examinations provided for in subsection (a) of this section, if the administrator has probable cause to believe that a person has engaged in an act which is subject to action by the administrator, he may make an investigation to determine if the act has been committed, and, to the extent necessary for this purpose, may administer oaths or affirmations, and, upon his own motion or upon request of any party, may subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, adduce evidence, and require the production of any matter which is relevant to the investigation, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts, or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(c) If the person's records are located outside this state, the person at his option shall either make them available at a location within this state convenient to the administrator or pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the administrator or his representative to examine them at the place where they are maintained. For the purpose of this section, the administrator shall have free and reasonable access during normal business hours to the offices, place of business and records of the person being examined or investigated. The administrator may designate representatives, including comparable officials of the state in which the records are located, to inspect them on his behalf.

(d) Upon failure without lawful excuse to obey a subpoena or to give testimony and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the administrator may apply to the district court for an order compelling compliance.

(e) The administrator shall not make public the name or identity of a person whose acts or conduct he investigates pursuant to this section or the facts disclosed in the investigation, but this subsection does not apply to disclosures in actions or enforcement proceedings pursuant to this act.

(f) Each licensee or person subject to examination or investigation under this act shall pay to the administrator an amount assessed by the administrator to cover the direct and indirect cost of examinations or investigations conducted pursuant to this section.

40-14-607. Applicability of Administrative Procedure Act.

Except as otherwise provided, the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act applies to and governs all administrative action taken by the administrator pursuant to this act.

40-14-608. Administrative enforcement orders.

(a) After notice and hearing the administrator may order a creditor or a person acting in his behalf to cease and desist from engaging in violations of this act. A respondent aggrieved by an order of the administrator may obtain judicial review of the order and the administrator may obtain an order of the court for enforcement of its order in the district court. The proceeding for review or enforcement is initiated by filing a petition in the court. Copies of the petition shall be served upon all parties of record.

(b) Within thirty (30) days after service of the petition for review upon the administrator, or within any further time the court may allow, the administrator shall transmit to the court the original or a certified copy of the entire record upon which the order is based, including any transcript of testimony, which need not be printed. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. After hearing, the court may:

(i) Reverse or modify the order if the findings of fact of the administrator are clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole record;

(ii) Grant any temporary relief or restraining order it deems just; and

(iii) Enter an order enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the administrator, or remanding the case to the administrator for further proceedings.

(c) An objection not urged at the hearing shall not be considered by the court unless the failure to urge the objection is excused for good cause shown. A party may move the court to remand the case to the administrator in the interest of justice for the purpose of adducing additional specified and material evidence and seeking findings thereon upon good cause shown for the failure to adduce this evidence before the administrator.

(d) The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its final judgment or decree shall be subject to review by the supreme court as provided by the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of the Supreme Court [by the Wyoming Rules of Appellate Procedure]. The administrator's copy of the testimony shall be available at reasonable times to all parties for examination without cost.

(e) A proceeding for review under this section must be initiated within thirty (30) days after a copy of the order of the administrator is received by the creditor or person acting on his behalf. If no proceeding is so initiated, the administrator may obtain a decree of the district court for enforcement of its order upon a showing that the order was issued in compliance with this section, that no proceeding for review was initiated within thirty (30) days after copy of the order was received, and that the respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of the court.

(f) With respect to unconscionable agreements or fraudulent or unconscionable conduct by the respondent, the administrator may not issue an order pursuant to this section but may bring a civil action for an injunction (W.S. 40-14-611).

40-14-609. Assurance of discontinuance.

If it is claimed that a person has engaged in conduct subject to an order by the administrator (W.S. 40-14-608) or by a court (W.S. 40-14-610 through 40-14-612), the administrator may accept an assurance in writing that the person will not engage in the conduct in the future. If a person giving an assurance of discontinuance fails to comply with its terms, the assurance is evidence that prior to the assurance he engaged in the conduct described in the assurance.

40-14-610. Injunctions against violations.

The administrator may bring a civil action to restrain a person from violating this act and for other appropriate relief.

40-14-611. Injunctions against unconscionable agreements and fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

(a) The administrator may bring a civil action to restrain a creditor or a person acting in his behalf from engaging in a course of:

(i) Making or enforcing unconscionable terms or provisions of consumer credit sales, consumer leases, or consumer loans;

(ii) Fraudulent or unconscionable conduct in inducing debtors to enter into consumer credit sales, consumer leases, or consumer loans; or

(iii) Fraudulent or unconscionable conduct in the collection of debts arising from consumer credit sales, consumer leases, or consumer loans.

(b) In an action brought pursuant to this section the court may grant relief only if it finds:

(i) That the respondent has made unconscionable agreements or has engaged or is likely to engage in a course of fraudulent or unconscionable conduct;

(ii) That the agreements or conduct of the respondent has caused or is likely to cause injury to consumers; and

(iii) That the respondent has been able to cause or will be able to cause the injury primarily because the transactions involved are credit transactions.

(c) In applying this section, consideration shall be given to each of the following factors, among others:

(i) Belief by the creditor at the time consumer credit sales, consumer leases, or consumer loans are made that there was no reasonable probability of payment in full of the obligation by the debtor;

(ii) In the case of consumer credit sales or consumer leases, knowledge by the seller or lessor at the time of the sale or lease of the inability of the buyer or lessee to receive substantial benefits from the property or services sold or leased;

(iii) In the case of consumer credit sales or consumer leases, gross disparity between the price of the property or services sold or leased and the value of the property or services measured by the price at which similar property or services are readily obtainable in credit transactions by like buyers or lessees;

(iv) The fact that the creditor contracted for or received separate charges for insurance with respect to consumer credit sales or consumer loans with the effect of making the sales or loans, considered as a whole, unconscionable; and

(v) The fact that the respondent has knowingly taken advantage of the inability of the debtor reasonably to protect his interests by reason of physical or mental infirmities, ignorance, illiteracy or inability to understand the language of the agreement, or similar factors.

(d) In an action brought pursuant to this section, a charge or practice expressly permitted by this act is not in itself unconscionable.

40-14-612. Temporary relief.

With respect to an action brought to enjoin violations of the act (W.S. 40-14-610) or unconscionable agreements or fraudulent or unconscionable conduct (W.S. 40-14-611), the administrator may apply to the court for appropriate temporary relief against a respondent, pending final determination of proceedings. If the court finds after a hearing held upon notice to the respondent that there is reasonable cause to believe that the respondent is engaging in or is likely to engage in conduct sought to be restrained, it may grant any temporary relief or restraining order it deems appropriate.

40-14-613. Civil actions.

(a) After demand, the administrator may bring a civil action against a creditor for making or collecting charges in excess of those permitted by this act. An action may relate to transactions with more than one (1) debtor. If it is found that an excess charge has been made, the court shall order the respondent to refund to the debtor or debtors the amount of the excess charge. If a creditor has made an excess charge in deliberate violation of or in reckless disregard for this act, or if a creditor has refused to refund an excess charge within a reasonable time after demand by the debtor or the administrator, the court may also order the respondent to pay to the debtor or debtors a civil penalty in an amount determined by the court not in excess of the greater of either the amount of the credit service or loan finance charge or ten (10) times the amount of the excess charge. Refunds and penalties to which the debtor is entitled pursuant to this subsection may be set off against the debtor's obligation. If a debtor brings an action against a creditor to recover an excess charge or civil penalty, an action by the administrator to recover for the same excess charge or civil penalty shall be stayed while the debtor's action is pending and shall be dismissed if the debtor's action is dismissed with prejudice or results in a final judgment granting or denying the debtor's claim. With respect to excess charges arising from sales made pursuant to revolving charge accounts or from loans made pursuant to revolving loan accounts, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than two (2) years after the time the excess charge was made. With respect to excess charges arising from other consumer credit sales or consumer loans, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one (1) year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement pursuant to which the charge was made. If the creditor establishes by a preponderance of evidence that a violation is unintentional or the result of a bona fide error, no liability to pay a penalty shall be imposed under this subsection.

(b) The administrator may bring a civil action against a creditor or a person acting in his behalf to recover a civil penalty for willfully violating this act, and if the court finds that the defendant has engaged in a course of repeated and willful violations of this act, it may assess a civil penalty of no more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00). No civil penalty pursuant to this subsection may be imposed for violations of this act occurring more than two (2) years before the action is brought or for making unconscionable agreements or engaging in a course of fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

40-14-614. Jury trial.

In an action brought by the administrator under this act, he has no right to trial by jury.

40-14-615. Debtors' remedies not affected.

The grant of powers to the administrator in this article does not affect remedies available to debtors under this act or under other principles of law or equity.

Part 1A.
Restitution

40-14-616. Enforcement.

(a) The administrator, in carrying out enforcement activities under this section, in cases where an annual percentage rate or finance charge was inaccurately disclosed, shall notify the creditor of the disclosure error and is authorized, in accordance with this section, to require the creditor to make an adjustment to the account of the person to whom credit was extended, to assure that the person will not be required to pay a finance charge in excess of the finance charge actually disclosed or the dollar equivalent of the annual percentage rate actually disclosed, whichever is lower. For the purposes of this section, except where the disclosure error resulted from a willful violation which was intended to mislead the person to whom credit was extended, in determining whether a disclosure error has occurred and in calculating any adjustment:

(i) The administrator shall apply:

(A) For transactions consummated after January 1, 1977, until March 31, 1982, with respect to the annual percentage rate, a tolerance of one-quarter of one percent (.25%) more or less than the actual rate determined without regard to W.S. 40-14-225 and 40-14-323, except in the case of an irregular mortgage lending transaction consummated between January 1, 1977, and March 31, 1982, in which a tolerance of one-half of one percent (.5%) is allowed; and

(B) With respect to the finance charge, a corresponding numerical tolerance as generated by the tolerance provided under this section for the annual percentage rate, except that with respect to transactions consummated on or after April 1, 1982 the administrator shall apply:

(I) For transactions that have a scheduled amortization of ten (10) years or less with respect to the annual percentage rate, a tolerance not to exceed one-quarter of one percent (.25%) more or less than the actual rate determined without regard to W.S. 40-14-225 and 40-14-323;

(II) For transactions that have a scheduled amortization of more than ten (10) years, with respect to the annual percentage rate, only such tolerances as are allowed under W.S. 40-14-225 and 40-14-323; and

(III) For all transactions, with respect to the finance charge, a corresponding numerical tolerance as generated by the tolerances provided under this subsection for the annual percentage rate.

(b) The administrator shall require an adjustment when he determines that the disclosure error resulted from a clear and consistent pattern or practice of violations, gross negligence or a willful violation which was intended to mislead the person to whom the credit was extended. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, except where the disclosure error resulted from a willful violation which was intended to mislead the person to whom credit was extended, the administrator need not require such an adjustment if he determines that the disclosure error:

(i) Resulted from an error involving the disclosure of a fee or charge that would otherwise be excludable in computing the finance charge, including but not limited to violations involving the disclosures described in rules adopted by the administrator in which event the administrator may require such remedial action as he determines to be equitable, except that for transactions consummated on or after April 1, 1982 the adjustment shall be ordered for violations of W.S. 40-14-213(b) and 40-14-311(b);

(ii) Involved a disclosed amount which was ten percent (10%) or less of the amount that should have been disclosed and, in cases where the error involved a disclosed finance charge, the annual percentage rate was disclosed correctly, and, in cases where the error involved a disclosed annual percentage rate, the finance charge was disclosed correctly, in which event the administrator may require such adjustment as he determines to be equitable;

(iii) Involved a total failure to disclose either the annual percentage rate or the finance charge, in which event the administrator may require any adjustment as he determines to be equitable; or

(iv) Resulted from any other unique circumstance involving clearly technical and nonsubstantive disclosure violations that do not adversely affect information provided to the consumer and that have not misled or otherwise deceived the consumer.

(c) In the case of other disclosure errors, the administrator may require such an adjustment.

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section, no adjustment shall be ordered:

(i) If it would have a significantly adverse impact upon the safety or soundness of the creditor, but, in any such case, the administrator may require a partial adjustment in an amount which does not have such an impact, except that, with respect to any transaction consummated after the effective date of this section, the administrator shall require the full adjustment, but permit the creditor to make the required adjustment in partial payments over an extended period of time which the administrator considers to be reasonable;

(ii) If the amount of the adjustment would be less than one dollar ($1.00), except that if more than one (1) year has elapsed since the date of the violation, the administrator may require that the amount shall be paid into the state treasury; or

(iii) Except where disclosure error resulted from a willful violation which was intended to mislead the person to whom credit was extended, in the case of an open-end credit plan, more than two (2) years after the violation, or in the case of any other extension of credit, as follows:

(A) With respect to creditors that are subject to examination by the administrator, except in connection with violations arising from practices identified in the current examination and only in connection with transactions that are consummated after the date of the immediately preceding examination, except that where practices giving rise to violations identified in earlier examinations have not been corrected, adjustments for those violations shall be required in connection with transactions consummated after the date of the examination in which the practices were first identified;

(B) With respect to creditors that are not subject to examination by the administrator, except in connection with transactions that are consummated after March 31, 1980; and

(C) In no event after the later of the expiration of the life of the credit extension or two (2) years after the agreement to extend credit was consummated.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an adjustment under this subsection may be required by the administrator only by an order issued in accordance with the rules and regulations of the administrator pursuant to this act.

(f) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this subsection and notwithstanding any other provision of law, the administrator may not require a creditor to make dollar adjustments for errors in any requirements under this act except as otherwise specifically provided.

(g) A creditor is not subject to an order to make an adjustment, if, within sixty (60) days after discovering a disclosure error, whether pursuant to a final written examination report or through the creditor's own procedures, the creditor notifies the person concerned of the error and adjusts the account so as to assure that the person will not be required to pay a finance charge in excess of the finance charge actually disclosed or the dollar equivalent of the annual percentage rate actually disclosed, whichever is lower.

(h) Notwithstanding the second sentence of subsection (a), subparagraph (d)(iii)(A) and subparagraph (d)(iii)(B) of this section, the administrator shall require an adjustment for an annual percentage rate disclosure error that exceeds a tolerance of one-quarter of one percent (.25%) less than the actual rate determined without regard to W.S. 40-14-225 and 40-14-323, except in the case of an irregular mortgage lending transaction with respect to any transaction consummated between January 1, 1977 and March 31, 1980.

Part 2.
Notification and Fees

40-14-630. Applicability.

(a) This part applies to a person engaged in this state in making consumer credit sales, consumer leases or consumer loans, including a pawnbroker, sales finance company and post-dated check casher, and to a person having an office or place of business who takes assignments of and undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against debtors arising from these sales, leases or loans.

(b) Supervised financial organizations as defined by W.S. 40-14-140(a)(xix) shall be exempt from this part.

40-14-631. Notification.

(a) Persons subject to this part shall file notification with the administrator within thirty (30) days after commencing business in this state, and, thereafter, on or before January 31 of each year. The notification shall state:

(i) Name of the person;

(ii) Name in which business is transacted if different from paragraph (a)(i) of this section;

(iii) Address of principal office, which may be outside this state;

(iv) Address of all offices or retail stores, if any, in this state at which consumer credit sales, consumer leases, or consumer loans are made, or in the case of a person taking assignments of obligations, the offices or places of business within this state at which business is transacted;

(v) If consumer credit sales, consumer leases, or consumer loans are made otherwise than at an office or retail store in this state, a brief description of the manner in which they are made;

(vi) Address of designated agent upon whom service of process may be made in this state; and

(vii) Whether supervised loans are made.

(b) If information in a notification becomes inaccurate after filing, such change shall be promptly given the administrator.

40-14-632. Fees.

(a) A person required to file notification shall on or before January 31 of each year pay to the administrator an annual fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for that year.

(b) Persons required to file notification who are sellers, lessors or lenders shall pay an additional fee at the time and in the manner stated in subsection (a) of this section of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), or part thereof, in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), of the original unpaid balances arising from consumer credit sales, consumer leases and consumer loans made in this state within the preceding calendar year and held either by the seller, lessor or lender for more than thirty (30) days after the inception of the sale, lease or loan giving rise to the obligations, or by an assignee who has not filed notification. A refinancing of a sale, lease or loan resulting in an increase in the amount of an obligation is considered a new sale, lease or loan to the extent of the amount of the increase. The administrator may by rule increase this fee to an amount not greater than thirty-five dollars ($35.00) per one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), or part thereof, in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) of the original unpaid balances if he determines that an increase is necessary to cover the cost of administration of this act.

(c) Persons required to file notification who are assignees shall pay an additional fee at the time and in the manner stated in subsection (a) of this section of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), or part thereof, of the unpaid balances at the time of the assignment of obligations arising from consumer credit sales, consumer leases and consumer loans made in this state taken by assignment during the preceding calendar year, but an assignee need not pay a fee with respect to an obligation on which the assignor or other person has already paid a fee. The administrator may by rule increase this fee to an amount not greater than thirty-five dollars ($35.00) per one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), or part thereof, in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) if he determines that an increase is necessary to cover the cost of administration of this act.

Part 3.
Licensing

40-14-634. License required; application; fee; conditions and execution; license nontransferable; display; renewal.

(a) The administrator shall receive and act on all applications for licenses required under this act. Applications shall be filed in the manner prescribed by the administrator and shall contain the information the administrator requires by rule to make an evaluation of the financial responsibility, character and business qualifications of the applicant.

(b) The administrator shall issue a license unless, upon investigation, he finds that the financial responsibility, character and business qualifications of the applicant, and of the members thereof, if the applicant is a partnership or association, and of the officers and directors thereof if the applicant is a corporation, are such as to warrant belief that the business will not be operated honestly and fairly within the purposes of this act.

(c) The application for one (1) or more licenses shall be accompanied by a processing fee not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each license applied for, as set by rule of the administrator. If the expenses of the investigation and evaluation exceed the amount of the fee, the applicant shall reimburse the administrator the excess amount. If the expenses of the investigation and evaluation are less than the amount of the fee or if the application is withdrawn prior to the completion of the investigation and evaluation, the unexpended amount shall remain in the consumer credit administration account to be expended in accordance with W.S. 40-14-633.

(d) An applicant shall be notified when the application is approved. Within twenty (20) days after notification, the applicant shall pay an initial license fee not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00), as set by rule of the administrator.

(e) Each office or place of business shall be licensed separately.

(f) The license shall be prominently displayed at the place of business named in the license. The license shall not be transferable or assignable.

(g) If a licensee wishes to move his office to another location, the licensee shall:

(j) Upon written request, the applicant is entitled to a hearing on the question of his qualifications for a license if:

(i) The administrator has notified the applicant in writing that his application has been denied; or

(ii) The administrator has not issued a license within sixty (60) days after the application for the license was filed. A request for a hearing may not be made more than fifteen (15) days after the administrator has mailed a writing to the applicant notifying him that the application has been denied and stating in substance the administrator's findings supporting denial of the application.

(k) The administrator may establish different fees authorized under this section for each category of licensee. The administrator shall establish fees in accordance with the following:

(i) Fees shall be established by rule or regulation promulgated in accordance with the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act;

(ii) Fees shall be established in an amount to ensure that, to the extent practicable, the total revenue generated from the fees collected approximates, but does not exceed, the direct and indirect costs of administering the regulatory provisions required under this act;

(iii) The administrator shall maintain records sufficient to support the fees charged.

(m) A license shall not be issued under subsection (b) of this section if the applicant has been convicted of, pled guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony in a domestic, foreign or military court during the seven (7) year period preceding the date of the application for licensing, or at any time preceding such date of application if such felony involved an act of fraud, dishonesty, breach of trust or money laundering.

(n) A license may be issued at the discretion of the administrator under subsection (b) of this section if the applicant has been convicted of, pled guilty or nolo contendere to a misdemeanor in a domestic, foreign or military court involving an act of fraud, dishonesty, breach of trust or money laundering.

(o) In order to fulfill the purposes of this act, the administrator may establish relationships or contract with the registry or any other entity designated by the registry to collect and maintain records and process transaction fees or other fees related to licensees or other persons subject to this act.

(p) In addition to the other requirements of this section, in connection with an application for licensing, the applicant shall, at a minimum, furnish to the administrator or the registry information concerning the identity of the applicant, the owners or persons in charge of the applicant and individuals designated in charge of the applicant's places of business, including:

(i) Fingerprints for submission to the federal bureau of investigation, and any governmental agency or entity authorized to receive such information for a state, national and international criminal history background check; and

(ii) Personal history and experience, including the submission of authorization for the registry or the administrator to obtain:

(A) An independent credit report obtained from a consumer reporting agency described in section 603(p) of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act; and

(B) Information related to any administrative, civil or criminal findings by any governmental jurisdiction.

(q) For the purposes of this section and in order to reduce the points of contact which the federal bureau of investigation may have to maintain for purposes of paragraph (p)(i) of this section and subparagraph (p)(ii)(B) of this section, the administrator may use the registry as a channeling agent for requesting information from and distributing information to the department of justice or any governmental agency.

(r) For the purposes of this section and in order to reduce the points of contact which the administrator may have to maintain for purposes of paragraph (p)(ii) of this section, the administrator may use the registry as a channeling agent for requesting and distributing information to and from any source as directed by the administrator.

(s) Any fee charged and collected under this section shall be in accordance with W.S. 13-1-603(d) through (f).

40-14-635. Revocation or suspension of license.

(a) The administrator may issue to a person licensed under this act an order to show cause why his license should not be revoked or suspended for a period not in excess of six (6) months. The order shall state the place for a hearing and set a time for the hearing that is no less than ten (10) days from the date of the order. After the hearing the administrator shall revoke or suspend the license if he finds that:

(i) The licensee has repeatedly and willfully violated this act or any rule or order lawfully made pursuant to this act; or

(ii) Facts or conditions exist which would clearly have justified the administrator in refusing to grant a license had these facts or conditions been known to exist at the time the application for the license was made.

(b) No revocation or suspension of a license is lawful unless prior to institution of proceedings by the administrator notice is given to the licensee of the facts or conduct which warrant the intended action, and the licensee is given an opportunity to show compliance with all lawful requirements for retention of the license.

(c) If the administrator finds that probable cause for revocation of a license exists and that enforcement of this act requires immediate suspension of a license pending investigation, he may, after a hearing upon five (5) days written notice, enter an order suspending the license for not more than thirty (30) days.

(d) Whenever the administrator revokes or suspends a license, he shall enter an order to that effect and forthwith notify the licensee of the revocation or suspension. Within five (5) days after the entry of the order he shall deliver to the licensee a copy of the order and the findings supporting the order.

(e) Any person holding a license under this act may relinquish the license by notifying the administrator in writing of its relinquishment, but this relinquishment shall not affect his liability for acts previously committed.

(f) No revocation, suspension or relinquishment of a license shall impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and any consumer.

(g) The administrator may reinstate a license, terminate a suspension or grant a new license to a person whose license has been revoked or suspended if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would have justified the administrator in refusing to grant a license.

(h) For purposes of this section, "licensee" shall also mean a licensed mortgage loan originator pursuant to W.S. 40-14-641.

40-14-636. Records; confidentiality.

(a) For purposes of this section, "licensee" shall also mean a licensed mortgage loan originator pursuant to W.S. 40-14-640 and an organization employing or contracting with a mortgage loan originator.

(b) Every licensee shall maintain records in a manner that will enable the administrator to determine whether the licensee is complying with the provisions of this act. The administrator may by rule, and in accordance with W.S. 40-14-606(c), specify the manner in which records are to be made available. The records need not be kept in the place of business of the licensee, if the administrator is given free access to the records wherever located. The records pertaining to any transaction governed by this act need not be preserved for more than two (2) years after making the final entry relating to the transaction. In the case of a revolving loan account the two (2) years is measured from the date of each entry.

(c) Except as provided in subsections (d), (e) and (j) of this section, all information or reports obtained by the administrator from an applicant or licensee are confidential.

(d) Except as provided in P.L. 110-289, section 1512, the requirements under any federal or state law regarding the privacy or confidentiality of any information or material provided to the registry, and any privilege arising under federal or state law, including the rules of any federal or state court, with respect to such information or material, shall continue to apply to such information or material after the information or material has been disclosed to the registry. Such information and any other confidential material obtained by the administrator may be shared with all state and federal regulatory officials with mortgage industry oversight authority without the loss of privilege or the loss of confidentiality protections provided by federal or state law.

(e) The administrator may enter into cooperative, coordinating or information sharing agreements with any other supervisory agency or any organization affiliated with or representing one (1) or more supervisory agencies with respect to the periodic examination or other supervision of any office in Wyoming of an out-of-state licensee, and the administrator may accept the parties' reports of examination and reports of investigation in lieu of conducting his own examinations or investigations.

(f) Information or material that is subject to a privilege or confidentiality protection under subsection (d) of this section shall not be subject to:

(i) Disclosure under any federal or state law governing the disclosure to the public of information held by an officer or agency of the federal government or the respective state; or

(ii) Subpoena, discovery or admission into evidence, in any private civil action or administrative process, unless with respect to any privilege held by the registry with respect to such information or material, the person to whom such information or material pertains waives that privilege, in whole or in part.

(g) Any Wyoming law relating to the disclosure of confidential supervisory information or any information or material described in subsection (d) of this section that is inconsistent with subsection (d) of this section shall be superceded by the requirements of this section.

(h) This section shall not apply with respect to the information or material relating to the employment history of, and publicly adjudicated disciplinary and enforcement actions against, mortgage loan originator that is included in the registry for access by the public.

(j) The administrator may enter into contracts with any supervisory agency having concurrent jurisdiction over a Wyoming licensee pursuant to this act to engage the services of the agency's examiners at a reasonable rate of compensation. Any contract under this subsection shall not be subject to the provisions of W.S. 9-2-3204(b).

(k) This section does not prohibit the administrator from disclosing to the public a list of persons licensed under this act.

40-14-637. Surety bonds.

(a) Any organization employing or contracting with a mortgage loan originator shall maintain a surety bond to the state of Wyoming in accordance with this section. The surety bond shall be used to cover individual mortgage loan originators employed by or under contract with the organization. The amount of the bond shall be established by rule of the administrator based upon the volume of residential mortgage loan activity transacted by the organization under this act.

(b) The surety bond shall be a continuing obligation of the issuing surety. The surety's liability under the bond for any claims made under the bond either individually or in the aggregate shall in no event exceed the face amount of the bond issued. The bond shall be issued by a surety authorized to do business in the state of Wyoming. The bond, including any and all riders and endorsements executed subsequent to the effective date of the bond, shall be placed on file with the administrator.

(c) In the event an organization or mortgage loan originator employed by or under contract with an organization has violated any of the provisions of this act or a rule or order lawfully made pursuant to this act pertaining to a residential mortgage loan transaction, or federal law or regulation pertaining to the mortgage lending or mortgage brokering, and has damaged any person by such violation, then the bond shall be forfeited and paid by the surety to the state of Wyoming for the benefit of any person so damaged, in an amount sufficient to satisfy the violation or the bond in its entirety if the violation exceeds the amount of the bond.

(d) Surety bonds shall remain effective continuously until released in writing by the administrator. If a bond has not been previously released by the administrator, the bond shall expire two (2) years after the date of the surrender, revocation or expiration of the license.

40-14-638. Mortgage call reports.

Each organization employing or contracting with a mortgage loan originator shall submit to the registry reports of condition, which shall be in such form and shall contain such information as required by the registry.

40-14-639. Report to the registry.

The administrator shall regularly report violations of this act relating to transactions conducted by mortgage loan originators, as well as enforcement actions and other relevant information, to the registry subject to the provisions contained in W.S. 40-14-636. Unless the consumer notifies the merchant of a new or different residence address, the given residence is presumed to be unchanged.

40-19-105. Inapplicability of other laws; exempt transactions.

(a) Rental-purchase agreements as defined in this act are not governed by laws relating to:

(i) Transactions governed under the Wyoming Uniform Consumer Credit Code; or

(c) The merchant shall deliver to the consumer a completed copy of the agreement for the consumer to retain at consummation of the transaction.

(d) The rental-purchase agreement shall contain the names and addresses of the merchant and consumer.

(e) The merchant shall disclose to the consumer the information required by W.S. 40-19-107 on the face of the agreement above the line for the consumer's signature. If a disclosure becomes inaccurate as a result of any act, occurrence or agreement by the consumer after the delivery of the required disclosures, the resulting inaccuracy shall not be considered to be a violation of this act.

(f) A merchant who advertises rental-purchase agreements in any language other than English shall have rental-purchase agreements printed in each language as the merchant advertises and shall make those rental-purchase agreements available to consumers.

40-19-107. Disclosures.

(xv) A description of the conditions which constitute default by the consumer.

40-19-108. Prohibited provisions.

(a) A rental-purchase agreement shall not contain a:

(i) Confession of judgment;

(ii) Negotiable instrument;

(iii) Security interest or any other claim of a property interest in any property of the consumer;

(iv) Wage assignment;

(v) Waiver by the consumer of claims or defenses;

(vi) Provision authorizing the merchant or a person acting on the merchant's behalf to enter upon the consumer's premises unlawfully or to commit any breach of the peace in the repossession of property;

(vii) Provision requiring the consumer to purchase insurance or a liability damage waiver from the merchant for the property. The merchant may require the consumer to insure the property so as to satisfy any liability of the consumer to the merchant for loss or damage to the property;

(viii) Provision that mere failure to return property constitutes probable cause for a criminal action;

(ix) Provision requiring the consumer to make a final periodic payment in an amount greater than regular periodic payments in order to acquire ownership of the property or a provision requiring the consumer to make periodic payments totaling more than the dollar amount necessary to acquire ownership as disclosed pursuant to W.S. 40-19-107;

(x) Provision requiring a reinstatement fee unless a periodic payment is late more than five (5) days on a monthly agreement or more than two (2) days on an agreement with periodic payments made more frequently than monthly;

(xii) Provision for a late charge or any other type of charge or penalty for reinstating a rental-purchase agreement other than a reinstatement fee. However, a merchant may use the term "late charge" or a similar term to refer to a reinstatement fee.

40-19-109. Default; notice of default and right to cure.

(a) In any rental-purchase agreement, after a consumer is in default for three (3) business days or more and does not voluntarily surrender possession of the rented property, a merchant may give the consumer the notice provided in this section. Notice may be given to the consumer under this section by the merchant personally delivering the notice to the consumer or by mailing the notice to the consumer's last known residential address.

(b) The notice shall be in writing and conspicuously state the name, address and telephone number of the merchant to whom payment is made, a brief identification of the transaction, the consumer's right to cure any default, the amount of payment and the date the payment shall be made to cure the default. The notice shall be in substantially the form required by rule of the administrator.

(c) With respect to rental-purchase agreements with payments or options to renew more frequently than monthly, after default consisting of failure to renew or return the property, a merchant may not initiate court action to recover rented property until three (3) business days after notice of the consumer's right to cure is given. With respect to all other rental-purchase agreements, after default consisting of failure to renew or return the property, a merchant may not initiate court action to recover rented property until five (5) business days after notice of the consumer's right to cure is given.

(d) After notice is given and until expiration of the minimum applicable period, a consumer may cure all defaults consisting of failure to renew and failure to return the property by tendering the amount of all unpaid sums due and payment of a renewal payment.

(e) This section shall not prohibit a consumer from voluntarily surrendering possession of property that is rented or a merchant from requesting and accepting surrender of property at any time after default. In any enforcement proceeding, a merchant shall affirmatively plead and prove either that the notice to cure is not required or that the merchant has given the required notice. The failure to plead shall not invalidate any action taken by the merchant that is otherwise lawful and if the merchant had rightfully repossessed the property the repossession shall not constitute conversion.

40-19-110. Reinstatement.

(a) Any consumer whose default consists solely of a failure to make a timely rental payment may reinstate the agreement, without losing any rights or options which exist under the agreement, by paying the following charges within seven (7) days of the renewal date of the agreement:

(i) All past due rental charges;

(ii) If the property has been picked-up, the reasonable costs of pickup and redelivery as limited by W.S. 40-19-108(a)(xi); and

(iii) Any applicable reinstatement fee as limited by W.S. 40-19-108(a)(x) and (xi).

(b) In the case of a consumer who has paid less than two-thirds (2/3) of the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership and where the consumer has returned or voluntarily surrendered the property within seven (7) days of the renewal date, other than through judicial process, the consumer may reinstate the agreement during a period of not less than twenty-one (21) days after the date of the return of the property.

(c) In the case of a consumer who has paid two-thirds (2/3) or more of the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership, and where the consumer has returned or voluntarily surrendered the property within seven (7) days of the renewal date, other than through judicial process, the consumer may reinstate the agreement during a period of not less than thirty (30) days after the date of the return of the property.

(d) Nothing in this section shall prevent a merchant from attempting to repossess the property. Repossession within seven (7) days of the renewal date shall not affect the consumer's right to reinstate. Upon reinstatement, the merchant shall provide the consumer with the same property, if available, or with substitute property of comparable quality and condition.

40-19-111. Liability damage waivers; fees.

(a) A consumer and merchant may contract for a liability damage waiver. The selling or offering for sale of a liability damage waiver pursuant to this act shall be subject to the following prohibitions and requirements:

(i) A merchant may not sell or offer to sell a liability damage waiver unless all restrictions, conditions and exclusions are printed in an agreement separate from the rental-purchase agreement;

(ii) The liability damage waiver contract shall include a statement of the fee for the liability damage waiver and shall display the following notice printed or typed in a size equal to or greater than ten (10) point bold type:

NOTICE: THE PURCHASE OF THIS LIABILITY DAMAGE WAIVER IS NOT MANDATORY AND MAY BE DECLINED. THIS CONTRACT OFFERS, FOR AN ADDITIONAL CHARGE, A LIABILITY DAMAGE WAIVER TO COVER YOUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGE TO THE PROPERTY. BEFORE DECIDING WHETHER TO PURCHASE THE LIABILITY DAMAGE WAIVER, YOU MAY WISH TO DETERMINE WHETHER YOUR HOMEOWNER'S OR CASUALTY INSURANCE, IF ANY, AFFORDS YOU COVERAGE FOR DAMAGE TO THE RENTAL PROPERTY AND THE AMOUNT OF THE DEDUCTIBLE UNDER YOUR OWN INSURANCE COVERAGE.

40-19-112. Renegotiations and extensions.

(a) A renegotiation occurs when any term of a rental-purchase agreement that is required to be disclosed by W.S. 40-19-107 is changed by agreement between the merchant and consumer. A renegotiation is considered to be a new rental-purchase agreement requiring the merchant to give all the disclosures required by W.S. 40-19-107.

(b) The following acts shall not be considered to be a renegotiation:

(i) Reinstatement of a rental-purchase agreement in accordance with W.S. 40-19-110;

(ii) A merchant's waiver or failure to assert any claim against the consumer;

(iii) A deferral, extension or waiver of a portion of a periodic payment or of one (1) or more periodic payments; or

(iv) A change, made at the consumer's request, of the day of the week or month on which periodic payments are to be made.

40-19-113. Advertising.

(a) An advertisement for a rental-purchase agreement that refers to or states the dollar amount of a periodic payment and the right to acquire ownership of a specific item shall also clearly and conspicuously state the following:

(i) The transaction advertised is a rental-purchase agreement;

(ii) The total number and total amount of periodic payments necessary to acquire ownership of the item; and

(iii) That the consumer acquires no ownership rights in the item unless the total amount necessary to acquire ownership is paid.

(b) Any owner or personnel of any medium in which an advertisement appears or through which it is disseminated shall not be liable for the requirements in this section.

(c) The provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to any advertisement which does not refer to or state the amount of any payment.

(d) Every item displayed or offered under a rental-purchase agreement shall bear a tag or card that clearly and conspicuously indicates in Arabic numerals each of the following:

(i) The cash sale price of the item;

(ii) The amount of the periodic payment; and

(iii) The total number and total amount of periodic payments necessary to acquire ownership.

(e) An advertisement for a rental-purchase agreement in any language other than English shall contain disclosures as required by this section in that language.

(a) Any person acting as a merchant, as defined by W.S. 40-19-102(a)(viii), in this state shall be licensed to conduct such business under this section.

(b) The administrator shall receive and act on all applications for licenses required under this act. Applications shall be filed in the manner prescribed by the administrator and shall contain the information the administrator requires by rule to make an investigation and evaluation of the financial responsibility, experience and business qualification of the applicant, and of the partners or members if the applicant is a partnership or association, and of the principal officers and directors if the applicant is a corporation, such as to warrant belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly within the purposes of this act.

(c) The application for one (1) or more licenses shall be accompanied by a processing fee not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) set by rule of the administrator. The fee shall be deposited by the administrator with the state treasurer and credited to the financial institutions administration account. Funds from the account shall be expended to carry out the duties of the administrator. If the expenses of the investigation and evaluation exceed the amount of the fee, the applicant shall reimburse the administrator the excess amount. If the expenses of the investigation and evaluation are less than the amount of the fee, the unexpended amount shall remain within the account. If an application is withdrawn by the applicant at any time prior to the completion of the investigation and evaluation, the unexpended amount shall remain within the account.

(d) Except as otherwise provided, fees collected by the administrator under this act shall be deposited by the administrator with the state treasurer and credited to the financial institutions administration account. Expenditures shall be made from the account by warrants drawn by the state auditor, upon vouchers issued and signed by the administrator. The funds deposited in the account under this act shall be expended only to carry out the duties of the administrator.

(e) The applicant shall be notified when the application is approved. Within twenty (20) days after notification, the applicant shall pay an initial license fee not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00), as set by rule of the administrator.

(f) Each office or place of business shall be licensed separately.

(g) Each license shall state the address of the office from which the business is to be conducted and the name of the licensee. The license shall be prominently displayed at the place of business named in the license. The license shall not be transferable or assignable.

(h) If a licensee wishes to move his office to another location, the licensee shall:

(i) Give written notice to the administrator at least thirty (30) days prior to the move; and

(ii) Pay a license modification fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00), as set by rule of the administrator.

(j) Each license issued under this section shall expire on July 1. The license shall be renewed annually not less than thirty (30) days before the expiration date. The renewal fee for each license shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00), as set by rule of the administrator.

(k) Any fee charged and collected under this section shall be in accordance with W.S. 13-1-603(d) through (f).

40-19-115. Revocation or suspension of license.

(a) The administrator may issue to a person licensed under this act an order to show cause why his license should not be revoked or suspended for a period not in excess of six (6) months. The order shall state the place for a hearing and set a time for the hearing that is no less than ten (10) days from the date of the order. After the hearing the administrator shall revoke or suspend the license if he finds that:

(i) The licensee has repeatedly and willfully violated this act or any rule or order lawfully made pursuant to this act; or

(ii) Facts or conditions exist which would clearly have justified the administrator in refusing to grant a license had these facts or conditions been known to exist at the time the application for the license was made.

(b) No revocation or suspension of a license is lawful unless prior to institution of proceedings by the administrator notice is given to the licensee of the facts or conduct which warrant the intended action and the licensee is given an opportunity to show compliance with all lawful requirements for retention of the license.

(c) If the administrator finds that probable cause for revocation of a license exists and that enforcement of this act requires immediate suspension of a license pending investigation, he may, after a hearing upon five (5) days written notice, enter an order suspending the license for not more than thirty (30) days.

(d) Whenever the administrator revokes or suspends a license, he shall enter an order to that effect and immediately notify the licensee of the revocation or suspension. Within five (5) days after the entry of the order he shall deliver to the licensee a copy of the order and the findings supporting the order.

(e) Any person holding a license under this act may relinquish the license by notifying the administrator in writing of its relinquishment, but this relinquishment shall not affect his liability for acts previously committed.

(f) No revocation, suspension or relinquishment of a license shall impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and any consumer.

(g) The administrator may reinstate a license, terminate a suspension or grant a new license to a person whose license has been revoked or suspended if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would have justified the administrator in refusing to grant a license.

40-19-116. Record retention.

Every licensee shall maintain records in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and practices in a manner which will enable the administrator to determine whether the licensee is complying with the provisions of this act. The record keeping system of a licensee shall be sufficient if he makes the required information reasonably available to the administrator. The records pertaining to any rental-purchase agreement need not be preserved for more than two (2) years after making the final entry relating to the agreement.

40-19-117. Examination and investigation.

(a) Upon complaint the administrator may examine and copy the records of a licensee. The investigation may be made for the purposes of discovering violations of this act or securing information lawfully required. For these purposes he shall have free and reasonable access during normal office hours to the offices, places of business and records of the licensee. Each licensee shall pay to the administrator an amount assessed by the administrator to cover the direct and indirect cost of an investigation under this subsection.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the administrator may administer oaths or affirmations, and upon his own motion or upon request of any party may subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, adduce evidence and require the production of any matter which is relevant to the investigation, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents or other tangible things and the identity and location of person having knowledge of relevant facts or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(c) Upon failure without lawful excuse to obey a subpoena or to give testimony and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the administrator may apply to the district court for an order compelling compliance.

40-19-118. Powers and functions of the administrator; enforcement; penalties.

(a) Except as otherwise provided, the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act, W.S. 16-3-101 through 16-3-115, shall apply to and govern all administrative actions taken by the administrator pursuant to this act.

(b) The administrator may adopt rules and regulations to implement and administer this act.

(c) After notice and hearing, the administrator may order a merchant or a person acting on his behalf to cease and desist from engaging in violations of this act. Any person aggrieved by an order of the administrator may obtain judicial review of the order and the administrator may obtain an order of the court for enforcement of his order in the district court.

(d) The administrator may bring a civil action to restrain a merchant from violating the provisions of this act and for other appropriate relief.

(e) Any merchant refusing or obstructing access to the administrator or his representative to any account, books, records or papers, refusing to furnish any required information or hindering a full examination or investigation of the accounts, books, records or papers is guilty of a felony punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars

($1,000.00), imprisonment for a period of not less than one (1) year, or both.

(f) Any merchant who wrongfully fails or refuses to comply with an order of the administrator as may be provided under this act is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) per day for each day the order is not obeyed.

40-19-119. Consumer civil actions.

(a) A merchant who fails to comply with a requirement imposed in W.S. 40-19-106 through 40-19-112 or 40-12-104 shall be liable to the consumer damaged thereby in an amount equal to the greater of:

(i) The actual damages sustained by the consumer as a result of the violation, plus the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees;

(ii) In the case of an individual action, twenty-five percent (25%) of the total payments necessary to acquire ownership but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor greater than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), plus the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees; or

(iii) In the case of a class action, the amount the court determines to be appropriate with no minimum recovery as to each member, plus the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees. The total recovery in any class action or series of class actions arising out of the same violation shall not be more than the lesser of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00) plus the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees or one percent (1%) of the net worth of the merchant plus the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees. In determining the amount of any award in a class action, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors, the amount of actual damages awarded, the frequency and persistence of the violation, the merchant's resources and the extent to which the merchant's violation was intentional.

(b) In the case of an advertisement, any merchant who fails to comply with the requirements of W.S. 40-19-113 with regard to any consumer shall be liable to that consumer for actual damages suffered from the violation, the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees.

(c) If there are multiple merchants, liability shall be imposed only on the merchant who made the disclosures. If no disclosures have been given, liability shall be imposed on all merchants.

(d) If there are multiple consumers in a rental-purchase agreement, there shall be only one (1) recovery of damages under subsection (a) of this section.

(e) Multiple violations in connection with a rental-purchase agreement shall entitle the consumer to a single recovery under this section.

(f) An action under this section shall be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction within the greater of the following times:

(i) Within two (2) years after the date the consumer made his last rental payment; or

(ii) Within two (2) years after the date of the occurrence of the violation that is the subject of the suit.

40-19-120. Merchant's defense.

(a) If a merchant establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that a violation of this act was unintentional, no penalty as specified in W.S. 40-19-118 shall be imposed and validity of the transaction shall not be affected.

(b) A merchant shall not be liable under this act for any failure to comply with any requirement imposed under this act if within sixty (60) days after the merchant discovers an error, and prior to the institution of an action under this act or the receipt of written notice of the error from the consumer, the merchant notifies the consumer of the error and within seven (7) days, makes adjustments in the appropriate account necessary to correct the error.

(d) A supplier shall allow surplus parts return on a dollar value of parts equal to ten percent (10%) of the total dollar value of all parts purchased by the dealer from the supplier during either the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the supplier's notification to the dealer of the supplier's return program or, if subsection (c) of this section applies, the month the dealer makes a return request.

(e) The dealer may elect to return a dollar value of the surplus parts equal to less than ten percent (10%) of the total dollar value of the parts the dealer purchased during the preceding twelve (12) months.

(g) A dealer shall return only new and unused parts to the supplier of the parts.

(h) The minimum credit allowed for returned parts shall be ninety-five percent (95%) of the net price as listed in the supplier's current parts list as of the date that the supplier provides notice of its return program or, if subsection (c) of this section applies, the date that the dealer submits a request for return.

(j) A supplier shall issue credit within ninety (90) days after receiving a return part.

(k) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a supplier from charging back to the dealer's account amounts previously paid or credited as a discounted incident to the dealer's purchase of equipment.

(v) "Dealership" means the retail sale business engaged in by a dealer under a dealer agreement;

(vi) "Demonstrator" means equipment in a dealer's inventory that has never been sold at retail, but has had its usage demonstrated to potential customers, either without charge

(B) Reimbursement for labor incurred in preparing the equipment for retail sale or rental, or set up costs, which labor shall be reimbursed at the dealer's standard labor rate charged by the dealer to its customers for nonwarranty repair work. If a supplier has established a reasonable set up time, the labor shall be reimbursed at an amount equal to the reasonable set up time in effect as of the date of delivery multiplied by the dealer's standard labor rate.

(xiii) "New equipment" means, for purposes of determining whether a dealer is a single line dealer, any equipment that could be returned to the supplier upon a termination of a dealer agreement pursuant to W.S. 40-20-120 and 40-20-121;

(A) Purchased construction or industrial equipment from a single supplier constituting seventy-five percent (75%) of the dealer's new equipment, calculated on the basis of net cost; and

(B) A total annual average sales volume in excess of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000.00) for the three

(3) calendar years immediately preceding the applicable determination date. (xvii) "Single line supplier" means the supplier that is selling the single line dealer construction and industrial equipment constituting seventy-five percent (75%) of the dealer's new equipment;

(xviii) "Supplier" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing, assembly or wholesale distribution of equipment or repair parts. (A) A successor expressly assumed the liabilities of the supplier; or

(B) There has been one (1) or more intermediate successors to the initial supplier. The obligations of a supplier hereunder shall consequently apply to any actual or effective successor in interest to a supplier, including but not limited to, a purchaser of all or substantially all of the assets of a supplier or all or substantially all of the assets of any division or product line of a supplier, any receiver, trustee, liquidator or assignee of the supplier or any surviving corporation resulting from a merger, liquidation or reorganization of the original or any intermediate successor supplier. Purchasers of all or substantially all of the inventory of a supplier or a supplier's division or product line shall constitute a purchaser of all or substantially all of the supplier's assets.

(xix) "Terminate" means to terminate, cancel, fail to renew or substantially change the competitive circumstances of a dealer agreement.

40-20-114. Violations of chapter.

(a) It shall be a violation of this chapter for a supplier to take any one (1) or more of the following actions:

(i) To coerce, compel or require any dealer to accept delivery of any equipment or repair parts which the dealer has not voluntarily ordered, except as required by any applicable law or unless the equipment or repair parts are safety features required by a supplier;

(ii) To require any dealer to purchase goods or services as a condition to the sale by the supplier to the dealer of any equipment, repair parts or other goods or services, except that nothing herein shall prohibit a supplier from requiring the dealer to purchase all repair parts, special tools and training reasonably necessary to maintain the safe operation or quality of operation in the field of any equipment offered for sale by the dealer;

(iii) To coerce any dealer into a refusal to purchase equipment manufactured by another supplier. However, it shall not be a violation of this section to require separate facilities, financial statements, or sales staff for major competing lines so long as the dealer is given at least three (3) years notice of such requirement;

(iv) To refuse to deliver in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time, after receipt of the dealer's order, to any dealer having a dealer agreement for the retail sale of new equipment sold or distributed by the supplier, equipment covered by the dealer agreement specifically advertised or represented by the supplier to be available for immediate delivery. The failure to deliver the equipment shall not be considered a violation of this chapter if the failure is due to prudent and reasonable restrictions on extensions of credit by the supplier to the dealer, an act of God, work stoppage or delay due to a strike or labor difficulty, a bona fide shortage of materials, freight embargo, or other cause over which the supplier has no control or a business decision by the supplier to limit the production volume of the equipment;

(v) To discriminate, directly or indirectly, in filling an order placed by a dealer for retail sale or lease of new equipment under a dealer agreement as between dealers of the same product line;

(vi) To discriminate, directly or indirectly, in price between different dealers with respect to purchases of equipment or repair parts of like grade and quality and identical brand, where the effect of the discrimination may be to substantially lessen competition, tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce or injure, destroy or prevent competition with any dealer who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of the discrimination. Different prices may be charged if:

(A) The differences are due to differences in the cost of manufacture, sale or delivery of the equipment or repair parts;

(B) The supplier can show that the lower price was made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor; or

(C) The differences are related to the volume of equipment purchased by dealers.

(vii) To prevent by contract or otherwise, any dealer, from changing its capital structure, ownership or the means by or through which the dealer finances its operations, so long as the dealer gives prior notice to the supplier and provided the dealer at all times meets any reasonable capital standards agreed to between the dealer and the supplier and imposed on similarly situated dealers and provided the change by the dealer does not result in a change in the person with actual or effective control of a majority of the voting interests of the dealer;

(viii) To require a dealer to assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver or estoppel which would relieve any person from liability imposed by this chapter;

(ix) Require as a condition of renewal or extension of a dealer agreement that the dealer complete substantial renovation to the dealer's place of business or to acquire new or additional space to serve as the dealer's place of business unless the supplier provides:

(A) At least one (1) year written notice of the condition;

(B) All the grounds supporting the condition;
and

(C) A reasonable period of time in which to complete the renovation or acquisition after the one (1) year notice period expires.

40-20-115. Termination of dealer agreements.

(a) A dealer may terminate a dealer agreement without cause. The dealer shall give the supplier at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of termination. No supplier may terminate a dealer agreement without good cause. Notice from the supplier to the dealer shall be as provided in W.S. 40-20-116 and 40-20-117. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, good cause means the failure by a dealer to substantially comply with essential and reasonable requirements imposed upon the dealer by the dealer agreement, provided the requirements are not different from those requirements imposed on other similarly situated dealers either by their terms or in the manner of their enforcement. In addition, good cause shall exist whenever:

(i) The dealer or dealership has transferred a controlling ownership interest in its business without the supplier's consent;

(ii) The dealer has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or has had an involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed against it which has not been discharged within thirty (30) days after the filing, there has been a closeout or sale of a substantial part of the dealer's assets related to the business or there has been a commencement of dissolution or liquidation of the dealer;

(iii) There has been a deletion, addition or change in dealer or dealership locations without the prior written approval of the supplier;

(iv) The dealer has defaulted under any chattel mortgage or other security agreement between the dealer and the supplier or there has been a revocation of any guarantee of the dealer's present or future obligations to the supplier. Good cause shall not exist if a person revokes any guarantee in connection with or following the transfer of the person's entire ownership interest in the dealer unless the supplier requires the new person to execute a new guarantee of the dealer's present or future obligations in connection with the transfer of ownership interest;

(v) The dealer has failed to operate in the normal course of business for seven (7) consecutive days or has otherwise abandoned its business;

(vi) The dealer has pleaded guilty to or has been convicted of a felony affecting the relationship between the dealer and supplier;

(vii) The dealer has engaged in conduct which is injurious or detrimental to the dealer's customers or to the public welfare or the representation or reputation of the supplier's product;

(viii) The dealer has consistently failed to meet and maintain the supplier's requirements for reasonable standards and performance objectives, so long as the supplier has given the dealer reasonable standards and performance objectives that are based on the manufacturer's experience in other comparable market areas.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the dealer agreements between a single line dealer and the single line supplier.

40-20-116. Termination of dealer agreements; single line dealers.

(a) This section shall only apply to the dealer agreements between a single line dealer and a single line supplier.

(b) No supplier may terminate a dealer agreement without good cause. For purposes of this section and W.S. 40-20-118 only, good cause means failure by a dealer to comply with requirements imposed upon the dealer by the dealer agreement if the requirements are not different from those imposed on other similarly situated dealers. In addition, good cause exists when:

(i) There has been a closeout or sale of a substantial part of the dealer's assets related to the equipment business or there has been a commencement of a dissolution or liquidation of the dealer;

(ii) The dealer has changed its principal place of business or added additional locations without prior approval of the supplier, which shall not be unreasonably withheld;

(iii) The dealer has substantially defaulted under a chattel mortgage or other security agreement between the dealer and the supplier or there has been a revocation or discontinuance of a guarantee of a present or future obligation of the dealer to the supplier;

(iv) The dealer has failed to operate in the normal course of business for seven (7) consecutive days or has otherwise abandoned its business;

(v) The dealer has pleaded guilty to or has been convicted of a felony affecting the relationship between the dealer and the supplier; or

(vi) The dealer transfers an interest in the dealership, or a person with a substantial interest in the ownership or control of the dealership, including an individual proprietor, partner or major shareholder withdraws from the dealership, dies or a substantial reduction occurs in the interest of a partner or major shareholder in the dealership. Good cause does not exist if the supplier consents to an action described in this paragraph.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a supplier shall provide a dealer with at least ninety (90) days written notice of termination. The notice shall state all reasons constituting good cause for the termination and shall state the dealer has sixty (60) days in which to cure any claimed deficiency. If the deficiency is cured within sixty (60) days, the notice shall be void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the good cause for termination is due to the dealer's failure to meet or maintain the supplier's requirements for market penetration, a reasonable period of time shall have existed where the supplier has worked with the dealer to gain the desired market share. The notice and right to cure provisions under this subsection shall not apply if the reason for termination is for any reason set forth in paragraphs (b) (i) through (vi) of this section.

40-20-117. Notice of termination of dealer agreement; cure of deficiency; approval of dealer ownership transfer; death of dealer.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a supplier shall provide a dealer at least one hundred eighty (180) days prior written notice of termination of a dealer agreement. The notice shall state all reasons constituting good cause for the termination and shall state the dealer has sixty (60) days in which to cure any claimed deficiency. If the deficiency is cured within sixty (60) days, the notice shall be void. A supplier may not terminate a dealer agreement for the reason set forth in W.S. 40-20-115(a)(viii) unless the supplier gives the dealer notice of the action at least two (2) years before the effective date of the action. If the dealer achieves the supplier's requirements for reasonable standards or performance objectives before the expiration of the two (2) year notice period, the notice shall be void and the dealer agreement shall continue in full force and effect. The notice and right to cure provisions under this section shall not apply if the reason for termination is for any reason set forth in W.S. 40-20-115(a)(i) through (vii).

(b) If a supplier has contractual authority to approve or deny a request for a sale or transfer of a dealer's business or an equity ownership interest, the supplier shall approve or deny the request within sixty (60) days after receiving a written request from the dealer. If the supplier has neither approved nor denied the request within the sixty (60) day period, the request shall be deemed approved. The dealer's request shall include reasonable financial, personal background, character references and work history information for the acquiring persons. If a supplier denies a request made pursuant to this subsection, the supplier shall provide the dealer with a written notice of the denial that states the reasons for the denial. A supplier may only deny a request based on the failure of the proposed transferee to meet the reasonable requirements consistently imposed by the supplier in determining approval of the transfer or approval of a new dealer.

(c) If a dealer dies and the supplier has contractual authority to approve or deny a request for a sale or transfer of the dealer's business or his equity ownership interest, the dealer's estate or other person with authority to transfer assets of the dealer, shall have one hundred eighty (180) days to submit to the supplier a written request for a sale or transfer of the business or equity ownership interest. If the request is timely submitted, the supplier shall approve or deny the request in accordance with subsection (b) of this section. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this chapter, any attempt by the supplier to terminate the dealer or the dealership as a result of the death of a dealer shall be delayed until there has been compliance with the terms of this subsection or the one hundred eighty (180) day period has expired, as applicable.

(d) If a supplier and dealer have executed an agreement concerning succession rights before the dealer's death and that agreement has not been revoked or otherwise terminated by either party, the agreement shall control the terms of succession even if it designates someone other than the surviving spouse or heirs of the decedent as the successor.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the dealer agreements between a single line dealer and the single line supplier.

(a) This section shall only apply to the dealer agreements between a single line dealer and a single line supplier.

(b) If a dealer dies, a supplier shall have ninety (90) days in which to consider and make a determination on a request by a family member to enter into a new dealer agreement to operate the dealership. If the supplier determines that the requesting family member is not acceptable, the supplier shall provide the family member with a written notice of its determination with the stated reasons for nonacceptance. This subsection does not entitle an heir, personal representative or family member to operate a dealership without the specific written consent of the supplier.

(c) If a supplier and dealer have executed an agreement concerning succession rights prior to the dealer's death and that agreement is still in effect, the agreement shall control the terms of succession even if it designates someone other than the surviving spouse or heirs of the decedent as the successor.

40-20-119. Reimbursement for warranty work.

(a) If a dealer submits a warranty claim to a supplier while the dealer agreement is in effect or within sixty (60) days after the termination of the dealer agreement and if the claim is for work performed before the termination or expiration of the dealer agreement, the supplier shall accept or reject the warranty claim by written notice to the dealer within thirty (30) days after the supplier's receipt of the claim. If the supplier does not reject the warranty claim in the time period specified above, the claim shall be deemed accepted. If the supplier accepts the warranty claim, the supplier shall pay or credit to the dealer's account all amounts owed with respect to the claim to the dealer within thirty (30) days after it is accepted. If the supplier rejects a warranty claim, the supplier shall give the dealer written or electronic notice of the grounds for rejection, which reasons shall be consistent with the supplier's reasons for rejecting warranty claims of other dealers, both in their terms and manner of enforcement. If no grounds for rejection are given, the claim shall be deemed accepted.

(b) Any claim which is disapproved by the supplier based upon the dealer's failure to properly follow the procedural or technical requirements for submission of warranty claims may be resubmitted in proper form by the dealer within thirty (30) days of receipt by the dealer of the supplier's notification of the disapproval.

(c) Warranty work performed by the dealer shall be compensated in accordance with the reasonable and customary amount of time required to complete the work, expressed in hours and fractions multiplied by the dealer's established customer hourly retail labor rate, which shall have previously been made known to the supplier. Parts used in warranty repair work shall be reimbursed at the current net price plus fifteen percent (15%).

(d) For purposes of this chapter, any repair work or installation of replacement parts performed with respect to the dealer's equipment in inventory or equipment of the dealer's customers at the request of the supplier, including work performed pursuant to a product improvement program, shall be deemed to create a warranty claim for which the dealer shall be paid pursuant to this section.

(e) A supplier may audit warranty claims submitted by its dealers for a period of up to one (1) year following payment of the claims, and may charge back to its dealers any amounts paid based upon claims shown by the audit to be misrepresented. If a warranty claim is misrepresented, then warranty claims submitted within the three (3) year period ending with the date a claim is shown by the audit to be misrepresented may be audited.

(f) The requirements of subsections (a) through (c) of this section apply to all warranty claims submitted by a dealer to a supplier in which the dealer has complied with the supplier's reasonable policies and procedures for warranty reimbursement. A supplier's warranty reimbursement policies and procedures shall be deemed unreasonable to the extent they conflict with any of the provisions of this section.

(g) A dealer may choose to accept alternate reimbursement terms and conditions in lieu of the requirements of subsections (a) through (c) of this section if there is a written dealer agreement between the supplier and the dealer that requires the supplier to compensate the dealer for warranty labor costs either as:

(i) A discount in the pricing of the equipment to the dealer; or

(ii) A lump sum payment to the dealer that is made to the dealer within ninety (90) days of the sale of the supplier's new equipment.

(h) The discount or lump sum described in subsection (g) of this section shall be no less than five percent (5%) of the suggested retail price of the equipment. If the requirements of subsections (g) and (h) of this section are met and alternate terms and conditions are in place, subsections (a) through (c) of this section do not apply and the alternate terms and conditions are enforceable. Nothing contained in this subsection or subsection (g) of this section shall be deemed to effect the supplier's obligation to reimburse the dealer for parts in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.

40-20-120. Repurchase obligations of supplier on cancellation or discontinuance of dealer agreement.

(a) Whenever any dealer enters into a dealer agreement with a supplier and either the supplier or the dealer desires to cancel, not renew or otherwise discontinue the dealer agreement, the supplier shall pay to the dealer or credit to the dealer's account, if the dealer has outstanding any sums owing the supplier, unless the dealer should desire to keep the equipment or repair parts:

(i) A sum equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the net equipment cost of all new, unsold, undamaged equipment, one hundred percent (100%) of the net equipment cost of all unsold, undamaged demonstrators, less a downward adjustment to reflect a reasonable allowance for depreciation due to usage of the demonstrators, which adjustment shall be based on published industry rental rates to the extent such rates are available and ninety-five percent (95%) of the current net parts prices on new, unsold, undamaged repair parts that had previously been purchased from the supplier and held by the dealer on the date the dealer agreement terminates or expires. Demonstrators with less than fifty (50) hours of use for machines with hour meters, shall be considered new, unsold or undamaged equipment subject to repurchase under this paragraph;

(ii) A sum equal to five percent (5%) of the current net parts price of all repair parts returned to compensate the dealer for the handling, packing and loading of the repair parts for return to the supplier. The five percent (5%) shall not be paid or credited to the dealer if the supplier elects to perform the handling, packing and loading of the repair parts;

(iii) The fair market value of any specific data processing hardware or software the supplier required the dealer to acquire or purchase to satisfy the requirements of the supplier, including computer equipment required and approved by the supplier to communicate with the supplier. Fair market value of property subject to repurchase pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed to be the acquisition cost, including any shipping, handling and setup fees, less straight line depreciation of the acquisition cost over three (3) years. If the dealer purchased data processing hardware or software that exceeded the supplier's minimum requirements, the acquisition cost of the data processing hardware or software shall be deemed to be the acquisition cost of hardware or software of similar quality that did not exceed the minimum requirements of the supplier;

(iv) A supplier shall repurchase specialized repair tools at a price equal to seventy-five percent (75%) of the total invoice amount charged by the supplier to the dealer.

(b) Upon the payment or allowance of credit to the dealer's account of the sums required by this section, the title to all inventory purchased hereunder shall pass to the supplier making the payment and the supplier shall be entitled to the possession of the inventory. All payments or allowances of credit due dealers shall be paid or credited within ninety (90) days after receipt by the supplier of property required to be repurchased. Any payments or allowances of credit due dealers that are not paid within the ninety (90) day period shall accrue interest at the maximum rate allowed by law. The supplier may withhold payments due under this subsection during the period of time in which the dealer fails to comply with its contractual obligations to remove any signage indicating the dealer is an authorized dealer of the supplier.

(c) If any supplier refuses to repurchase any inventory covered under the provisions of this chapter after cancellation, nonrenewal or discontinuance of the dealer agreement, the supplier shall be civilly liable to the dealer for one hundred ten percent (110%) of the amount that would have been due for the inventory if the supplier had timely complied with this chapter, any freight charges paid by the dealer, interest accrued and the dealer's actual costs of any court or arbitration proceeding, including costs for attorney fees and costs of arbitrators.

(d) The supplier and dealer shall each pay fifty percent (50%) of the costs of freight, at truckload rates, to ship any equipment or repair parts returned to the supplier pursuant to this chapter.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the uniform commercial code adopted by this state, the dealer shall retain a first and prior lien against all inventory returned by the dealer to the supplier under the provisions of this chapter until the dealer is paid all amounts owed by the supplier for the repurchase of the inventory required under the provisions of this chapter. The dealer's lien under this subsection shall constitute a perfected security interest for a period of six (6) years without the filing of a financing statement.

(f) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to affect in any way any security interest which the supplier may have in the inventory of the dealer, and any repurchase hereunder shall not be subject to the provisions of the bulk sales law or to the claims of any secured or unsecured creditors of the supplier or any assignee of the supplier until the time the dealer has received full payment or credit, as applicable.

(a) The provisions of this chapter shall not require the repurchase from a dealer of:

(i) Any repair part in a broken or damaged package. The supplier shall be required to repurchase a repair part in a broken or damaged package, for a repurchase price that is equal to eighty-five percent (85%) of the current net price for the repair part, if the aggregate current net price for the entire package of repair parts is seventy-five dollars ($75.00) or higher;

(ii) Any repair part which because of its condition is not resalable as a new part without repackaging or reconditioning;

(iii) Any inventory the dealer is unable to furnish evidence, satisfactory to the supplier, of clear title, free and clear of all claims, liens and encumbrances;

(iv) Any inventory the dealer desires to keep, provided the dealer has a contractual right to do so;

(v) Any equipment or repair parts not in new, unsold, undamaged or complete condition, subject to the provisions of this chapter relating to demonstrators;

(vi) Any equipment delivered to the dealer prior to the beginning of the thirty-six (36) month period immediately preceding the date of notification of termination;

(vii) Any equipment or repair parts ordered by the dealer on or after the date of notification of termination;

(viii) Any equipment or repair parts acquired by the dealer from any source other than the supplier unless the equipment or repair parts were ordered from or invoiced to the dealer by the supplier; or

(ix) Any equipment or repair parts not returned to the supplier within ninety (90) days after the later of:

(A) The effective date of termination of a dealer agreement; and

(B) The date the dealer receives from the supplier all information, documents or supporting materials required by the supplier to comply with the supplier's return policy. This subparagraph shall not be applicable to a dealer if the supplier did not give the dealer notice of the ninety (90) day deadline at the time the applicable notice of termination was sent to the dealer.

40-20-122. Remedies and enforcement.

If the supplier violates any provision of this chapter, the dealer may bring an action against the supplier in a court of competent jurisdiction for damages sustained by the dealer as a consequence of the supplier's violation, including, but not limited to, damages for lost profits, together with the actual costs of the action, including the attorney fees and costs of arbitrators. The dealer may also be granted injunctive relief against unlawful termination. The remedies set forth in this section shall not be deemed exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedies permitted by law.

40-20-123. Choice of remedies; exemption from tax.

(a) The provisions of this chapter shall be supplemental to any dealer agreement between the dealer and the supplier which provides the dealer with greater protection. The dealer can elect to pursue its contract remedy or the remedy provided by state law, or both. An election by the dealer to pursue these remedies shall not bar its right to exercise any other remedies that may be granted at law or in equity.

(b) Any repurchase under this chapter is not subject to sales or use tax.

40-21-103. Scope.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, this act applies to electronic records and electronic signatures relating to a transaction.

(b) This act does not apply to a transaction to the extent it is governed by:

(i) A law governing the creation and execution of wills, codicils or testamentary trusts;

(ii) The Uniform Commercial Code other than W.S. 34.1-1-107 and 34.1-1-206, article 2 and article 2A; and

(iii) The Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act.

(c) This act applies to an electronic record or electronic signature otherwise excluded from the application of this act under subsection (b) of this section to the extent it is governed by a law other than those specified in subsection (b) of this section.

(d) A transaction subject to this act is also subject to other applicable substantive law.

40-21-104. Applicability.

(a) This act applies to any electronic record or electronic signature created, generated, sent, communicated, received or stored on or after July 1, 2001.

(b) The Financial Technology Sandbox Act shall apply to this act.

40-21-105. Use of electronic records and electronic signatures, variation by agreement.

(a) This act does not require a record or signature to be created, generated, sent, communicated, received, stored or otherwise processed or used by electronic means or in electronic form.

(b) This act applies only to transactions between parties each of which has agreed to conduct transactions by electronic means. Whether the parties agree to conduct a transaction by electronic means is determined from the context and surrounding circumstances, including the parties' conduct.

(c) A party that agrees to conduct a transaction by electronic means may refuse to conduct other transactions by electronic means. The right granted by this subsection may not be waived by agreement.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this act, the effect of any of its provisions may be varied by agreement. The presence in certain provisions of this act of the words "unless otherwise agreed", or words of similar import, does not imply that the effect of other provisions may not be varied by agreement.

(e) Whether an electronic record or electronic signature has legal consequences is determined by this act and other applicable law.

40-21-106. Construction and application.

(a) This act must be construed and applied:

(i) To facilitate electronic transactions consistent with other applicable law;

(ii) To be consistent with reasonable practices concerning electronic transactions and with the continued expansion of those practices; and

(iii) To effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this act among states enacting it.

40-21-107. Legal recognition of electronic records, electronic signatures and electronic contracts.

(a) A record or signature may not be denied legal effect or enforceability solely because it is in electronic form.

(b) A contract may not be denied legal effect or enforceability solely because an electronic record was used in its formation.

(c) If a law requires a record to be in writing, an electronic record satisfies the law.

(d) If a law requires a signature, an electronic signature satisfies the law.

40-21-108. Provisions of information in writing; presentation of records.

(a) If parties have agreed to conduct a transaction by electronic means and a law requires a person to provide, send, or deliver information in writing to another person, the requirement is satisfied if the information is provided, sent or delivered, as the case may be, in an electronic record capable of retention by the recipient at the time of receipt. An electronic record is not capable of retention by the recipient if the sender or its information processing system inhibits the ability of the recipient to print or store the electronic record.

(b) If a law other than this act requires a record to be posted or displayed in a certain manner, to be sent, communicated or transmitted by a specified method or to contain information that is formatted in a certain manner, the following rules apply:

(i) The record must be posted or displayed in the manner specified in the other law;

(ii) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (d)(ii) of this section, the record must be sent, communicated or transmitted by the method specified in the other law;

(iii) The record must contain the information formatted in the manner specified in the other law.

(c) If a sender inhibits the ability of a recipient to store or print an electronic record, the electronic record is not enforceable against the recipient.

(d) The requirements of this section may not be varied by agreement, but:

(i) To the extent a law other than this act requires information to be provided, sent or delivered in writing but permits that requirement to be varied by agreement, the requirement under subsection (a) of this section that the information be in the form of an electronic record capable of retention may also be varied by agreement; and

(ii) A requirement under a law other than this act to send, communicate or transmit a record by first-class mail, postage prepaid or regular United States mail, may be varied by agreement to the extent permitted by the other law.

40-21-109. Attribution and effect of electronic record and electronic signature.

(a) An electronic record or electronic signature is attributable to a person if it was the act of the person. The act of the person may be shown in any manner, including a showing of the efficacy of any security procedure applied to determine the person to which the electronic record or electronic signature was attributable.

(b) The effect of an electronic record or electronic signature attributed to a person under subsection (a) of this section is determined from the context and surrounding circumstances at the time of its creation, execution or adoption, including the parties' agreement, if any, and otherwise as provided by law.

40-21-110. Effect of change or error.

(a) If a change or error in an electronic record occurs in a transmission between parties to a transaction, the following rules apply:

(i) If the parties have agreed to use a security procedure to detect changes or errors and one (1) party has conformed to the procedure, but the other party has not, and the nonconforming party would have detected the change or error had that party also conformed, the conforming party may avoid the effect of the changed or erroneous electronic record;

(ii) In an automated transaction involving an individual, the individual may avoid the effect of an electronic record that resulted from an error made by the individual in dealing with the electronic agent of another person if the electronic agent did not provide an opportunity for the prevention or correction of the error and, at the time the individual learns of the error, the individual:

(A) Promptly notifies the other person of the error and that the individual did not intend to be bound by the electronic record received by the other person;

(B) Takes reasonable steps, including steps that conform to the other person's reasonable instructions, to return to the other person or, if instructed by the other person, to destroy the consideration received, if any, as a result of the erroneous electronic record; and

(C) Has not used or received any benefit or value from the consideration, if any, received from the other person.

(iii) If neither paragraph (i) nor (ii) of this subsection applies, the change or error has the effect provided by other law, including the law of mistake, and the parties' contract, if any;

(iv) Paragraphs (ii) and (iii) of this subsection may not be varied by agreement.

40-21-111. Notarization and acknowledgment.

If a law requires a signature or record to be notarized, acknowledged, verified or made under oath, the requirement is satisfied if the electronic signature of the person authorized to perform those acts, together with all other information required to be included by other applicable law, is attached to or logically associated with the signature or record.

40-21-112. Retention to electronic records, originals.

(a) If a law requires that a record be retained, the requirement is satisfied by retaining an electronic record of the information in the record which:

(i) Accurately reflects the information set forth in the record after it was first generated in its final form as an electronic record or otherwise; and

(ii) Remains accessible for later reference.

(b) A requirement to retain a record in accordance with subsection (a) of this section does not apply to any information the sole purpose of which is to enable the record to be sent, communicated or received.

(c) A person may satisfy subsection (a) of this section by using the services of another person if the requirements of that subsection are satisfied.

(d) If a law requires a record to be presented or retained in its original form, or provides consequences if the record is not presented or retained in its original form, that law is satisfied by an electronic record retained in accordance with subsection (a) of this section.

(e) If a law requires retention of a check, that requirement is satisfied by retention of an electronic record of the information on the front and back of the check in accordance with subsection (a) of this section.

(f) A record retained as an electronic record in accordance with subsection (a) of this section satisfies a law requiring a person to retain a record for evidentiary, audit or like purposes, unless a law enacted after the effective date of this act specifically prohibits the use of an electronic record for the specified purpose.

(g) This section does not preclude a governmental agency of this state from specifying additional requirements for the retention of a record subject to the agency's jurisdiction.

40-21-113. Admissibility in evidence.

In a proceeding, evidence of a record or signature may not be excluded solely because it is in electronic form.

40-21-114. Automated transaction.

(a) In an automated transaction, the following rules apply:

(i) A contract may be formed by the interaction of electronic agents of the parties, even if no individual was aware of or reviewed the electronic agents' actions or the resulting terms and agreements;

(ii) A contract may be formed by the interaction of an electronic agent and an individual, acting on the individual's own behalf or for another person, including by an interaction in which the individual performs actions that the individual is free to refuse to perform and which the individual knows or has reason to know will cause the electronic agent to complete the transaction or performance;

(iii) The terms of the contract are determined by the substantive law applicable to it.

40-21-115. Time and place of sending and receipt.

(a) Unless otherwise agreed between the sender and the recipient, an electronic record is sent when it:

(i) Is addressed properly or otherwise directed properly to an information processing system that the recipient has designated or uses for the purpose of receiving electronic records or information of the type sent and from which the recipient is able to retrieve the electronic record;

(ii) Is in a form capable of being processed by that system; and

(iii) Enters an information processing system outside the control of the sender or of a person that sent the electronic record on behalf of the sender or enters a region of the information processing system designated or used by the recipient which is under the control of the recipient.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed between a sender and the recipient, an electronic record is received when:

(i) It enters an information processing system that the recipient has designated or uses for the purpose of receiving electronic records or information of the type sent and from which the recipient is able to retrieve the electronic record; and

(ii) It is in a form capable of being processed by that system.

(c) Subsection (b) of this section applies even if the place the information processing system is located is different from the place the electronic record is deemed to be received under subsection (d) of this section.

(d) Unless otherwise expressly provided in the electronic record or agreed between the sender and the recipient, an electronic record is deemed to be sent from the sender's place of business and to be received at the recipient's place of business. For purposes of this subsection, the following rules apply:

(i) If the sender or recipient has more than one (1) place of business, the place of business of that person is the place having the closest relationship to the underlying transaction;

(ii) If the sender or the recipient does not have a place of business, the place of business is the sender's or recipient's residence, as the case may be.

(e) An electronic record is received under subsection (b) of this section even if no individual is aware of its receipt.

(f) Receipt of an electronic acknowledgment from an information processing system described in subsection (b) of this section establishes that a record was received but, by itself, does not establish that the content sent corresponds to the content received.

(g) If a person is aware that an electronic record purportedly sent under subsection (a) of this section, or purportedly received under subsection (b) of this section, was not actually sent or received, the legal effect of the sending or receipt is determined by other applicable law. Except to the extent permitted by the other law, the requirements of this subsection may not be varied by agreement.

40-21-116. Transferable records.

(a) In this section, "transferable record" means an electronic record that:

(i) Would be a note under article 3 of the Uniform Commercial Code or a document under article 7 of the Uniform Commercial Code if the electronic record were in writing; and

(ii) The issuer of the electronic record expressly has agreed is a transferable record.

(b) A person has control of a transferable record if a system employed for evidencing the transfer of interests in the transferable record reliably establishes that person as the person to which the transferable record was issued or transferred.

(c) A system satisfies subsection (b) of this section, and a person is deemed to have control of a transferable record, if the transferable record is created, stored and assigned in such a manner that:

(i) A single authoritative copy of the transferable record exists which is unique, identifiable and, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (iv), (v) and (vi) of this subsection, unalterable;

(ii) The authoritative copy identifies the person asserting control as:

(A) The person to which the transferable record was issued; or

(B) If the authoritative copy indicates that the transferable record has been transferred, the person to which the transferable record was most recently transferred.

(iii) The authoritative copy is communicated to and maintained by the person asserting control or its designated custodian;

(iv) Copies or revisions that add or change an identified assignee of the authoritative copy can be made only with the consent of the person asserting control;

(v) Each copy of the authoritative copy and any copy of a copy is readily identifiable as a copy that is not the authoritative copy; and

(vi) Any revision of the authoritative copy is readily identifiable as authorized or unauthorized.

(d) Except as otherwise agreed, a person having control of a transferable record is the holder, as defined in W.S. 34.1-1-201(a)(xx), of the transferable record and has the same rights and defenses as a holder of an equivalent record or writing under the Uniform Commercial Code, including, if the applicable statutory requirements under W.S. 34.1-3-302(a), 34.1-7-501 or 34.1-9-308 of the Uniform Commercial Code are satisfied, the rights and defenses of a holder in due course, a holder to which a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated, or a purchaser, respectively. Delivery, possession and indorsement are not required to obtain or exercise any of the rights under this subsection.

(e) Except as otherwise agreed, an obligor under a transferable record has the same rights and defenses as an equivalent obligor under equivalent records or writings under the Uniform Commercial Code.

(f) If requested by a person against which enforcement is sought, the person seeking to enforce the transferable record shall provide reasonable proof that the person is in control of the transferable record. Proof may include access to the authoritative copy of the transferable record and related business records sufficient to review the terms of the transferable record and to establish the identity of the person having control of the transferable record.

40-21-117. Creation and retention of electronic records and conversion of written records by government agencies.

Each governmental agency shall determine whether, and the extent to which, a governmental agency will create and retain electronic records and convert written records to electronic records.

40-21-118. Acceptance and distribution of electronic records by governmental agencies.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in W.S. 40-21-112(f), each governmental agency of this state shall determine whether, and the extent to which, governmental agency will send and accept electronic records and electronic signatures to and from other persons and otherwise create, generate, communicate, store, process, use and rely upon electronic records and electronic signatures.

(b) To the extent that a governmental agency uses electronic records and electronic signatures under subsection (a) of this section, the department of enterprise technology services shall promulgate rules in accordance with the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act to specify for state agencies:

(i) The manner and format in which the electronic records must be created, generated, sent, communicated, received and stored and the systems established for those purposes;

(ii) If electronic records must be signed by electronic means, the type of electronic signature required, the manner and format in which the electronic signature must be affixed to the electronic record and the identity of, or criteria that must be met by, any third party used by a person filing a document to facilitate the process;

(iii) Control processes and procedures as appropriate to ensure adequate preservation, disposition, integrity, security, confidentiality and auditability of electronic records; and

(iv) Any other required attributes for electronic records which are specified for corresponding nonelectronic records or reasonably necessary under the circumstances.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in W.S. 40-21-112(f), this act does not require a governmental agency of this state to use or permit the use of electronic records or electronic signatures.

40-21-119. Interoperability.

The department of enterprise technology services in adopting standards pursuant to W.S. 40-21-118 may encourage and promote consistency and interoperability with similar requirements adopted by other governmental agencies of this and other states and the federal government and nongovernmental persons interacting with governmental agencies of this state. If appropriate, those standards may specify differing levels of standards from which governmental agencies of this state may choose in implementing the most appropriate standard for a particular application.

(f) Every licensee shall license and maintain a home office as a principal location for the transaction of mortgage business. A separate license shall be required for each place of business from which mortgage brokering activities or mortgage lending activities are directly or indirectly conducted. The commissioner may issue additional licenses to the same applicant upon compliance with all the provisions of this act governing the issuance of a single license. Each license shall remain in full force and effect unless the licensee does not satisfy the renewal requirements of W.S. 40-23-109, or the license is relinquished, suspended or revoked. Licenses shall be terminated upon the relinquishment or revocation of a home office license.

(g) No licensee shall change the location of any place of business, consolidate two (2) or more locations, open a new location or close any location, without giving the commissioner prior written notice and paying a license modification fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) as set by rule of the commissioner.

The license is not transferable nor assignable to the new persons in control of the licensee.

(d) Before filing a request for approval to acquire control, a person may request in writing a determination from the commissioner as to whether the person would be considered a person in control of a licensee upon consummation of a proposed transaction. If the commissioner determines that the person would not be a person in control of a licensee, the commissioner shall enter an order stating the proposed person and transaction is not subject to the requirements of subsections (a) through (c) of this section.

40-23-109. License renewal and annual report.

(a) All licensees shall maintain a surety bond to the state of Wyoming in accordance with this section. The surety bond shall be used to cover individual loan originators employed or under contract with a licensee. The bond to be maintained shall be in the amount:

(i) Until December 31, 2009, of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00). This amount shall be increased by an additional sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) for each licensed office;

(ii) Effective January 1, 2010, as established by rule of the commissioner based upon the volume of business activity transacted by the licensee under this act.

(b) The surety bond shall be a continuing obligation of the issuing surety. The surety's liability under the bond for any claims made under the bond either individually or in the aggregate shall in no event exceed the face amount of the bond issued. The bond shall be issued by a surety authorized to do business in the state of Wyoming. The bond, including any and all riders and endorsements executed subsequent to the effective date of the bond, shall be placed on file with the commissioner.

(c) In the event that a licensee or person employed by or under contract with a licensee has violated any of the provisions of this act or of a rule or order lawfully made pursuant to this act, or federal law or regulation pertaining to the mortgage lending or mortgage brokering, and has damaged any person by such violation, then the bond shall be forfeited and paid by the surety to the state of Wyoming for the benefit of any person so damaged, in an amount sufficient to satisfy the violation or the bond in its entirety if the violation exceeds the amount of the bond.

(d) Surety bonds shall remain effective continuously until released in writing by the commissioner. If a bond has not been previously released by the commissioner, the bond shall expire two (2) years after the date of the surrender, revocation or expiration of the license.

40-23-111. Examinations and investigations.

(a) The commissioner may conduct examinations of any licensee under this act at intervals he deems necessary to determine compliance with this act and other applicable laws, rules and regulations.

(b) The commissioner may at any time investigate the loans or business books and records of any licensee or person engaged in mortgage lending or mortgage brokering activities for the purpose of determining compliance with this act or securing information required under this act. For these purposes, the commissioner shall have free and reasonable access to the offices, places of business, books and records of the licensee.

(c) If a licensee's or person's records are located outside this state, the licensee or person shall have the option to make them available to the commissioner at a convenient location within this state, or pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the commissioner or his representative to examine them at the place where they are maintained. The commissioner may designate representatives, including comparable officials of the state in which the records are located, to inspect them on his behalf.

(d) Each licensee or person subject to examination or investigation under this act shall pay to the commissioner an amount assessed by the commissioner to cover the direct and indirect cost of examinations or investigations conducted pursuant to this section not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) per hour.

40-23-112. Records; confidentiality of records; exception.

(a) Every licensee shall maintain records in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in a manner that will enable the commissioner to determine whether the licensee is complying with the provisions of this act. The recordkeeping system of a licensee shall be sufficient if he makes the required information available. The records need not be kept in the place of business where residential mortgage loans are made, if the commissioner is given free access to the records wherever located. The records pertaining to any loan shall be retained

(e) The commissioner may enter into contracts with any mortgage lending or mortgage brokering supervisory agency having concurrent jurisdiction over a Wyoming licensee pursuant to this act to engage the services of the agency's examiners at a reasonable rate of compensation. Any such contract shall not be subject to the provisions of W.S. 9-2-3204(b).

(f) Except as provided in P.L. 110-289, section 1512, the requirements under any federal law or state law regarding the privacy or confidentiality of any information or material provided to the registry, and any privilege arising under federal or state law, including the rules of any federal or state court, with respect to such information or material, shall continue to apply to such information or material after the information or material has been disclosed to the registry. Such information and any other confidential material obtained by the commissioner may be shared with all state and federal regulatory officials with mortgage industry oversight authority without the loss of privilege or the loss of confidentiality protections provided by federal law or any state law.

(g) Information or material that is subject to a privilege or confidentiality under subsection (f) of this section shall not be subject to:

(i) Disclosure under any federal or state law governing the disclosure to the public of information held by an officer or agency of the federal government or the respective state; or

(j) This section shall not apply with respect to the information or material relating to the employment history of, and publicly adjudicated disciplinary and enforcement actions against, any mortgage loan originator that is included in the registry for access by the public.

(k) This section does not prohibit the commissioner from disclosing to the public a list of persons licensed under this act.

(a) Within three (3) working days of taking a mortgage loan application and prior to receiving any consideration, other than third party fees, from the borrower, the mortgage lender shall:

(i) Disclose the terms of the loan to the borrower in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the federal Truth-in-Lending Act, its associated regulations, and the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act and its associated regulations and any other applicable federal and state requirements;

(ii) If a prepayment penalty may be a condition of the residential mortgage loan offered to a borrower, that fact shall be separately disclosed in writing to the borrower and the borrower shall agree in writing to accept that condition. The disclosure shall state that a prepayment penalty provision imposes a charge if the borrower refinances or pays off the mortgage loan before the date for repayment stated in the loan agreement. The written disclosure shall be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall initially be delivered along with the good faith estimate of settlement costs within three (3) business days after accepting an application from the borrower. The disclosure shall subsequently be provided by the lender and signed by the borrower at the same time the borrower is given the final federal Truth-in-Lending Act disclosure.

(b) With the exception of a loan cancellation fee, a licensed mortgage lender shall not require a borrower to pay any fees or charges prior to a residential mortgage loan closing, except:

(i) Charges actually incurred by the licensee on behalf of the borrower for services which have been rendered by third parties necessary to process the application. These fees may include, but are not limited to, fees for credit reports, flood insurance certifications, property inspections, title insurance commitments, uniform commercial code article 4 lien searches, and appraisals;

(ii) A rate lock in fee; and

(iii) A commitment fee upon approval of the residential mortgage loan.

(c) A loan cancellation fee may be charged and collected by a licensee at any time either prior to the scheduled closing of a residential mortgage loan transaction or subsequent thereto.

(d) Any fees charged under the authority of this section shall be reasonable and customary as to the type and the amount of the fee charged.

(e) A mortgage lender shall not receive any fee that inures to the benefit of the mortgage lender, either directly or indirectly, if the fee exceeds the fee disclosed on the most recent good faith estimate unless:

(i) The need to charge the higher fee was not reasonably foreseeable at the time the good faith estimate was written; and

(ii) The mortgage lender has provided to the borrower, no less than three (3) business days prior to the signing of the mortgage loan closing documents, a new good faith estimate of settlement costs, a clear written explanation of the increase in the fee and the reason for charging a fee that exceeds the fee which was previously disclosed.

(f) If the fee was originally disclosed as a percentage of the mortgage loan amount and the dollar amount of the fee increases because the mortgage loan amount increases, but the fee as a percentage of the mortgage loan amount does not change, then no redisclosure shall be required unless the fee increased by more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

40-23-114. Disclosure of mortgage broker fees.

(a) Within three (3) business days of a borrower signing a completed mortgage loan application and before the borrower provides any consideration to the licensee, the licensee shall execute and deliver to the borrower a mortgage brokerage agreement. The mortgage brokerage agreement shall be in writing, signed and dated by both the borrower and the authorized representative of the licensed mortgage broker whose services to the borrower constitute mortgage brokering and shall contain the following information:

(ii) That the mortgage broker cannot guarantee acceptance into any particular mortgage loan program or promise any specific mortgage loan terms or conditions;

(iii) A good faith estimate of the fees to be collected, including a credit report fee, property appraisal fee or any other third party fee;

(iv) The terms and conditions for obtaining a refund of any fees or arranging for the transfer of third party service work products to another mortgage lender or mortgage broker, if any. The amount of any fees collected in excess of the actual cost shall be returned within sixty (60) days after rejection, withdrawal of an application or closing of the loan.

(b) The mortgage brokerage agreement shall be the only agreement between the borrower and licensee with respect to a single mortgage loan transaction, except that the licensed mortgage broker shall also provide to the borrower disclosure statements necessary to comply with the federal Truth-in-Lending Act and its associated regulations, the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act and its associated regulations, and any other applicable federal and state requirements.

(c) A licensed mortgage broker shall not require a borrower to pay any fees or charges prior to the mortgage loan closing, except charges actually incurred by the licensed mortgage broker on behalf of the borrower for services from third parties necessary to process the mortgage loan application, such as credit reports and appraisals.

(d) A mortgage broker shall not receive any fee that inures to the benefit of the mortgage broker, either directly or indirectly if it exceeds the fee disclosed on the most recent good faith estimate unless:

(i) The need to charge the higher fee was not reasonably foreseeable at the time the good faith estimate was written; and

(ii) The mortgage broker has provided to the borrower, no less than three (3) business days prior to the signing of the mortgage loan closing documents, a new good faith estimate of settlement costs, a clear written explanation of the increase in the fee and the reason for charging a fee that exceeds that which was previously disclosed.

(e) If the fee was originally disclosed as a percentage of the mortgage loan amount, and the dollar amount of the fee increases because the mortgage loan amount increases, but the fee as a percentage of the mortgage loan amount does not change, then no redisclosure shall be required unless the fee increased by more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

(f) Any fees charged under the authority of this section shall be reasonable and customary as to the type and the amount of the fee charged.

40-23-115. Loan commitments; prepayment penalty disclosure by mortgage broker.

(a) A mortgage broker may issue a loan commitment and may furnish a lock-in of the interest rate and program on behalf of the mortgage lender when the mortgage broker has obtained a written or electronically transmitted loan commitment or lock-in for the mortgage loan from the mortgage lender on behalf of the borrower. The loan commitment issued by the mortgage broker to the borrower on behalf of the mortgage lender shall be in the same form and substance as issued by the mortgage lender and shall identify the mortgage lender by name.

The disclosure shall state that a prepayment penalty provision imposes a charge if the borrower refinances or pays off the mortgage loan before the date for repayment stated in the loan agreement. The written disclosure shall be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall be delivered as soon as the condition is known, but no later than the issuance of a commitment, for the mortgage loan product chosen by the borrower.

All trust account funds collected under this act shall remain on deposit in a noninterest bearing trust account until disbursement. The trust account shall be designated and maintained for the benefit of borrowers. Monies maintained in the trust account shall be exempt from execution, attachment or garnishment. A mortgage lender or mortgage broker shall not in any way encumber the corpus of the trust account or commingle any other operating funds with trust account funds. Withdrawals from the trust account shall be only for the payment of bona fide services rendered by a third party provider or for refunds to a borrower.

40-23-117. Prohibited practices.

(a) No licensee or person required to have a license shall:

(i) Pay compensation to, contract with or employ in any manner, any person engaged in mortgage lending or brokering activities who is not properly licensed unless such person is exempt under W.S. 40-23-105;

(ii) Obtain any exclusive dealing or exclusive agency agreement from any borrower;

(vi) Engage in any misrepresentation in connection with a residential mortgage loan;

(vii) Directly or indirectly make any statement regarding value, except that a copy of the sales contract for purchase transactions may be provided, or make or provide payment of any kind to any in-house or fee appraiser for the purpose of influencing the independent judgment of the appraiser with respect to the value of any real estate which is to be covered by a residential mortgage loan;

(viii) Make any false promises likely to influence or persuade, or pursue a course of misrepresentations and false promises through agents, solicitors, advertising or otherwise;

(ix) Misrepresent, circumvent or conceal any of the material particulars or the nature thereof, regarding a transaction to which it is a party;

(x) Enter into any agreement, with or without the payment of a fee, to fix in advance a particular interest rate or other term in a residential mortgage loan unless written confirmation of the agreement is delivered to the borrower.

40-23-118. License suspension or revocation.

(a) The commissioner may suspend, not to exceed six (6) months, or revoke a license if the commissioner finds:

(i) Any fact or condition exists that, if it had existed at the time when the licensee applied for its license, would have been grounds for denying the application;

(ii) The licensee violated any provision of this act or any rule or order validly promulgated by the commissioner;

(iii) The licensee is conducting its business in an unsafe or unsound manner;

(iv) The licensee refuses to permit the commissioner to make any examination authorized by this act;

(ix) The licensee or any partner, officer, director, manager or employee of the licensee has had a license substantially equivalent to a license under this act, and issued by another state, denied, revoked or suspended under the laws of that state;

(x) The licensee has filed an application for a license which as of the date the license was issued, or as of the date of an order denying, suspending or revoking a license, was incomplete in any material respect or contained any statement that was, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act, if the commissioner finds that probable cause for revocation of a license exists and that enforcement of this act and the public interest require immediate suspension of the license pending investigation, he may, after a hearing upon five (5) days written notice, enter an order suspending the license for not more than thirty (30) days.

(c) The commissioner may, in his discretion, reinstate a license, terminate a suspension or grant a new license to a person whose license has been revoked or suspended if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would justify the commissioner in refusing to grant a license.

(d) For purposes of this section, "licensee" shall also mean a licensed mortgage loan originator pursuant to W.S. 40-23-124.

40-23-119. Orders to cease and desist.

(a) If the commissioner determines that a violation of this act or of a rule adopted or an order issued under this act by a licensee is likely to cause immediate and irreparable harm to the licensee, its customers or the public as a result of the violation or cause insolvency of the licensee, the commissioner may issue an order requiring the licensee to cease and desist from the violation. The order becomes effective upon service upon the licensee.

(b) If the commissioner determines that a person is conducting mortgage lending or mortgage brokering activities governed under this act without a valid license, the commissioner may issue an order requiring the unlicensed person to cease and desist from mortgage lending or mortgage brokering activities. The order becomes effective upon service upon the unlicensed person.

(c) Before issuing a final cease and desist order under subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the commissioner shall serve notice of intent to issue the order upon the person being ordered to cease and desist. The notice shall be in writing and shall direct the person to discontinue the violations of law and cease and desist mortgage lending or mortgage brokering activities. The notice shall be served by certified mail return receipt requested to the last known address of the person or shall be served as provided by the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure. Notice of the order shall include:

(f) An order to cease and desist remains effective and enforceable pending the completion of an administrative proceeding pursuant to the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act.

(g) A person served with an order to cease and desist for violating this act may petition the district court for a judicial order setting aside, limiting or suspending the enforcement, operation or effectiveness of the order pending the completion of an administrative proceeding pursuant to the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act.

(h) The commissioner shall commence a contested case proceeding within twenty (20) days after issuing an order to cease and desist.

40-23-120. Consent orders.

The commissioner may enter into a consent order at any time with a person to resolve a matter arising under this act. A consent order shall be signed by the person to whom it is issued or by the person's authorized representative and shall indicate agreement with the terms contained in the order. A consent order may provide that it does not constitute an admission by a person that this act or a rule adopted or an order issued under this act has been violated.

40-23-121. Civil penalties.

The commissioner may impose a civil penalty upon a person who violates this act or a rule adopted or an order issued under this act in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) per day for each day the violation is outstanding, plus the state's costs and expenses for the investigation and prosecution of the matter, including reasonable attorney's fees. Any penalties collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the public school fund of the appropriate county as required by article 7, section 5 of the Wyoming constitution.

40-23-122. Criminal penalties.

(d) A loan processor or underwriter who is an independent contractor may not engage in the activities of a loan processor or underwriter unless the independent contractor, loan processor or underwriter obtains and maintains a license pursuant to subsection (a) of this section. CHAPTER 24 - UNIFORM TRADE SECRETS ACT

40-24-101. Definitions.

(a) As used in this act, unless the context requires otherwise:

(i) "Improper means" includes theft, bribery, misrepresentation, breach or inducement of a breach of duty to maintain secrecy or espionage through electronic or other means;

(ii) "Misappropriation" means:

(A) Acquisition of a trade secret of another by a person who knows or has reason to know that the trade secret was acquired by improper means; or

(B) Disclosure or use of a trade secret of another without express or implied consent by a person who:

(I) Used improper means to acquire knowledge of the trade secret;

(II) Before a material change of his position, knew or had reason to know that it was a trade secret and that knowledge of it had been acquired by accident or mistake; or

(III) At the time of disclosure or use knew or had reason to know that his knowledge of the trade secret was:

(1) Derived from or through a person who has utilized improper means to acquire it;

(2) Acquired under circumstances giving rise to a duty to maintain its secrecy or limit its use; or

(3) Derived from or through a person who owed a duty to the person seeking relief to maintain its secrecy or limit its use.

(iii) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision or agency or any other legal or commercial entity;

(iv) "Trade secret" means information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program device, method, technique or process that:

(A) Derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and

(B) Is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

(v) "This act" means W.S. 40-24-101 through 40-24-110.

40-24-102. Injunctive relief.

(a) Actual or threatened misappropriation may be enjoined. Upon application to the court an injunction shall be terminated when the trade secret has ceased to exist, but the injunction may be continued for an additional reasonable period of time in order to eliminate commercial advantage that otherwise would be derived from the misappropriation.

(b) In exceptional circumstances, an injunction may condition future use upon payment of a reasonable royalty for no longer than the period of time for which use could have been prohibited. Exceptional circumstances include, but are not limited to, a material and prejudicial change of position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know of misappropriation that renders a prohibitive injunction inequitable.

(c) In appropriate circumstances, affirmative acts to protect a trade secret may be compelled by court order.

40-24-103. Damages.

(a) Except to the extent that a material and prejudicial change of position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know of misappropriation renders a monetary recovery inequitable, a complainant is entitled to recover damages for misappropriation. Damages can include both the actual loss caused by misappropriation and the unjust enrichment caused by misappropriation that is not taken into account in computing actual loss. In lieu of damages measured by any other methods, the damages caused by misappropriation may be measured by imposition of liability for a reasonable royalty for a misappropriator's unauthorized disclosure or use of a trade secret.

(b) If willful and malicious misappropriation exists, the court may award exemplary damages in the amount not exceeding twice any award made under subsection (a) of this section.

40-24-104. Attorney's fees.

(a) A court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party if:

(i) A claim of misappropriation is made in bad faith;

(ii) A motion to terminate an injunction is made or resisted in bad faith; or

(iii) Willful and malicious misappropriation exists.

40-24-105. Preservation of secrecy.

In any action under this act, a court shall preserve the secrecy of an alleged trade secret by reasonable means, which may include granting protective orders in connection with discovery proceedings, holding in-camera hearings, sealing the records of the action and ordering any person involved in the litigation not to disclose an alleged trade secret without prior court approval.

40-24-106. Statute of limitations.

An action for misappropriation must be brought within four (4) years after the misappropriation is discovered or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been discovered. For the purposes of this section, a continuing misappropriation constitutes a single claim.

40-24-107. Effect on other law.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, this act displaces conflicting tort, restitutionary and other law of this state providing civil remedies for misappropriation of a trade secret.

(b) This act does not affect:

(i) Contractual remedies, whether or not based upon misappropriation of a trade secret;

(ii) Other civil remedies that are not based upon misappropriation of a trade secret; or

(iii) Criminal remedies, whether or not based upon misappropriation of a trade secret.

This act may be cited as the Uniform Trade Secrets Act.

40-24-110. Time of taking effect.

This act does not apply to misappropriation occurring prior to July 1, 2006. With respect to a continuing misappropriation that began prior to July 1, 2006, the act does not apply to the continuing misappropriation that occurs after July 1, 2006.

(b) A person who suffers damage or loss by reason of a trespass under this section shall have a cause of action against the trespasser for all damages incurred, including any damages to the person's computer, computer system or computer network and any costs incurred by the person for services that could not be utilized as a result of the trespass. In a civil action brought under this section, in addition to damages, the injured claimant may be awarded the costs of litigation together with the reasonably necessary cost of identifying the trespasser, of obtaining effective service of process on the trespasser and of successfully effecting collection of the award from the person who perpetrated the trespass and from the person who caused the trespass.

(c) The definitions provided in W.S. 6-3-501 shall be applicable to this section.

(i) That at least eighty percent (80%) of the units are occupied by at least one (1) individual fifty-five (55) years of age or older per unit; and 40-26-118. Complaint.

(a) The enforcing authority shall investigate complaints of alleged discriminatory housing practices. An aggrieved person may file a complaint with the enforcing authority alleging the discriminatory housing practice. The enforcing authority may file a complaint. A complaint shall be in writing and shall contain such information and be in such form as prescribed by the enforcing authority. A complaint may be amended at any time.

(b) On the filing of a complaint, the enforcing authority shall give the aggrieved person notice that the complaint has been received, advise the aggrieved person of the time limits and choice of forums under this chapter, and not later than the tenth day after the date of the filing of the complaint or the identification of an additional or substitute respondent under W.S. 40-26-121, serve on each respondent a notice identifying

(a) If the federal government has referred a complaint to the enforcing authority or has deferred jurisdiction over the subject matter of the complaint to the enforcing authority, the enforcing authority shall investigate the allegations set forth in the complaint.

(b) The enforcing authority shall investigate all complaints and, except as provided by subsection (c) of this section, shall complete an investigation not later than the hundredth day after the date the complaint is filed or, if it is impracticable to complete the investigation within the one hundred (100) day period, shall dispose of all administrative proceedings related to the investigation not later than the first anniversary after the date the complaint is filed.

(c) If the enforcing authority is unable to complete an investigation within the time periods prescribed by subsection (b) of this section, the enforcing authority shall notify the complainant and the respondent in writing of the reasons for the delay.

40-26-121. Additional or substitute respondent.

The enforcing authority may join a person not named in the complaint as an additional or substitute respondent if during the investigation the enforcing authority determines that the person is alleged to be engaged, to have engaged, or to be about to engage in the discriminatory housing practice upon which the complaint is based. In addition to the information required in the notice under W.S. 40-26-118(b), the enforcing authority shall include in a notice to a respondent joined under this section the reasons for the determination that the person is properly joined as a respondent.

40-26-122. Conciliation.

The enforcing authority shall, during the period beginning with the filing of a complaint and ending with the filing of a charge or a dismissal by the enforcing authority, to the extent feasible, engage in conciliation with respect to the complaint. A conciliation agreement between a respondent and the complainant is subject to enforcing authority approval. A conciliation agreement may provide for binding arbitration or another method of dispute resolution. Dispute resolution that results from a conciliation agreement may authorize appropriate relief, including monetary relief.

40-26-123. Temporary or preliminary relief.

The enforcing authority may authorize a claim for relief for temporary or preliminary relief pending the final disposition of a complaint, if the enforcing authority concludes after the filing of the complaint that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. A temporary restraining order or other order granting preliminary or temporary relief under this section is governed by the applicable statutes and the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure. 40-26-124. Investigative report.

The enforcing authority shall prepare a final investigative report, including the names of and dates of contacts with witnesses, a summary of correspondence and other contacts with the aggrieved person and the respondent showing the dates of the correspondence and contacts, a summary description of other pertinent records, a summary of witness statements, and answers to interrogatories. A final report under this section may be amended if additional evidence is discovered.

(a) The enforcing authority shall determine from the facts whether reasonable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur. The enforcing authority shall make this determination not later than the one hundredth day after the date a complaint is filed unless making the determination is impracticable, or the enforcing authority approves a conciliation agreement relating to the complaint.

(b) If making the determination within the period is impracticable, the enforcing authority shall give in writing to the complainant and the respondent the reasons for the delay. If the enforcing authority determines that reasonable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the enforcing authority shall, except as provided by W.S. 40-26-127, immediately issue a charge on behalf of the aggrieved person.

40-26-126. Charge.

(a) A charge issued under W.S. 40-26-125 shall consist of a short and plain statement of the facts on which the enforcing authority finds reasonable cause to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, shall be based on the final investigative report, and is not limited to the facts or grounds alleged in the complaint.

(b) Within three (3) days after issuing a charge, the enforcing authority shall send a copy of the charge with information about the election under W.S. 40-26-130 to each respondent and each aggrieved person on whose behalf the complaint was filed.

(c) The enforcing authority shall include with a charge sent to a respondent a notice of the opportunity for a hearing under W.S. 40-26-131.

If the enforcing authority determines that the matter involves the legality of a state or local zoning or other land use law or ordinance, the enforcing authority may issue a charge and proceed with the appropriate action.

40-26-128. Dismissal.

If the enforcing authority determines that no reasonable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice that is the subject of a complaint has occurred or is about to occur, the enforcing authority shall promptly dismiss the complaint. The enforcing authority shall make public disclosure of each dismissal.

40-26-129. Pending civil trial.

The enforcing authority may not issue a charge alleging a discriminatory housing practice after the beginning of the trial of a civil action commenced by the aggrieved party under federal or state law seeking relief with respect to that discriminatory housing practice.

40-26-130. Election of judicial determination.

A complainant, a respondent, or an aggrieved person on whose behalf a complaint was filed may elect to have the claims asserted in the charge decided in a civil action as provided by W.S. 40-26-136. The election shall be made not later than the twentieth day after the date the person having the election receives service under W.S. 40-26-126(b) or, in the case of the enforcing authority, not later than the twentieth day after the date the charge is issued. The person making the election shall give notice to the enforcing authority and to all other complainants and respondents to whom the charge relates.

40-26-131. Administrative hearing.

If a timely election is not made under W.S. 40-26-130, the enforcing authority shall provide for a hearing on the charge. A hearing under this section on an alleged discriminatory housing practice may not continue after the beginning of the trial of a claim for relief commenced by the aggrieved person under federal or state law seeking relief with respect to the discriminatory housing practice.

40-26-132. Administrative penalties.

(a) If the enforcing authority determines at a hearing under W.S. 40-26-131 that a respondent has engaged in or is about to engage in a discriminatory housing practice, the enforcing authority may order the appropriate relief, including actual damages, reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and other injunctive or equitable relief.

(ii) Except as provided by subsection (c) of this section, twenty-seven thousand dollars ($27,000.00) if the respondent has been found by order of the enforcing authority or a court to have committed one (1) other discriminatory housing practice during the five (5) year period ending on the date of the filing of the charges and fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000.00) if the respondent has been found by the enforcing authority or a court to have committed two (2) or more discriminatory housing practices during the seven (7) year period ending on the date of filing of the charge.

(c) If the acts constituting the discriminatory housing practice that is the object of the charge are committed by the same individual who has previously been found to have committed acts constituting a discriminatory housing practice, the civil penalties in subsection (b) of this section may be imposed without regard to the period of time within which any other discriminatory housing practice occurred.

(d) The enforcing agency shall sue to recover a civil penalty due under this section. Funds collected under this section shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the common school fund in the county in which the offense occurred.

40-26-133. Effect of enforcing authority order.

An enforcing authority order under W.S. 40-26-132 does not affect a contract, sale, encumbrance or lease that is consummated before the enforcing authority issues the order and involves a bona fide purchaser, encumbrancer or tenant who did not have actual notice of the charge filed under this chapter.

40-26-134. Licensed or regulated business.

If the enforcing authority issues an order with respect to a discriminatory housing practice that occurs in the course of a business subject to a licensing or regulation by a governmental agency, the enforcing authority, not later than the thirtieth day after the date the order is issued, shall send copies of the findings and the order to the governmental agency and recommend to the governmental agency appropriate disciplinary action.

40-26-135. Order in preceding five years.

40-26-136. Attorney general action for enforcement.

If a timely election is made under W.S. 40-26-130, the attorney general may file not later than the thirtieth day after the date of the election a claim for relief in a district court. Venue for an action is in the county in which the alleged discriminatory housing practice occurred or is about to occur. An aggrieved person may intervene in the action. If the court finds that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the court may grant as relief any relief that a court may grant in a civil action under W.S. 40-26-129 through 40-26-143. If monetary relief is sought for the benefit of an aggrieved person who does not intervene in the civil action, the court may not award the monetary relief if that aggrieved person has not complied with discovery orders entered by the court.

40-26-137. Pattern or practice case; penalties.

(a) The attorney general may file a claim for relief in district court for appropriate relief if the enforcing authority has reasonable cause to believe that a person is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to the full enjoyment of a right granted under this chapter or a person has been denied a right granted by this chapter and that denial raises an issue of general public importance.

(b) In an action under this section, the court may:

(i) Award preventive relief, including a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order against the person responsible for a violation of this chapter as necessary to assure the full enjoyment of the rights granted by this chapter;

(ii) Award other appropriate relief, including monetary damages, reasonable attorney's fees, and court costs; and

(c) A person may intervene in an action under this section if the person is a person aggrieved by the discriminatory housing practice or a party to a conciliation agreement concerning the discriminatory housing practice.

40-26-138. Subpoena enforcement.

The enforcing authority or another party at whose request a subpoena is issued under this chapter, may enforce the subpoena in appropriate proceedings in district court.

40-26-139. Civil action.

(a) An aggrieved person may file a civil action in district court not later than the second year after the date of the occurrence or the termination of an alleged discriminatory housing practice or the breach of a conciliation agreement entered under this chapter, whichever occurs last, to obtain appropriate relief with respect to the discriminatory housing practice or breach.

(b) The two (2) year period does not include any time during which an administrative hearing under this chapter is pending with respect to a complaint or charge under this chapter based on the discriminatory housing practice. This subsection does not apply to actions arising from the breach of a conciliation agreement.

(c) An aggrieved person may file a claim for relief whether a complaint has been filed under W.S. 40-26-118 and without regard to the status of any complaint filed under that section.

(d) If the enforcing authority has obtained a conciliation agreement with the consent of an aggrieved person, the aggrieved person may not file a claim for relief with respect to the alleged discriminatory housing practice that forms the basis of the complaint except to enforce the terms of the agreement.

(e) An aggrieved person may not file a claim for relief with respect to an alleged discriminatory housing practice that forms the basis of a charge issued by the enforcing authority if the enforcing authority has begun a hearing on the record under this chapter with respect to the charge.

40-26-140. Relief granted.

If the court finds that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the court may award to the plaintiff actual and punitive damages, reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, and subject to W.S. 40-26-142, a permanent or temporary injunction, temporary restraining order, or other order, including an order enjoining the defendant from engaging in the practice or ordering appropriate affirmative action.

40-26-141. Effect of relief granted.

Relief granted under W.S. 40-26-139 through 40-26-143 does not affect a contract, sale, encumbrance or lease that is consummated before the granting of the relief and involves a bona fide purchaser, encumbrancer or tenant who did not have actual notice of the filing of a complaint or civil action under this chapter.

40-26-142. Intervention by attorney general.

The attorney general may intervene in an action under W.S. 40-26-139 through 40-26-143 if the attorney general certifies that the case is of general public importance. The attorney general may obtain the same relief as is available to the attorney general under W.S. 40-26-137(b).

40-26-143. Prevailing party.

A court in an action brought under this chapter or the enforcing authority in an administrative hearing under W.S. 40-26-131 may award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party and assess court costs against the nonprevailing party.

40-26-144. Intimidation or interference; penalty.

(a) A person commits an offense if the person, without regard to whether the person is acting under color of law, by force or threat of force, intentionally intimidates or interferes with an individual:

(i) Because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, disability, age, familial status, national origin or status with respect to marriage or public assistance and because the individual is or has been selling, purchasing, renting, financing, occupying or contracting or negotiating for the sale, purchase, rental, financing or occupation of any dwelling or applying for or participating in a service, organization or facility relating to the business of selling or renting dwellings; or

(b) It is a discriminatory practice to coerce, intimidate, threaten or interfere with any individual in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of the individual having exercised or enjoyed, or on account of the individual having aided or encouraged any other individual in the exercise or enjoyment of, any right granted or protected by this chapter.

(c) An offense under subsection (a) or (b) of this section is a misdemeanor.

40-26-145. Records exempt.

A complaint filed with the enforcing authority under W.S. 40-26-118 is an open record. Information obtained during an investigation conducted by the enforcing authority under this chapter can be used in any judicial proceedings or administrative hearing relating to the complaint under this chapter or before the administrative closure of a complaint by the enforcing authority. The enforcing authority may disclose to the complainant or the respondent, or representatives of the complainant or respondent, information obtained during an investigation if deemed necessary by the enforcing authority for securing an appropriate resolution of a complaint. The enforcing authority may disclose information obtained during an investigation to a federal agency if necessary for the processing of complaints under an agreement with the agency. Individually identifiable health information obtained during an investigation may not be disclosed by the enforcing authority except to a federal agency if necessary for the processing of complaints under an agreement with the agency. Statements made or actions taken during conciliation efforts relating to a complaint under this chapter may not be disclosed by the enforcing authority, except to a federal agency if necessary for the processing of complaints under an agreement with the agency, and may not be used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding under this chapter without the written consent of the parties to the conciliation. A conciliation agreement is an open record unless the complainant and respondent agree that it is not and the enforcing authority determines that disclosure is not necessary to further the purposes of this chapter.

(b) Not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the notional value of all outstanding issued Wyoming stable tokens shall be maintained in the Wyoming stable token trust account.
